-lt rained Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, and is turning colder.

-A two weeks term of Alamance Superior Court opened Monday with the venerable Judge Frank A. Daniels of Goldsboro presiding.

- Dr. W. C. Wicker will preach next Sunday morning at Graham Christian church. The public s cordially invited to attend the service.

-There is need of more hous ing room in Graham. New homes are being built, but not fast enough to meet the needs of those who want to house-keep here and those who want to make their week end with friends in Spencer. homes here.

-Rev. J. C Auman, who served the M. P. church here for the Los. O Coble at Southern Pines. past four years, was assigned by the M. P. Conference last week to the church at Thomasville. The many friends here will regret the going of Mr. Auman and family. Rev. P. W. Paschall is the new pastor.

-Providence Memorial Christian church has called Rev. A. L. Granger, Jr., of Elon College as pastor for the coming year. -A new service station, oppo site the postoffice, has been com pieted-a very attractive and substantial brick building, and will open for business tomorrow under the name of "Thompson Brothers' Service Station", Chas. and Worth Thompson. They will handle Gulf gasoline and products and service cars.

-Old shoes! Had no idea there were so many, until Crack & Joe put out an ad requesting them to be brought to their store. They are good for a certain number of votes in a voting contest. Monday is the "old shoo" day. If the contest is prolonged the firm will have to enlarge their store to care for them. Already a sizable truck load has been brought in.

-John H. McPherson's store, near Travora mills, was broken into and robbed Saturday night. About $40. worth of flour and canned goods was taken. Two Greenville, Sunday. negroes, Frank Davis and Ben Sevens, charged with the theft, were apprehended in Burlington and committed to jail. Entry was made by breaking in a window. Mr. McPherson had just opened his store last week.

Rich & Thompson Funeral Home

The new Rich and Thompson Funeral Home in Burling on was completed and occupied some four weeks. Since its opening it has been visited by thousands. ### Stock of Central Banks Usually Privately Owned

Of all the central banks at present existing there are only four whose stock is owned by the government. The newest central bank is that of Canada, which opened its doors only a few months ago after a most exhaustive study had been made of the experience of all nations with the result that the stock of the Bank of Canada is privately owned.
