This Boat May Be Last of Its Type

This is the 10,000 ton German "pocket battleship" Admiral Graf Spee as it was put in commission at Wilhelmshaven. It is probably the last vessel of the type that the reich will build. There are two others already in service.

Kingsford-Smith's Memory Lives On in His Son

Australia has a favorite child to love. He is Charles Kingsford-Smith, Jr., a beautiful curly-haired blond boy who spent his third birthday picking flowers. Perhaps the blossoms were in memory of his father, the famous Australian aviator, who disappeared while on a flight from England to his home continent last fall.

Alien Rescued by Men He Tried to Evade

This remarkable photograph shows the actual rescue of an alien who attempted to enter the United States over ice covered waters outside of Niagara Falls, during which he fell through the ice. In the photograph are Chief Inspector Glema French, Russell Walton, Fred Snyder and Paul Auspach.

Meet Grand Champion of All Campus "Grinds"

Donald MacMurray of New York, student at the University of Chicago, who is expected to finish the four-year course of study under the university's "new plan" in one year. He arrived at the University of Chicago last fall. He took and passed four examinations, each covering a year's work, then passed three more last December. With only two more examinations he should graduate from the university in May of this year.

Compton Out Trapping Cosmic Rays

Dr. Arthur Holly Compton, famous University of Chicago physicist and Nobel prize winner (1927), is pictured with his new cosmic ray meter aboard the Aorangi. This is the first time a cosmic ray meter has been erected on a ship traveling through northern and southern hemispheres for the purpose of checking the variations of cosmic ray action in both spheres. Under the shield, which affords a screen of lead (through which cosmic rays but not radioactive rays may penetrate), is a body of matter on which the impact of cosmic rays is registered by means of an electrically-operated device. The readings are recorded on a photographic film.

Wild Ducks Find Haven in the Bronx, New York

Hundreds of wild black and mallard ducks find a welcome haven in the "sanctuary" of the zoological gardens in the Bronx, New York city. The water there is kept open for the convenience of these feathered visitors.

Motorists Stalled in Wisconsin Snowdrifts

Lesson for March 1

VISION AND SERVICE

LESSON TEXT—Luke 9:28-43a. GOLDEN TEXT—He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same beareth much fruit.—John 15:5.

PRIMARY TOPIC—On a Mountain Top With Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—On a Mountain Top With Jesus.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—With Jesus in Prayer and Service.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Worship and Work.

The subject of this lesson as chosen by the lesson committee needs to be most rigidly held to its place as set forth in the Scriptures. The lesson should not be taught in a general way as pertaining to vision and service. The particular vision herein set forth is the unveiling of the majestic person of the Son of God, with an epitome of the messianic kingdom.

Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John, and went into the mount to pray. His chief aim in retirement was to get the disciples into a state of receptivity so that he might show them the reality and method of his kingdom. Before going into the mount, he declared that there were some standing in his presence who would not taste death until they should see the Son of man coming in his kingdom (Luke 9:27; cf. Matt. 16:28). That their drooping spirits might be revived and their confidence restored, he was transfigured before them. Two men from the upper world were sent to converse with him about his approaching death in Jerusalem (v. 31)—the very thing about which the disciples refused to talk. Then, too, God's own voice was heard in words of approval of Christ's course, directing them to hear the Master. Surely now they cannot doubt his ability to carry to execution his kingdom plans. The purpose, then, of the transfiguration was to give the disciples a foretaste of the coming kingdom, to enable them to see the kingdom in its embryonic form. That this is true is not only shown by the context and circumstances, but by the inspired interpretation of one who was with him and knew all that transpired (see II Pet. 1:16-19, R. V.). Let us, therefore, note the outstanding features of the kingdom as displayed in the transfiguration.

I. Jesus Christ the Glorified King on Mount Zion (vv. 28, 29). Jesus glorified on the mount to which they went to pray was intended to symbolize the messianic kingdom as it will be when Christ returns literally to the Mount of Olives in Jerusalem (Zech. 14:4-17).

1. Jesus Christ the Glorified King on Mount Zion (vv. 28, 29).

Jesus glorified on the mount to which they went to pray was intended to symbolize the messianic kingdom as it will be when Christ returns literally to the Mount of Olives in Jerusalem (Zech. 14:4-17).

II. The Glorified Saints With Christ (vv. 30, 31).

1. Moses, who was once denied entrance into Palestine, appears now in glory, representing the Redeemed of the Lord who after death shall pass into the kingdom. Many thousands of the redeemed have fallen asleep, and at the coming of the Lord shall be awakened to appear in the kingdom with him.

2. Elijah, now glorified, represents the redeemed who shall pass into the kingdom through translation. Many shall be living upon the earth when the Lord comes, and shall, without dying, be changed, and thus pass into the kingdom (I Cor. 15:50-53; I Thess. 4:14-18).

3. The topic of conversation (v. 31). It was the death of Christ, the very thing the disciples refused to believe.

III. Israel in the Flesh in Connection With the Kingdom, Represented by Peter, James, and John (v. 28).

Israel shall be called from their hiding place among the nations of the earth and shall be gathered to Jesus Christ, the King, as the central people in the kingdom (Ezek. 37:21-27). Christ is the King of the Jews.

1. Peter's proposal to build three tabernacles (v. 33). The Feast of the Tabernacles looked forward to the glorious reign of Christ. Peter caught a glimpse of the significance of the transfiguration. His proposition showed that he apprehended the meaning of the Feast of the Tabernacles and, therefore, his proposition substantially was, "The millennium is come; let us celebrate."

2. The divine voice (v. 35). At this time God himself uttered words which assured them that the transfigured one was his Son, Jesus Christ.

IV. The Multitude at the Foot of the Mount (vv. 37-43).

The people here were grievously oppressed by the devil, as illustrated by the demon-possessed lad. There are times when the devil is especially active in the affairs of men. The multitude at the foot of the mount is representative of the nations which shall be brought into the kingdom which shall be established over Israel (Isa. 11:10-12).

Inquiry

Inquiry is human; blind obedience, brutal. Truth never loses by the one, but often suffers by the other.
