

THE GLEANER

GRAHAM, N. C., JAN. 19, 1933.

Local News.

J. H. Eason went to the government hospital at Portsmouth, Va., the latter part of last week for treatment.

The weather has been very mild for the past few days, in fact almost spring-like but don't part with your winter clothes for a while yet.

Mayor Joseph S. Holt went out to Rainey hospital Tuesday for observation and treatment for a few days. He has not felt very well for several weeks and it is hoped he will be much benefited.

There was a little spurt of snow here early last Thursday evening. It was about an inch deep. At Durham it was 3 or 4 inches. At Raleigh 4 to 6 inches. The eastern part of the State was pretty well blanketed.

A daughter, Sarah Agnes, was born Sunday to Dr. and Mrs. Sam Vest at Duke hospital. The parents, and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Thompson, are receiving the congratulations of their friends. Both the mother and child are doing well.

Owing to prevalence of flu, on last Friday afternoon it was announced Graham School would suspend for a week with the hope that conditions would improve. On that date 175 pupils and school teachers were detained at home on account of sickness.

We ran down to Chapel Hill Wednesday evening and took a peep at the newspaper men and women. They were good company. President Frank Graham made a winning speech of welcome, which was responded to by John A. Park, President of the Press Association, who introduced Gov. Ehringhaus. The Governor made a plea to the press for help to keep the State on its feet and forge ahead.

Mother of Mrs. Charles E. Saunders Dies Suddenly.

On Sunday last, about 12:30, Mrs. Chas. E. Saunders, (formerly Miss Elaine Goode) received a message that her mother, Mrs. W. E. Goode, was critically ill at her home at Scotland Neck. Mr. and Mrs. Saunders left at once for Scotland Neck, about 130 miles distant.

Mrs. Goode, not always well but apparently in good health, went to the Baptist church of which her husband is pastor. Not feeling very well, she went home before the service was over. When Mr. Goode reached home at 12:15 he found Mrs. Goode prostrate from a stroke. Later she had a second stroke and passed at 2 o'clock.

The funeral and burial were at Boiling Springs, Cleveland county, her old home, at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning. Mrs. Goode, before marriage, was Miss Hamrick. She is survived by her husband, one daughter and other relatives. Mrs. Goode was a lovable woman and much esteemed by the acquaintances she had made here during her brief visits.

Mrs. Saunders has been a member of the Graham School faculty during the past four and a half years, and the many friends she has made here deeply sympathize with her and her father in their irreparable loss and sore bereavement.
