GRAHAM, N. C., MAY 30, 1929.

LOCAL NEWS.

Superior Court again next week. It's a two-weeks term. Tomorrow closes the tax-listing period as provided by law. The County Commissioners meet in regular monthly session next Monday. Col. Don E. Scott has been appointed by Gov. Gardner a member of his personal staff. A large crowd is expected at the memorial exercises at Providence church Sunday. On last Monday night the town Commissioners elected Carl Longest to succeed Mrs. R. N. Cook as Secretary and Treasurer.

"Old Glory" Waves Over Graham Public School Building.

The Junior Order of Graham presented the Graham School with a flag-pole and United States flag on last Saturday afternoon. The ceremony took place at 2:30 o'clock. The members of Graham Council assembled at their hall and marched from there in a body to the school building. Graham troupe of Boy Scouts in uniform also marched to the school building in a body. A good audience was present to witness the ceremonies. Mr. Sharpe of Reidsville, prominent in Junior Order circles throughout the State, and an interesting speaker, made a splendid address. The Junior Order, among the other good things it stands for, stands for patriotism and education and exemplifies these principles by placing U. S. flags over public school buildings.

Mitchell-Farrell

The friends of the prospective bridegroom in Graham have received the following interesting announcement:

Mrs. Harold Wiggins Mitchell requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter Gwendolyn to Mr. Robert Dewey Farrell on Wednesday evening, June twelfth nineteen hundred and twenty-nine at half past seven o'clock Horne Memorial Methodist Church Clayton, North Carolina. At Home after July the first 601 Magnolia Street Greensboro, North Carolina.

Miss Mitchell is a young woman of unusual charm and highly accomplished in music. Mr. Farrell is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. H. Farrell of Graham. He is a fine young man and very popular. At one time he was engaged in the drug business here and now he is a druggist in Greensboro.

Branch Farm Picnics Arranged For Summer

A series of field days and farm picnics have been arranged for the six branch stations of the North Carolina Experiment Station and farmers who live in the vicinity of a station are invited to attend. "The first of the annual picnics will be held at the Piedmont Branch Station farm near Statesville on July 18," says Fred E. Miller, assistant director in charge of test farms for the State Department of Agriculture. "The others are as follows: Tobacco Station, Oxford, August 1; Blackland Station, Wenoona, August 8; Mountain Station, Swannanoa, August 15; Upper Coastal Plane Station, route 5, Rocky Mount, September 5, and Coastal Plain Station, Willard, September 12. Every farmer is invited to bring his family and a well filled basket to the picnic held at the station near which he lives. We are planning interesting programs."

Eli Whitney 4-H Club Meeting

The meeting of the Eli Whitney 4-H Club, held Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. McPherson near Saxapahaw, was one of the most pleasant meetings of the Club year. The program for the afternoon consisted of a lecture by Mr. O. F. McCrary, Dist. Agent, who has been in the County for a short time. Mr. McCrary made an interesting talk on what the 4-H Clubs of Alamance County are doing, and what the Clubs of various other states have done. After Miss Beale, president of the Sylvan 4-H Club, gave a report of what their Club has done and what they are expecting to do at the Club shows this fall, Mr. Herring, Asst. County Agent, made several remarks as to how Alamance stands in Club work. He also remarked to the parents who were present the care the Club members would get on the coming trip. Christine McPherson, assisted by her brother, R. G. McPherson, served ice cream and cold drinks. The Sylvan Club members and the parents of the Whitney Club members were invited as guests, but as it was a busy time only Mr. George Beale, Clem Wright, Josephine and Lloyd Beale of Sylvan and Mrs. Ben Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Foust Thompson, Claude Thompson and George Stockard were present. Graham Public School Commencement Exercises May 31st to June 7th.

The annual commencement exercises of Graham Public Schools will begin on Friday night, May 31, 1929, with the presentation of an operetta by the grades and will end on Friday night, June 7, 1929, with the commencement exercises of the class. In detail, the exercises are as follows: Friday, May 31, 8 p. m., High School Auditorium—Operetta, "Midsummer's Day." The operetta is the story of how a child lost her flowers through neglect. Everyone come and see how she, with the aid of the Fairy Queen, the Sunbonnet Girls, the Overall Boys and others, wins them back. There are seventy-four characters, taken by sixty-six children from the primary and intermediate grades. These children have been trained by the teachers of the primary grades. It will be well worth the time of everyone to see this clever and colorful operetta. Sunday, June 2, 8 p. m., Presbyterian Church—Baccalaureate Sermon. We are very fortunate to have Dr. F. S. Hickman of the Department of Religious Education, Duke University, to deliver the Baccalaureate sermon this year. The exercises will be held in the Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock. Thursday, June 6, 8 p. m., Auditorium High School Play—"Be An Optimist." Well chosen and well presented is our last high school play—"Be An Optimist." Here we have a very interesting story of a young man winning the love of the daughter before he does the mother. The question is—how was the mother won? Be there and in time to avoid the rush. An evening of fun will be assured. Friday, June 7, 8 p. m., Auditorium—Closing Exercises. This, the final night of the commencement, will consist of the class exercises and the literary address. Again we are fortunate in having Dr. P. E. Lindley, Dean of High Point college, as our speaker. It will be worth the time of all to attend. The officers of the class of 1929 are:

Frank Lee Holt, President. Doris Crutchfield, Vice-President. Emma Buckner, Secretary. Leslie Nicholson, Treasurer. With the exercises on Friday, the school will be formally closed, thus ending the year 1928-29.

Providence Memorial Association—Twenty-Seventh Annual Meeting to be Held Sunday, June 2nd.

The 27th annual meeting of Providence Memorial Association will be held Sunday. The following program has been arranged for the day: Forenoon 10:30—Song services, by united choirs, J. Ben Farrell, director. 10:45—Meeting formally called to order by the president of the Association. Prayer. 10:55—Scripture lesson by J. U. Fogleman, Pastor. Prayer, by Rev. W. E. Harrop, Pastor of Graham Presbyterian church. Duet, Messrs. Freeze and Amick. 11:00—Treasurer's report. Solo, by Miss Elva Ausley. 11:15—Address by Hon. Chas. H. Ireland, of Greensboro, N. C. Duet, Shoffner and Cates. 11:45—Memorial Address by Rev. Daniel Albright Long, D. D., of Florence, S. C. Benediction. Afternoon Assemble in church at ringing of the bell. Business meeting of the Association. Minutes by the secretary. Detail report by the Treasurer. Election of officers. Appointment of Committees. Motions and Resolutions. Open meeting for short talks, etc.

Commercial vegetable and fruit growing will likely pass away from North Carolina if the Mediterranean Fruit Fly gets a start here. The pest attacks peaches, apples, plums, figs, tomatoes, melons and all other fruits of similar character. Catawba County has begun its campaign to eradicate scrub dairy sires and become the third county in the State with this enviable record. Gaston and Buncombe have completed the work. Farm and Home week will be held at State College, July 22 to 26. An agricultural program for North Carolina will be studied during the week.
