Brainard Roach Wanted for Kiting Forged Drafts.

A young white man named Brainard Roach, known by some as Jolly, who had made his home here with his mother since last fall, was being sought here a day or two ago by the Sheriff of Randolph county for the forgery of a check. Roach, some two or three months ago worked in a printing office in Asheboro. Prior to that he had worked part-time in this office.

Upon inquiry it is found that he had cashed several checks purporting to have been given by people for whom he had worked, among them Ben Andrews $33.00, J. S. Holt & Son $27.50, Jabe Guthrie $33.00, Green & McClure $23.50, part on account, balance in cash. There may be others, as it is learned others were approached. Roach claims to have a wife living in Thomasville. He was here Saturday, the day on which he had the checks cashed. Sheriff Stockard located Roach at the Cavalier hotel, New York city, for the Randolph Sheriff, who had a warrant. It is not known what, if any, action has been taken by the parties here who were burnt.

Eli Whitney Ladies Make Quilt for Vice-President Garner.

Down in Newlin Township the ladies still cling to the fascinating and purposeful custom of having quilting parties. A handsome quilt made by Mrs. R. H. Hutchison, centered by a "lone star" suggested to E. P. Dixon, principal of the Eli Whitney School, the propriety of presenting it to Vice-President John N. Garner, of the "Lone Star" State, Texas, in that he was a product of the Lone Star State, the biggest grower of cotton of any state in the Union and that the Eli Whitney School had its birth in an old building that housed a cotton gin. For sentimental reasons Mrs. Hutchison would not part with her "lone star" quilt, but she and the other ladies made a duplicate of it, which was presented to the vice-President a few days ago. Congressman Wm. B. Umstead, in a happy speech presented the quilt. In appreciation Mr. Garner wrote a letter which will be treasured by the Eli Whitney community, as follows:

"I am quite familiar with the good old American custom of quilting parties and I am glad to know that both in North Carolina and Texas it has not been permitted to die out. "Mrs. Garner and I will always value and treasure this quilt and you may be assured that it is going to be used. Will you please express to Mrs. R. H. Hutchison and the Parent-Teachers' association and the Parent-Teachers' school my sincere thanks and appreciation of the sentiment that prompted the gift?"
