Morrison is one of the paign committee in a senatorial An old corn sheller may be used to Ratliffe, dec'd, No. 1343, the state's ablest campaigners.

All who want to hear the issues Democratic standpoint should hear these able speakers.

Everybody, especially the ladies, are urged to turn out and hear these speakers.

Since the death of the late Sheriff John F. Harward, of Durham county, an investigation has been going on of the sheriff's office and a bad condition of the finances is disclosed. A shortage of around $175,000 is reported. The "grim reaper" came in apt time, it seems. Some of his deputies, it appears, will not come out with clean hands.

The voluminous writer of Republican propaganda is finding daily something to stir his fountain of speech. If the ugly things, as they appear to him, were going on when he was county attorney (if we have the right sow by the ear), why did he not call the attention of the county commissioners, a Republican body, to them and have them done as he claims now they should bave been done?

Next Monday has been mentioned as the time for the trial of M. W. Gant, late clerk of the superior court of Guilford county, charged with various phases of misconduct, in office, especially with regard to Confederate pension matters. Investigations which have been going the place of senator? on reveal that he has received more than $20,000 wrongfully. As a result about through the supporters of survey turned by the grand jury.

This little act of courtesy will do him no harm when tee said it saw no reason for the he takes his seat in the senate on investigation in the matter of exthe 4th of next March.

Chairman Will S. Long, Jr., of the county election board, is of opinion, in voting precincts where the number of voters is large, that there will not be time enough for all the electors to cast their ballots in the coming election, as there are constitutional amendments to be voted on besides those of the candidates for office.
