

THE GLEANER

GRAHAM, N. C., SEPT. 17, 1931

LOCAL NEWS

Alamance tobacco markets are scheduled to open on Sept. 29th.

It is less than a week till the days will be shorter than the nights.

Are you ready for the Mebane Fair? It opens next Monday and lasts till Saturday night.

You can pay your admission to the Mebane Fair with wheat or corn. That's an agricultural fair, all right.

Mr. Earl Patterson of Burlington has announced himself a candidate for U. S. Marshal for the Middle District of N. C.

A scorching September sun has been getting in his work the past few days—almost as warm as at any time during the past hot summer.

Dresses are visibly longer than they were a year ago. As to hats, they are less conspicuous, and their altitude is one of the unknown quantities.

Home-coming memorial day will be observed at Bethel church, Newlin Township, Sunday. The speaker for the day is Mr. Junius H. Harden.

Haywood Harris, 13 year-old boy died Sunday at Rainey Hospital. His home was at Hopedale. Last week he fell from a tree and fractured his skull.

The following Graham boys are entering the University at Chapel Hill this week: Fred Holt, Coy McAdams, Kirk Hardee, James Cook, Edwin Williams and Peter R. Harden, Jr. The first two are former students.

It is learned here this morning that Mrs. J. H. Weatherby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Parker, Jr., of Greensboro, former resident of Graham, underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis Wednesday night. Her home is in Indianapolis, Ind. Mr. and Mrs. Parker are leaving today by airplane for Indianapolis.

Friday night is ladies' night at the weekly meeting of Graham Kiwanis Club, and a very enjoyable evening is anticipated. An unusually interesting program has been arranged. Hon. Walter D. Siler, Assistant Attorney General of Raleigh, will be the speaker of the evening. The meeting will be held in the Public School auditorium.

Gov. Albert G. Ritchie of Maryland, much-talked of candidate for president next year, has been invited to speak at the Mebane Fair next week. It is understood that he will come, but cannot be definitely announced at this time on what day he will be there. It is an event for so prominent a citizen to be secured to speak at a county fair, but he is sure to have a big audience when the time of his coming is certain.

Has it occurred to you that we are taking the short end of the rope in the proposition to give a year's subscription to the Gleaner for a bushel of wheat? What is 60 cents—the top of the market—per bushel in these parts. In the real wheat territory much of it is being sold as low as 20 cents. When wheat was two and a half times what it is now, and more, the Gleaner remained at a $1.00. This offer will be withdrawn before long, so why not take advantage of the offer now!

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Green's daughter, Mary Lena, is sick of diphtheria.

Prof. Chas. W. Phillips of the Greensboro city schools addressed the Kiwanis club here last Friday evening.

Rev. J. U. Fogleman, pastor of Providence Memorial Christian church, will teach at Sylvan high school the ensuing year and will also have charge of athletics for the school.

The closing game of the Central Carolina league schedule was played at Alamance last Saturday between Graham and Alamance and Graham was the winner by a score of 9 to 8.

Graham Music Lovers' Club held its September meeting with Mrs. W. E. Harrop Tuesday evening. She and Mrs. W. I. Ward and Miss Annie Ruth Harden were hostesses for the evening.

Miss Gena Robertson, daughter of Mrs. B. S. Robertson of Morgantown, W. Va., and the late B. S. Robertson, formerly of Haw River, is now a resident of Honduras, Central America, where she is head of a hospital. She recently visited relatives in this state and will be remembered by a number in this community.

Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus

Sensations and thrills are packed into the 1931 performance of the Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus, which will make its appearance in DURHAM on SAT., SEPT. 26th. Great interest has been manifested in the coming of this high-class circus and hundreds of people from this community are going to attend the exhibitions.

Heading the list of dare-devils is "The Great Wilno" who is actually fired with violent velocity from the mouth of a monster cannon. Wilno is one of the sensations of the present day, as this human bullet shoots through space from the huge gun to a net many feet away. Wilno is an exclusive Hagenbeck-Wallace feature.

Clyde Beatty, the youthful subjugator, who is said to be the world's greatest animal trainer, will offer a display of over 30 ferocious Royal Bengal and Siberian tigers and African lions. This is the largest group ever presented under the aegis of any American trainer. Aage Christians, a noted European trainer, will present a vicious and savage group of hyenas, leopards, pumas, bears and other animals.

Included among the arctic stars will be Poodles Hanneford and family of riders, the Flying Clarktons, Wright Troupe, the Montmartre Family of acrobats, the Lee Sisters, the Walter Neiss Troupe, and the Nortons. Clown alley, as usual, will contain only the best of laugh-provokers. "The Golden Orient," a beautiful story of old Japan, will provide the opening musical presentation.
