THE ALAMANCE GLEANER

Vol. LXIV

GRAHAM, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1938

No. 18

News Review of Current Events

NEW SEAWAY PROPOSAL Secretary Hull's St. Lawrence Plan Arouses Strong Opposition in Congress . . . Wallace Again Rebuffed

Adolpho Echagaray Somohano, commander of the Mexican federal troops engaged in suppressing the revolt in San Luis Potosi state led by Saturnino Cedillo, is here seen, right, giving orders to two of his officers.

hearing by Secretary Wallace.

WITHOUT a record vote the VV house passed the new pure food and drug bill. The senate had passed a similar measure and the differences were to be reconciled in conference. The act brings drugs, therapeutic devices, and foods un-der regulation of the Department of Agriculture. It prohibits alteration or misbranding of cosmetics,

94 foods and drugs, requires ade-quate tests of products before they are placed on the market, provides bacterial contamination of foods, requires warning labels on habit-forming drugs, and provides for factory

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT ac-

I cepted the advice of congression-al leaders and consented to the shelving of his bill for reorganization of the executive government. This was announced with the approval of the President by Senator

Barkley. At the same time it was made known that the administration would attempt to get the measure through congress early in the 1939 session. Sen. Hiram Johnson of California said the opponents of the bill would be ready to resume

FOR the first time since he entered velt permitted an act of congress to become law without his signature.

the White House, President Roose-

He took

COULS

their battle against it next year.

Tax Bill Unsigned But Law

Reform Bill Shelved

inspection.

A.

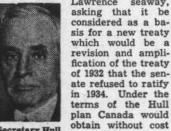

for license restrictions to control

New Food Act Passed

Hull's St. Lawrence Plan

PRESUMABLY by direction of I the President, Secretary of State Hull submitted to Canada a new proposal for development of the St. Lawrence seaway a completed St. Lawrence deep waterway, ready for power development, and also other valuable concessions. The United States would obtain the privilege of building the seaway at its own expense, increased power develop-ment at Niagara Falls, and the recognition by Canada of American sovereignty over Lake Michigan.

Secretary Hull

Immediate and vociferous opposition to the plan broke out in con-gress, both Democrats and Republicans characterizing it as a scheme to buy the support of the Dominion for a gigantic water power development planned by the New York state power authority.

Hull's plan provides that the Unit-ed States shall develop the international rapids section of the St. Lawrence river at an estimated cost of 400 million dollars. This was denounced by Senator Wagner of New York. Senator Copeland, also of New York, announced he was against the seaway project "1,000 per cent." He called it "an all-British canal."

Senator Key Pittman, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee having jurisdiction of treaties said

Another Recovery Plan A BANDONMENT of experiments h by the government and adop-tion of an industrial program based on experience was advocated by Charles R. Hook, president of the National Association of Manufacturers before a meeting of the Chicago Association of Commerce. turn to sound economic reasoning and a common sense diagnosis is the sure solution to the problems of America today," Mr. Hook said. Emphasizing that industry has a definite program for industrial recovery, Mr. Hook, who is president of American Rolling Mill company, outlined three cardinal points, in-cluding revision of the Wagner, act, revision of the tax structure and banishment of existing and threatened government competition with pri-vate enterprise. "Remove these causes of fear and uncertainty," Mr. Hook said, "and private savings will rush back into the channels of private productive enterprise. specifically urge amendments to the Wagner act to correct its one-sided character, to enforce responsibility on labor organizations, to separate the functions of fact finding, prosecution and judi-cial decision, and establish impartial administration by the national labor relations board."

Twenty More Federal Judges PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT signed the bill creating 20 additional federal judges throughout the country. The measure is the largest judgeship bill passed by congress since 1921

Five additional Circuit Court of case and had set aside his order fix-Appeals judges at $12,500 a year each and 15 additional district ing maximum rates which commis-sion men might charge for services judges at $10,000 a year each are because, the court said, they had been denied a full, fair, and open authorized by the act.

Strike Back at Morgan

TESTIFYING before the joint congressional committee of investigation, David E. Lilienthal and Harcourt Morgan, directors of the Tennessee Valley

Tennessee Valley authority, accused Dr. Arthur E. Mor-gan, their ousted colleague, with try-ing to sabotage the TVA's legal defense in a court case in in a court case in-volving the constitutionality of the au-thority. They said, too, that he had engaged in a cam-David E. paign of dissent and Lilienthal obstruction. A Lilienthal These charges, together with a general denial of Arthur Morgan's accusations against themselves, constituted in the main their defense statements.

Referring to the trial last winter of the suit of 18 private utility concerns against the TVA, Lilien-thal said: "It is a record which suggests that he was seeking to find a way to obtain a judicial decision against his own agency. It is a record of tampering with prospective witnesses for the government and of obstructing and harassing counsel and witnesses in the very heat of the trial of a crucial constitutional case." Concerning the Berry marble claims, Lilienthal said: "Any as-sertion that we (Harcourt Morgan and himself) by word or attitude encouraged any one to pull punches on Berry's claims is an outright falsehood. There was absolutely no evidence upon which any charge of

THREE LITTLE MAIDS

By JOSEPH W. LaBINE

When the leaves were turning yellow in the autumn of 1908, three little maids in flowing silken gowns marched up the stairs of a weatherbeaten Victorian building in Macon, Georgia, and breathlessly confronted the registrar of Wesleyan college, oldest chartered woman's college in the world.

Temporarily taken aback, the registrar quickly regained his composure and flipped open the pages of a great ledger. In the great book, the three little maids inscribed, one after the other, these names: .

"E-Ling Soong "Ching-Ling Soong "May-Ling Soong

"Father: Charles Jones Soong, Shanghai, China."

Then, armed with certificates of registration, the three little maids climbed more stairs, marched down a long corridor toward their rooms-and toward a place in history as one of the greatest trios of women in the chronicles of mankind. Today, with China fighting for her very life as a free and independent democracy, the enrollment of the three Soong sisters at Wesleyan takes on many aspects of a turning point in history. For when the three little Chinese maids registered at an American college, the history of China began re-shaping itself to fit an American pattern.

It was a process which had been heading toward a climax for a full quarter-century.

In the 1880s the father of the three Soong girls, Charles Jones Soong, arrived in the United States as a poor relation, come to serve an apprenticeship with a wealthy uncle in Boston.

Fortunately for China, however, Charles Soong found a way out. Looking about for an American solution to his problem, he found it in the very best tradition of the Bay state. He ran away to sea, beginning as a cabin boy on a steamship plying the coastwise channels between Boston and Savannah, Ga.

In the sleepy, lush civilization of the American deep South, Charles Soong found something kindred to the slow but determined life of the agricultural China which had given him birth. Soon the little Oriental cabin boy took off his white jacket for the last time and enrolled as a student at Duke university. Back to the Orient,

When Charles Soong returned to China as a publisher of Bibles, one of his first social projects was to found the Chinese Young Men's Christian association.

And as his three daughters and his son grew, Charles Soong re-solved to bring them up in the American way which had so pro-foundly influenced his own life. In the care of a missionary returning to the United States, he sent his

As a student at Wesleyan, little Ching-Ling exclaimed over the suc-cess of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, China's "George Washington." Later she mar-ried him, helping infuse the democratic American spirit into China's 400,000,000 people. Low work and to staunch old Methodist Wesleyan. | when the eldest, E-Ling, married The three Soong sisters spoke many times of their hope that China might some day become a great re-public like the United States. And in 1911, they saw the first of their dreams for China come true when China became a republic under the inspired leadership of one of history's great republicans, Dr. Sun Yat-sen.

The enthusiasm of the second Soong sister, Ching-Ling, at this event is still remembered at Wesleyan. Classmates say that when first news came of Sun Yat-sen's success, Ching-Ling climbed onto chair to pull down the old Imperial Dragon from her wall and put in its place the flag of the new Republic of China." Throwing the old banner to the floor, she exclaimed:

"Sun Yat-sen has achieved one of May-Ling. Their courtship was an impetuous and a strange one. For the most glorious deeds in the history of the world."

She Was Right.

interspersed with love-making were interspersed with love-making were interminable discussions of econom-ics, of China's history, her future, of great reforms and great plans. During the courtship, May-Ling con-verted Chiang Kai-shek to Christienthusiasm was almost prophetic, for just four years later little Ching-Ling became the bride of Sun Yat-sen and, as his wife, was able to aid him in his mission of infusing the democratic American spirit most devout members of the Southinto China's 400,000,000 people.

ern Methodist church. Then May-The historic significance of the Ling and Chiang Kai-shek were

THIEF APOLOGIZES, GIVES UP PISTOL AND FOLLOWS GIRL

Bookkeeper Keeps Her Nerve in Encounter With Armed Holdup Man.

Boston .- By keeping her nerve in an encounter with a holdup man carrying a revolver, Miss Corinne bookkeeper for the College Hand laundry, not only talked the invader out of robbing the place but induced him to apologize and surrender his weapon.

The girl had just distributed a $400 pay roll to the laundry employees and was alone in the office, sitting with her back to the door, when the would-be robber entered. In front of her was an envelope containing $50 of the company's money and a handbag containing $29 of her own.

The intruder pressed a revolver against her back, saying: "This is a stick up. Hand over the money. Miss Gagnon stood up, turned, and faced the gun. "What's the matter with youcrazy?" she said. "There's no mon-ey here. You can't get away with this. If I yell this place will be full of people in a couple of seconds."

Outlaw Astonished by Maneuver.

The bandit was so surprised he was unable to speak for a minute. Then he commanded: "Open that safe."

With a bold air, the girl strode to the safe, flung open the door and, talking loudly in the hope those in the laundry would hear her, said: "There you are, mister. You can see for yourself there's not a cent What do you want to go there. around holding up people for, anyway? Say, if you're so hard up, I'll give you a couple of dollars of my own."

This virtually dazed the robber, who stood holding the gun and looking as if he didn't know whether to leave or stay. This only increased Miss Gagnon's courage and she continued:

"What you need's a job. I'pl get the boss. Come on. I won't say a word about this."

Obediently he followed her from the office into the laundry and right up to the owner, Abraham Morad. "Mr. Morad, this man tried to hold me up," said Miss Gagnon. Owner's Turn to Be Astounded.

It was Morad's turn to be astound-ed. As he looked at the man and saw the gun, which the bandit was now trying to hide under his coat, the gunman said:

"She's right, but I didn't rob her. She didn't have anything. I couldn't go through with it. She could see I need a job."

"Don't you know the conse quences, don't you know you could go to prison?" asked the girl. "Sure," said the robber. "Here, take this gun before I get into trouble. I'm sorry I tried it. I haven't eaten for two days."

"Why don't you get on the WPA?" asked Morad.

"O, there's too much red tape, and besides I'm a Republican." But the prolonged conversation was annoying him. He was beginning to get fearful. The laundry workers were edging close and listening. With sudden determination he dashed for the door and escaped.

ould not have a chance of ratification unless materially modified.

Senators and representatives from the Middle West were especially aroused. Senator Clark of Missouri pointed out that the treaty would permit diversion of only 1,500 cubic feet of water per second into the Chicago drainage canal. He said the Mississippi river must receive more water than that from the canal in order to fill a nine-foot channel.

Representative Claude Parsons of Illinois was even more emphatic in disapproval. "This proposed in disapproval. "This proposed treaty," he said, "is about the worst mistake Secretary Hull ever made. Under the terms of his proposal to set up an international commission for the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence basin, Canada would be given con trol over our all-American Lake Michigan.

"Furthermore, the treaty would prohibit any further diversion of water from Lake Michigan at Chicago of more than 1,500 cubic feet per second. The Illinois and Mississippi rivers must have at least 5,000 c.f.s. to insure a dependable waterway."

Wallace Slapped Again

STERNLY chastising Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace and Solicitor General Robert H. Jackson for making assertions that were unwarranted and wholly unfounded, the United States Supreme court rejected the government's petition for a rehearing of the Kansas City stockyards rate case.

Twice before the court had re-buked Wallace in the stockyards of old, unused appropriations.

with the tax revision bill in order to emphasize his objection "those unwise to parts of the bill' which removed all but the skeleton of the undistributed profits tax and drastically modified the levies upon capital gains. The President an-

President Roosevelt nounced his action in a speech delivered to 148 mountain families of the New Deal-sponsored rehabilitation community of Arthurdale, W. Va., at the graduation exercises of 13 high school students. His words, however, were carried to the nation by radio networks.

"I call the definite attention of the American people," said Mr. Roosevelt, "to those unwise parts of the<sup>4</sup> bill I have talked to you about today-one of them which may restore in the future certain forms of tax avoidance, and of concentrated investment power, which we had be-gun to end, and the other a definite abandonment of a principle of tax policy long ago accepted as part of our American system.

Big Fund for Highways

EGISLATION authorizing new federal highway expenditures of $357,400,000 for the fiscal years 1940 and 1941 won final congressional approval when the senate adopted a conference report previously accept-ed by the house. Also authorized fraud could have been based; there were only rumors and suspicions."

Dean Mumford Dies

DEAN HERBERT W. MUMFORD of the University of Illinois is dead, following an automobile accident, and the country loses one of its best agricultural educators and marketing experts. Mumford was a product of Michigan. In 1901 he became professor of animal hus-bandry in the university at Cham-Then he was made dean of paign. the college of agriculture and director of the agricultural experi-ment station and extension service. He was sixty-seven years old.

Sweepstakes · Winners

BOIS ROUSSEL, a French bred horse, won the English Derby at Epsom Downs, and four sweep-stakes ticket holders in the United States won $150,000 each. Scottish Union, second, won $75,000 each for 11 United States ticket holders. Pasch, the favorite, finished third, returning $50,000 each to seven ticket holders in the United States.

Defies Harry Hopkins

VICTOR A. Christgau, Minnesota WPA administrator, guarreled continually with Gov. Elmer Benson and the Farmer-Labor party leaders in that state. So Harry Hop-kins, national head of the WPA, notified him he was ousted. Christ-May Ling, who frightened Wellesley college by swinging a curved Chinese scimitar over her head, is now Madame Chiang Kai-shek, wife of China's leader in the current war of defense against the invading Japagau refused to quit his position, con-tending that only President Roosevelt, who appointed him, had power to dismiss him.

V. Soong, to Harvard; the three girls | ters became even more profound d the m orious dec ade in all China's 5,000 years began.

Dr. H. H. Kung, himself an Ameri-can university graduate as well as a descendant of Confucius and to-

When her sisters returned to China, May-Ling transferred to Welles-ley college in Massachusetts, to be near her brother at Harvard.

That little May-Ling would ever become more famous than her two illustrious sisters seemed almost an

But in 1927 at one of the innumer able gatherings at the Soong house,

May-Ling met a slim, young leader of the Chinese Republicans, Chiang

Kai-shek, who had just concluded a spectacular campaign to unite Chi-solidly behind the principles of Chiang Kai-shek fell in love with anity. He quickly became one of the day the premier of China.

impossibility.

Sun Yat-sen.

Her first step was to found the New Life movement, one of the most sensational reforms ever conceived in China. Into this new organization Madame Chiang and her two sisters gathered all the leading scholars and savants of China.

With breath-taking rapidity the New Life movement broke ground for vast housing projects for the long - neglected Chinese working classes. Outside Shanghai's International settlement on Chineseowned land sprang up a great civic center with museums, libraries, housing projects, theaters 'and parks, a living symbol of the greatness planned for all of China. By 1937, the progress of Madam Chiang's New Life movement had assumed the speed of a race-a grim race in which the generalissimo and May-Ling strove to complete their modernization before their envious neighbor struck.

Then came war-a war which students of the Orient believe was begun purely to retard the progress of the awakened China. Much that May-Ling and Generalissimo Chiang and the Soong sisters had done was destroyed. Hospitals, universities, churches, housing projects, all were ruthlessly destroyed. But enough survives to form a new foundation.

When it is over the three little maids who registered at an American college 30 years ago may have a new chance to rebuild China on a sound and enduring plan - an American plan.

Resolute Woman Is Pried Out of Two Automobiles

Mount Clemens, Mich .- Two onewomen sit-down strikes took place the other day near here. In both cases the sitter was Mrs. Joseph Hodiak.

Her first one-woman strike was in the automobile of her husband, a Detroit factory worker, which Con-stable Alfred D. Vincent of St. Clair Shores attempted to seize for nonpayment of a judgment for $196.05. For hours the constable, with sev-al assistants, attempted to eject her from the locked automobile, parked at her home.

When all other efforts failed the constable called a wrecking car, which towed the automobile and its passenger to a garage. There one door was pried open and, as the constable described it later, Mrs. Hodiak was pried off the steering wheel.

The siege ended, Mrs. Hodiak was taken in a police car to her home When she refused to leave the police car, George Collins, chief of police of Warren township, took her to Mount Clemens, where she was registered on a charge of disturbing the peace. The next day, how-ever, Justice of the Peace Edgar I. Moses, who granted the judgment last October and the subsequent writ of execution, ordered her released without charge.

Police Pound Robbed Dallas.—City police investigated themselves when it was discovered that a car stored at the city pound had been stripped.

he deserves her rank as one of the world's most notable we