

Local News.

The fog and cool mist yesterday was typical of Fall.

Graham Christian church picnic at Gantz Lake last Saturday afternoon.

Graham Drug Co.'s new building is nearing completion. Some wood work and furnishing will complete the job.

Dr. W. C. Wicker will fill his regular appointment at Graham Christian church next Sunday morning, the third Sunday.

Elon College has had a good opening, exceeding a year ago by a goodly number, but the exact figures are not available at this writing.

Alamance County for school purposes has been divided into 10 districts, and the State School Commission has allotted 208 teachers for the county, of which 157 are for white schools and 51 for colored schools.

The Mebane Fair opened Monday under favorable auspices. The exhibits are reported good, as well as the attendance. The special features at night are drawing large crowds. It will close at 12 o'clock Saturday night.

The Mission Study Class of Graham Christian church held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Jas. P. Harden. It was the time for the election of officers, and among the new officers Mrs. Harden was elected president.

Sam A. Cooper, who has taught agriculture for several years at Farmer, Randolph county, has accepted a similar position with the Alexander Wilson school. Mr. and Mrs. Cooper are living at the Lee Cooper home, Graham Route 2, near Swepsonville.

The Public Schools of the county, town and country, will open on Monday next, Sept. 18th. Teachers have been secured for all schools, with an exception or two, according to news coming from County Superintendent M. E. Yount's office. As the schools will not run as many months this year as they have in recent years, it behooves parents to see that their children enter promptly and attend regularly to get all the benefits possible.

The friends of Mrs. Chas. W. Causey of Greensboro, who was Miss Bess Scott of Graham, will be pleased to learn that she has sufficiently improved to be removed to Greensboro. It will be remembered that about ten weeks ago she was seriously injured in an automobile accident near New Bern and that since that time she has been in a hospital in Richmond. Mr. Causey and others in the car suffered injuries, but not of a serious nature.

The Superior Court is now on its second and last week. A large volume of business has been disposed of. A suit against the N. C. Railroad for the deaths of the wives of S. W. Lee and E. A. Gillespie on the morning of Sept. 21, 1932, at Graham station started Monday. Each was suing for $50,000, and two others for $5,000 each. After the trial had gotten under way a compromise was proposed. The case was settled by the defendants paying $3,800.

Marion Blunt of Greenville is here visiting Bill Scott. They attended the Darlington School at Athens, Ga., last year and were room mates. Both will enter the University at Chapel Hill and room together again.

Mrs. Edgar Long, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ernest Thompson and daughter, Sara Bell, left yesterday for Florence, S. C., to visit Dr. Daniel Albright Long, who has been sick and reported better a few days ago. They expect to go to Myrtle Beach for a day and return the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Saunders left Sunday for Rockingham where they will make their home. Mrs. Saunders, the former Miss Elaine Goode, had been a highly esteemed member of Graham School faculty for the past four years. She was married about a year ago and continued to make her home here. Mr. Saunders has entered into the automobile sales business with a brother in Rockingham. The many friends of both here sincerely regret their leaving Graham.

Lieut. M. H. Kernodle, Graham Boy, in World Record Flight.

The honor of participating in the world-record flight by seaplane in mass formation comes to a Graham boy, Lieut. Michael Holt Kernodle.

He piloted one of the six planes which took off from Norfolk last Thursday night and landed at Coco Solo, Canal Zone, Friday. The distance is 2,059 miles and the time 24 hours and 55 minutes. It was a non-stop flight, and exceeded by some 200 miles any jump made by Gen. Balboa with his fleet in his visit to Chicago a few weeks ago.

The incident is of local interest on account of Lieut. Kernodle being a native of Graham and the only Southern man designated to pilot a plane. The flotilla may make another flight, it is intimated, from the Canal Zone to San Diego, Calif., a distance of 3,000 miles, and after this a visit to Gen. Balboa in Italy. But these flights it is not certain will materialize.

Lieut. Kernodle is a son of J. D. Kernodle and the late Mrs. Kernodle.

After finishing in Graham High School, he was appointed a candidate to enter the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis by the late Maj. Chas. M. Stedman, Congressman from the Fifth District. He was prepared to enter the Academy at Werntz's Preparatory School, near Annapolis.

While a midshipman, during the World War, he was included in a detail to lay the mines in the North Sea.

He finished at the Academy in 1921, being delayed a year on account of an injury he suffered on the athletic field.

In 1924 he took his air training at the station at Pensacola, Fla. Almost continuously since then he has been in the air service.

That he has attained a considerable degree of proficiency in that branch of service is attested by the fact that he has won at least three handsome trophies.

For three years, prior to the two years ago, he was in Honolulu and executive head of the U. S. Navy air station there.

At present he is stationed at the Norfolk air base where he and his wife are now making their home.

Maj. Stevens Simmons to Help Combat "Sleeping" Sickness.

Graham friends of Maj. Stevens Simmons (physician in U. S. Army service and at present serving at Walter Reed hospital in Washington), who knew him here from childhood to manhood, will be interested to learn that he has been detailed to go to St. Louis to study and combat the "sleeping" sickness epidemic.

Maj. Simmons ranks high as a physician and his selection is a recognition of his skill. He is a son of the late Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Simmons and a brother-in-law of Col. Don E. Scott.

William H. Black Passes.

After a serious illness of four weeks, William Henry Black, 68, well known and esteemed citizen of Graham for more than thirty years, died at his home about 11 o'clock Sunday night.

The funeral service was conducted at Providence Memorial church, of which he was a member, at 3:00 Tuesday afternoon by Rev. T. E. White, former pastor, assisted by Rev. G. C. Crutchfield, pastor, and Rev. John M. Permar. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Deceased is survived by his widow, two daughters, Mesdames L. F. Freeland and W. A. Rich; two sons, W. Z. and Paul Black, and four grandchildren; also two brothers and three sisters.

Mr. Black was a member of Graham Council Jr. O. U. A. M.
