AMUSEMENT PARKS
LURE MANY PEOPLE

America and Europe Delight in Roller Coasters.

Washington.—Merry-go-rounds, roller coasters, old mills, ferris wheels, pop corn stands, and swimming pools are in store for Ethiopia (Abyssinia), in the heart of northeastern Africa. So delighted was a prince of the royal house of Ethiopia with the thrills afforded by a New Jersey amusement park during his recent visit to this country, that he announced his decision to build a similar playground in his native land.

"Amusement parks, in one form or another, have long enlivened the outskirts of great metropolitan centers in both Europe and America, and the sale of amusement devices, confections, and souvenirs has been an important item of trade," says a bulletin from the National Geographic society.

Coney Island Most Noted.

"During the latter part of the last century and early in this century, amusement parks sprang up all over the United States. Nearly all of them were reproductions, big and small, of Coney Island. Today, practically every large city in this country has a ferris-wheel-land where thrills are built to order and frivolity is king.

"Coney, a small island in the borough of Brooklyn, about five miles long and from one-half to three-quarters of a mile wide, is the most famous amusement resort in the United States. The island, at the entrance to New York bay, was one of the first landing places of the early Dutch explorers of New Amsterdam.

"Steamboats began making trips to Coney Island's beach from Manhattan in 1840, the steam railroad in 1875, and, since the city's subway system and modern highways were extended from the heart of New York city to the seashore, Coney Island has become the world's busiest resort. As many as a million merrymakers, equivalent to the entire population of a city the size of Rome, Italy, have thronged Coney on a single summer's day. Most of them come to swim or to walk the boardwalk, but hundreds of thousands patronize the various amusement booths and concessions.

"Other hundreds of thousands of New Yorkers in search of pleasure go to Rye Beach on the Sound, and to Fallside park whose amusement devices flash their myriad lights across the Hudson from the New Jersey shore.

Chicago Fair's Midway.

"Washingtonians are not surprised when diplomats and government clerks join the nightly throngs at Glen Echo, the glittering realm of escape for the nation's Capital. Baltimore has its Carlin's Park, Philadelphia its Willow Grove, while busy Pittsburghers manage time for a jaunt to near-by Kennywood park or to Westview.

"Chicagoans, in addition to their other popular attractions, this year have had the Century of Progress 'midway' with two of the most exciting roller coasters ever built. St. Louis has several amusement parks, one of them being Forest Park Highlands.

"In the far West, Ocean beach in San Francisco dispels the occasional gloom of sunny California, and Venice and Ocean park render the same service for teeming Los Angeles.

"Paris and Berlin both have their Luna parks, where circuses, shooting galleries and sideshows demonstrate their perennial appeal. Viennese plebeian life relies on the Volkspark for its happiness. London's Kursaal, at Southend-on-Sea, is a cockney paradise, and gives many types of recreation to tired Londoners in search of a holiday. In Moscow, the Park of Culture and Rest draws daily throngs.

"The Tivoli in Copenhagen is one of the most historic amusement parks in Europe. This 'state within a state,' with its mid-city location, entertains from a million and a half to two million pleasure seekers a season. It was first opened in 1843, and has been constantly changed and modernized since that time. Besides the usual midway attractions it offers splendid musical programs to its visitors, excellent dramatic entertainment, and renowned eating places."

Just See What Happens
When Face Isn't Washed!

Sequoia National Park, Calif.—"Tommy," a small boy with a large aversion to washing his face, crept into his bed at Sunset Rock, where his parents had camped. Tommy had just finished a large piece of cake with honey coconut icing spread thickly on it. Along toward morning Tommy's sister woke up to see a large brown bear greedily lapping off the icing on Tommy's face. A screech from the sister and the bear ambled off, leaving Tommy with stern resolutions concerning face washing, now and forever after.

DAUGHTER TO SEEK DAD'S LOST RICHES

Millions in Jewels to Be Hunted in India.

Nice.—Over sixty years old, Mrs. Helene Gardner Botha of Nice, daughter of one of America's most colorful soldiers of fortune, is organizing an expedition to India in search of treasure valued at millions of dollars.

Mrs. Botha, divorced wife of a judge in South Africa, is the only known offspring of Alexander Gardner, native of what is now Wisconsin, who served as artillery colonel under the Maharajah Ranjit Singh and died in Kashmir in 1877 at the reputed age of ninety-two, leaving a two-year-old daughter.

Gardner's father was a Scottish surgeon, who fought with Washington and Lafayette.

At his death, Gardner was living in Srinagar, capital of Kashmir, and was virtually king of an extensive territory bestowed upon him by the maharajah of Kashmir. His immense fortune, mostly in precious stones, which he had taken as tribute, was willed to his daughter, but disappeared before she was old enough to claim it, according to the story.

Mrs. Botha made a serious, but vain, effort to find the gems 35 years ago. "It didn't matter then," she said, "but now I am thinking of my children. I am sure the precious stones are still in Kashmir.

"I never have received more than $500 a year from my father's estate, and 35 years ago I gathered a party and went to Kashmir in an effort to recover my fortune, but my friends lost their courage and I had to give up the search. At the Lahore bank I found only a package containing my father's will.

"This time I am determined to find the gems and money because I am convinced the treasure does exist. In any case, I consider I have the inherited right to claim revenue from the villages over which my father ruled."

Experts Despair of Cure of Radio Waves' Victim

Los Angeles.—Martin Bodker turned sadly back toward his home at Tacoma, Wash., after hearing from experts that there is practically nothing to do about the strange affliction which makes him whirl about and robs him of speech every time he hears the blare of a radio.

Bodker, after four years of suffering, came 1,400 miles from Tacoma to consult scientists at the California Institute of Technology, at Pasadena. Samuel S. MacKeown, associate professor of electrical engineering at the institute, told him that so far as electrical science is concerned his case was considered hopeless. Bodker prepared to return North, possibly to close out his business and seek a change of climate.

Washington Birthplace
Gets Colonial Antiques

Washington.—Several antiques of interest to students of the Colonial period have been given to Wakefield, birthplace of George Washington, according to the Department of the Interior. A clock made in 1720 that announces the time by a system of bells every quarter hour, was donated by Mrs. C. G. Worthington, on behalf of the Wakefield National Memorial association. Mrs. Worthington acquired the clock during a recent visit to Britain, the department said.

Brewer Gives Pointers
About Drinking of Beer

Detroit, Mich.—Julius Stroh, Detroit's oldest brewer, gives the following observations about beer:

Don't gulp it; sip it.

Beer should appeal to the palate, sight and smell—not to the desire for "kick."

Serve in either thin crystal goblets or heavy mugs.

If you want the proper head, never serve in a container used to hold milk or greasy beverages.

Never serve at a temperature of above 50 degrees, or lower than 42 degrees.

Last, but not least, be temperate in consumption.

Zoo Elephant Said to Be Subject to Nightmares

Scranton, Pa.—Queenie, an elephant purchased by school children for a zoo here some years ago, is subject to nightmares. A policeman making his rounds at 2 a. m. discovered that when he found Queenie, her chain broken, doing a dance. She had gone on a rampage and smashed in a door before being subdued.
