

THE GLEANER

GRAHAM, N. C., MAY 5, 1938

Local News

Pleasant Grove school closing exercises are being held this week. Rain is much needed; the grass on lawns is turning brown, it is so very dry. A term of Alamance Superior Court will convene on Monday, May 16th, for the trial of criminal cases. This is national music week, being set apart by the National Federation of Music Clubs for observance in every city, town and hamlet in the United States. The annual convention of the disabled World War Veterans will be held in Burlington May 29-31. It is expected around 300 veterans and visitors will attend. At Cedar Cliff church a home-coming celebration will be held Sunday, beginning at 10 o'clock. The opening address will be made by County Superintendent M. E. Yount. Saturday being the second Saturday of the month, it is payday for shareholders in Graham Home Building company, and not too late yet to take shares as of the second Saturday of March. A young 12-year-old negro boy named Leon Walker broke into jail yesterday for entering the home of J. DeWitt Foust the day before. He took a small amount of money. Police Officer Herbert Ausley made the arrest. Receipts at Graham postoffice are showing a healthy increase. The receipts for April were $1,169.17, an increase of $130.82 over April, 1937, and for the first four months this year they were $4,737.82, an increase of $577.89 over the same period in 1937. Residents of this section were a little frightened a few days ago, lest a frost or freeze come and damage fruit and young stuff. How about folks in New Mexico, Nevada and other far west sections who had snow that reached a depth of as much as eight inches? Thieves raided the smoke-house of John Graham, Jr., at McCray, Fayette township Tuesday night and carried away 12 nice hams and eight shoulders. Sheriff Stockard sent out a broadcast, calling on storekeepers to look out for persons offering such for sale. The annual home-coming exercises will be held Sunday at Union Christian church, Union Ridge. Dinner will be served on the grounds. Morning services will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. M. Stevens, and the afternoon services will be conducted by Rev. W. F. Wiseman of Greensboro First Christian church. Suits for damage and personal injury, aggregating $10,100.00, were filed in the Superior Court here yesterday by Mrs. Ella Mae Andrews and her husband, J. R. Andrews, against Harold Cox, growing out of an automobile crash at the intersection of West Elm and Maple streets, in April. Mrs. Andrews asks for $10,000 for personal injury. Mrs. L. G. Gowens announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Ruth, to Dr. John A. Ingram of Greensboro and Roxboro. The wedding day has not been named. And on Saturday evening Mrs. Gowens gave a miscellaneous shower for her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Gowens, who have just moved into their pretty new home, next to her own on N. Marshall street. On a charge of attempted criminal assault on an 8-year-old girl one day last week, at Elon College, Earl Linville, aged 30 years, of Glen Raven, was committed to jail Tuesday in default of $5,000 bond to await action of the Superior Court. The case was heard before T. H. Perry, J. P. The girl was assaulted as she walked along a street and thrown over a hedge. The barking of a dog frightened him away. The annual May Day program at Salem College is scheduled for 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and in case it rains it will be postponed till the next Saturday. The event is expected to draw a crowd of at least five thousand. It will be outdoors and will be in Grecian mode and will tell the story of the first May Day held in the 5th century B. C. Miss Betty Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Scott, will be one of the 12 attendants to the Queen, Miss Virginia Lee of Kinston.

Proctor of Lumberton, who spent several days here with relatives, returned home last Friday, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. J. J. Henderson, who returned Sunday evening. Maj. Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. Harper Barnes met Mrs. Henderson in Fayetteville on her return. It is announced that U. S. Senator Robert E. Reynolds, by invitation, will address the Junior Order here on May 30th at 7:30 p. m. The speaking will be in the county court house and open to the public. A lot of property owners have put off listing till the last minute, and the lists are still accumulating the stragglers. A. W. Norwood, Graham list-taker, is still almost as busy as he was during April, and when the books are passed in there will still be some who have not attended to the matter. Maybe they think if they do not list they will escape paying, having forgot the old adage about the certainty of death and taxes. A Business Club has just been launched by the young men of Graham. They held a meeting at V F W Park Tuesday night. The meeting nights will be on the first and third Tuesday nights of each month. To the next meeting, two weeks hence, the ladies will be invited, and there will be music, dancing and refreshments. When completely organized the club will promote things of interest and helpful to the community.

Graham Public School

Closing. Graham School commencement exercises begin Friday evening at 8 o'clock when the Senior class will present a play entitled "The Parting of the Braves," in two acts. It will be entertaining and pleasing. On Sunday evening at 8 o'clock the annual sermon will be preached by Dr. J. Kenneth Pfhol of Winston-Salem. On Monday night the graduating exercises will take place, and the literary address will be delivered by Dr. W. H. Fraser of Queen's - Chicora College, Charlotte. Journey to Iowa to Consult Specialist. She was accompanied by her husband and her sister, Mrs. McPherson, as nurse. Jake Walker of Green & McClure drove and was accompanied by M. R. Neese. They returned Friday night, having driven 2200 miles, going and coming. Graham Chapter U. D. C. Members at District Meeting in Leaksville. The 6th District Convention of United Daughters of the Confederation was held yesterday with Chalmers Glenn Chapter in Leaksville. The district is composed of Randolph, Guilford, Alamance, Caswell and Rockingham counties. The following from Graham chapter were in attendance: Mesdames W. H. Anderson, president, J. L. Johnson, G. Larsen, J. J. Henderson, John B. Stratford, W. R. Harden, J. S. Cook, J. Dolph Long, and S. S. Holt. A pleasant day and a large attendance from other chapters are reported. Amusement Park Incorporated. A charter of incorporation was issued Monday by Secretary of State Thad Eure to V. F. W. Amusement Park, Inc., in which Norman E. Sykes, Don E. Scott, E. N. Pierce, Geo. E. Holt, Jr., and S. R. Holt are named as incorporators. Authorized capital stock is $25,000 with $500 subscribed by the incorporators. The incorporators take over that property known as VFW Lake, formerly Gantz Lake, about two miles south of Graham. A fresh water lake for water sports, bathing, swimming and boating, with ample grounds and buildings for outing parties are included in the property. This property is capable of being made very attractive. Nature has done its share and needs only to be dressed and cared for to make it a pleasing place to while away time and rest. Over 5,000 Visit Furniture Show. During the Green & McClure Furniture Show last week more than 5,000 took advantage of the occasion to see the beautiful and useful things for the home, many traveling a score or more miles. It was a show worth the time and trouble. The arrangements and combination no doubt gave many ideas how to make their homes more beautiful and attractive. Each visitor was requested to register for a chance at the prizes given away. On Monday night a child drew tickets from the mass, and the lucky ones drew prizes as follows: 1. Rocking chair—Miss Virginia Kerns, Elon College. 2. Mattress—Mrs. S. Harold Shelton, Burlington. 3. Mirror—Mrs. Harvey Lindley, Snow Camp No. 1. 4. Rug—Mrs. J. I. Lewis, Chapel Hill No. 1. 5.
