

THE GLEANER

GRAHAM, N. C., AUG. 14, 1930.

LOCAL NEWS

Superior Court ended at noon today—too late to give the proceedings in this issue.

Some good showers in this section have changed the appearance of vegetation very much.

J. Ed. Beaver and James T. Self are opening an electric shop next door to Graham Theatre. Both are experienced in doing electrical work.

It was cold enough for coats and blankets the first of the week. The change was the more noticeable on account of the extremely hot weather preceding.

A very destructive rain and wind storm hit a section west of Burlington last Thursday afternoon. There was much damage to crops and buildings.

Mrs. Thos. R. Harden underwent a serious operation at Rainey Hospital the latter part of last week and her friends will be pleased to learn that she is improving satisfactorily.

Graham Kiwanis Club will hold its next meeting Friday evening, August 15th, meeting at Bethel Church in Newlin township, South Alamance. Last Friday evening's meeting was held at Long's Chapel, where the ladies of the community served a very tempting supper and a most enjoyable hour was spent. The speaker of the evening was Mr. R. B. House of the University, and Mrs. H. W. Scott, Mrs. W. I. Ward and Misses Louise and Margaret Moore enhanced the pleasure of the occasion with a number of familiar songs.

DIXON-MARSHALL REUNION SATURDAY AUGUST SIXTEENTH Lindley-Newlin Reunion 23rd.

On Saturday, August 16th, the Dixon-Marshall reunion will be held at Cane Creek Friends Church, exercises beginning at 10 o'clock. An interesting program has been arranged for the occasion. R. H. Hutchison is historian on the occasion. A marker will be dedicated to William and Rebecca Dixon Marshall, address by Rev. Lewis McFarland, and dinner on the grounds.

On Saturday following, August 23, the Lindley-Newlin reunion will be held at Spring Friends Church. The address for this occasion will be made by Harlam Lindley of Columbus, Ohio, prominent in that state in historical research. Attractive program and dinner on grounds.

Both of these reunions will be largely attended. Many of the descendants of those who have moved to other parts are expected to be present to shake hands with relatives never seen before.

ERNEST ELLIOTT DIES OF AUTO INJURIES

Reidsville, Aug. 11.—Ernest Elliott, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Elliott, residents of near Faucette's store, seven miles east of Reidsville, died in the Annie Penn Memorial hospital about 10:30 o'clock this morning from injuries sustained when struck by a car said to have been driven by Mrs. C. F. Stout, of Graham, at Faucette's store Sunday about 12 o'clock, noon. Mrs. Stout is confined to the local hospital, suffering from minor bruises and severe nervousness which was said to have resulted from the accident, while George Faucette, owner of the store, who was also struck by the car, was reported slightly injured.

Mr. Faucette and the Elliott child, according to reports, were sitting in the yard of the Faucette home when Mrs. Stout came by in her car, her attention apparently directed on a sign board. She lost control of the machine, which left the highway, plunging into the Faucette home lawn and striking Mr. Faucette and the Elliott child. One of the child's legs was broken and his body badly bruised. He was taken to the hospital for treatment, but succumbed to the injuries.

Mrs. Stout was taken before Magistrate N. A. Winstead for a hearing Sunday afternoon and required to report later. She was later, however, taken to the hospital, where she was confined Monday night. Her condition was not serious, it was reported.

PERSONAL

Miss Elizabeth Pomeroy went to Newport News, Va., Monday to visit friends.

Chas. C. Thompson left last Friday for Camp Bragg to spend two or three weeks.

Messrs. A. P. Williams and T. H. Jordan left for New York last Sunday to spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clarke and son, Phillip, of Chicago, are visiting Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Stratford.

Clarence L. Bradshaw, in the mercantile business at Fieldale, Va., spent the week-end here with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Ezell, of Reidsville, visited here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ezell, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovick H. Kernodle, of Danville, spent last Sunday afternoon here with Mr. and Mrs. John B. Stratford.

Misses Nancy and Linda Riddle have returned to their home in Raleigh after a week's visit here at the home of their uncle, Mr. J. Dolph Long.

Mrs. E. P. Jones spent last week at her old home at Lenoir and attended a family reunion on Sunday. Mr. Jones went to Lenoir Saturday and returned with her Sunday evening.

Major and Mrs. J. J. Henderson returned last Thursday night from Newport, R. I., where they visited Lieutenant and Mrs. Michael Holt Kernodle. Miss Cora Emmaline Henderson remained for a visit of two or three weeks with Mrs. Kernodle.

NO VACATION FOR THE AUGUST GARDEN

The home gardener who looks forward to a plentiful supply of fresh vegetables this fall and winter will take a vacation himself but will keep the garden at work.

E. B. Morrow, extension horticulturist at State College, says it may look hard to think of planting vegetable seeds when the thermometer is hanging around in the nineties, yet there are many crops which may be planted during the second and third weeks of August that will mature before frost.

Among the stand-bys which he recommends are snap beans, beets, cabbage, carrots, cowpeas, corn, lettuce and turnips.

Snap beans may be planted every two or three weeks up until 60 days before the first killing frost. This means as late as September the first, in the central part of the State. Young beets will stand a great deal of hot weather once they are up and growing. The crop prefers cool weather but will give a harvest if planted ten to twelve weeks before a killing frost.

Plants of the early maturing cabbage such as Copenhagen Market and Jersey Wakefield may be set as late as the second week of August with assurance of a crop. The crop should be forced with a nitrogen side-dresser as soon as the plants are established, recommends Mr. Morrow.

Carrots require the same conditions as beets and will stand some frost but not heavy freezes. Cowpeas of the Blackeye variety should be given a row or two in the fall garden for home use.

Early varieties of corn may also be planted in the eastern and central sections of the State with assurance of a crop before frost. Lettuce is worth trying as a fall crop if there is some fertile soil available. No fall garden is complete without a good space to turnips, says Mr. Morrow.

After plowing under a field of sweet clover and planting the land to wheat, C. S. Martin of Iredell County harvested an average of 22 bushels as compared with eight bushels an acre before using the sweet clover.

Graham 50 Years Ago.

Those who have been keeping up with our 50 years ago chats are reminded that they will be continued.

There are a number of points we wished to put together to get a good start up west side of North Main street. These we have not had time to put together in a shape that suited us.

That old northwest corner of the court house square has some secrets we wish to divulge, hence we take a sort of rest this week.

MAY CONTROL FLEAS BY PROPER METHODS

Best conditions for fleas to breed in greatest numbers are found in such places as under a porch. Here the parasites breed in the soil or dust which contains some vegetable or animal matter yet is protected from the sun, rain and wind and gets a certain amount of moisture. "We have had more than the usual number of complaints about heavy infestations of fleas in dwellings this past few weeks," says C. H. Brannon, extension entomologist at State college. "Animals and poultry should be prevented from going under the porch and the vegetable and organic matter usually found in such places should be carefully cleaned out. When this is done the area should be sprayed with creosote oil and the ground where the immature fleas are developing should be thoroughly covered with salt and wet down."

Mr. Brannon says most infestations in dwelling houses are caused by pet animals allowed in the cellar or basement or permitted to lounge and sleep under the porch. The fleas breed rapidly in the dust and will quickly infest a house when the pets are permitted to come in after having used the infested area.

Such house infestations may be controlled by keeping out the animals and applying gasoline to the floors. The rugs should be removed and the floors thoroughly scrubbed first, says Mr. Brannon. Applying derris powder to pet animals and washing them in a weak solution of saponified creosote or kerosene emulsion will destroy the fleas upon them. The skin of cats is tender and the dips or washes used must be milder than for dogs, he says.

FARMERS ELECT OFFICERS AND ADOPT RESOLUTIONS

H. G. Ashcroft of Charlotte, R. F. D., was elected president of the State Farmers' convention and Mrs. N. B. Stedman of Halifax was elected president of the State Federation of Home Demonstration clubs at the final business session of the twenty-eighth annual convention held at Raleigh, July 29, to August 1.

Warren Watson of Lake Landing was elected first vice president of the convention; F. W. Bicknell of Lynville Falls, second vice president; I. O. Schaub, of State college, secretary and treasurer, and C. A. Sheffield, assistant secretary and treasurer.

Aiding Mrs. Stedman will be Mrs. J. I. Wagoner of Gibsonville, as first vice president of the State Federation of Home Demonstration clubs; Mrs. D. H. Bennett of Forsyth county, second vice president; Mrs. J. S. Royal of Salemburg, recording secretary; Mrs. O. H. Jackson of Pitt county, corresponding secretary and Mrs. D. A. McCormick, of McDonalds, treasurer.

The resolution passed by the convention commanded Gov. Gardner for his interest in agriculture and endorsed his economy policy; state support of public schools was advocated; operation of all highways by the state commission endorsed; taxes on land was asked to be reduced and all personal property listed at its true value; the work for the county government advisory commission was approved; the use of convicts in building roads was urged; the formation of marketing associations commended; county agent and home work endorsed; the administration of the present state banking laws was caustically criticized, and highway beautification urged. In all nineteen resolutions were adopted.

Approximately 2,000 persons attended the convention this year. Among these were 1,060 women. The convention was said to be one of the most successful in the history of the institution.

Four acres of Irish potatoes produced 634 bushels of marketable tubers on the farm of John J. Ratchford of Catawba County. Considering the prevailing drought, this is considered an excellent yield.

Dr. Daniel Albright Long

A Tribute From William Thornton Whitsett

On Wednesday, August 6, I had the pleasure of attending the annual reunion held at Trolinger Memorial M. P. church at Haw River. It was a day filled with interesting events, and much interest was aroused in the wealth of historical events that cluster around the story of this family, and this section in which they first settled. These will become matters of record as preserved by the historian of the association, and the secretary in charge of the records of these annual reunions. I wish to speak a word especially of one of the speakers of this occasion.

Dr. Daniel Albright Long was on the program for an address on "Reminiscences of Alamance County" and in eloquent words he told the story of the past of his native county; perhaps, as no one else could have done because of his own personal connection with much of the past history.

Dr. Long was born in Alamance county May 2, 1844, the son of Jacob and Jane Stewart Stockard Long, who gave to the state one of its most interesting and influential families, the sons becoming especially noted in the fields of teaching, law, and the ministry of the Christian church. He was educated at the University of North Carolina, where he was given his A. M. degree in 1871, and D. D. in 1876, and then LL. D. at a later time. He holds also the honorary degree of LL. D., from Union Christian college, Columbia university, Yale university, University of Virginia and University of Pennsylvania. For ten years he was president of Graham Normal college, the forerunner of the present Elon college, and later was president for sixteen years of Antioch college at Yellow Springs, Ohio, where his work came into national prominence and recognition. For eight years he was president of the American Christian convention of the United States and Canada. He has held many other important positions.

Now past his four score years, Dr. Long is still with us, his mind still bright and clear, and his memory of the days he has lived still unimpaired. Always a close student, he is well-versed in local, state and national history, and no man living knows more of the causes and effects that have played upon the history of Alamance county, and no one could take more pride in the part his county has played in the stirring times now gone than Dr. Long. "He was one of the prime movers in first calling attention to the work of the Regulators, and was one of the chief agents in having the monument erected on the spot that commemorates the Battle of Alamance, May 16, 1771. Making his present home in Florence, S. C., he delights in visits to his native soil, and his multitudes of friends who always welcome his coming. As an individual becomes somewhat withdrawn from active affairs as the years creep along there is a tendency to forget the part he has played, and hence, it is a joy to hear one like Dr. Long on the public platform from time to time, and to listen to his vivid descriptions of much that has gone into the making of the history of county and state. It is a benediction to come in touch with this scholar and Christian philosopher from time to time, and wonder at his clear grasp of world affairs, and especially to catch something of his abounding optimism concerning the affairs of man on earth, which in his view are continually moving on to "that divine far-off event" under God's ever-directing hand; here a lapse, and there a lapse, but the century considered movement ever for a better world, and a finer type of humanity.

Long may the years be kind to this sage of Alamance—Daniel Albright Long—teacher, scholar, orator, minister,—one of the outstanding men of his generation.
