GRAHAM, N. C., DEC. 22, 1938

ISSUED EVERY THURSDAY

J. D. KERNODLE, Editor

$1.00 A YEAR, IN ADVANCE

Entered at the Postoffice at Graham, N. C., as second-class matter.

Christmas.

The emblem of "Peace on earth, good-will to all men" is Christmas, the anniversary celebrated as the day on which a Savior of the world was born in Bethlehem of Judea. He was a gift by the Creator to the world for the redemption of the human race according to promise.

At the advent Wise men followed His star to His birthplace, carrying rich gifts. Hence the anniversary ever since has been the day of gifts, good will.

It is also a day, in more recent times, on which the family circle is re-cemented and joyous greetings are extended.

May all in some way contrive to make those about them glad and happy.

It is a holy day that should be observed with seemly reverence.

Pan-American Policy

In the Pan-American parley in Lima, Peru, all is not in accord, but the representatives of the 21 American republics are striving to work out an agreement that shall save them from a spectacle such as is now going on in Europe and other parts of the world. When the United States was formed there were disagreements and diverse views. Concessions were made, and the result is that now the United States is the greatest Republic on earth and the richest country—a country in which the individual enjoys more freedom than in any country in the whole world.

Proposals have been made to which there are objections, not for any self-seeking advantage, but for the protection and promotion of the best interests of all.

All seem agreed that a one thing must be the prevention of aggression from within and from without, especially from without.

The "Monroe Doctrine" is in favor, because all recognize that for a century it has saved some of the weaker countries from foreign domination.

It will be a great day in history, if vital differences can be composed and ironed out.

Just what Anthony Eden's mission to this country was or who sent him is not definitely known. He met the President and talked with him. That's about all anyone knows. He is now back in London, and is not talking for publication, but there is nothing to indicate that he is displeased with what he heard and saw.

The Nazi German Government is reported making overtures to the United States along trade lines. On account of the Nazi policies—territorial aggrandizement, Jewish oppression, etcetera, so many nations have lost confidence in Hitler's empire and have curtailed their trade relations, that Germany is feeling it acutely. Every Country should beware of Germany's fawning. It means all for Germany—no special good to any who grant concessions.

China has gained ground against Japan's invasion in recent days.

Japan is offended that the United States is favoring China financially. Of course!

Don'ts for a Merry Christmas

A Merry Christmas to you and yours! And remember—it can't be merry unless it's safe.

Fire is the great hazard of the holiday season. It has turned many a gladso celebration into a horrible tragedy; for the victims of holiday fires are usually children.

So—here are some don'ts for the holidays that will pay you tremendous dividends in the coin of happiness and safety.

Don't use candles on your Christmas tree. The tree itself is highly inflammable and it, together with tinsel decorations placed near flames, may cause a holocaust in your home. Electric light sets are inexpensive, safe and satisfactory.

Don't permit children dressed in flimsy cloth or paper holiday costumes to be in a room with open flame of any kind. Fatal burns can be suffered in an incredibly brief period of time.

Don't give children gifts that require the use of explosive chemicals, fire, steam or other hazardous elements.

Don't allow a mess of discarded Christmas package wrappings to accumulate. A carelessly disposed match or cigarette may cause them to burst into a fire that will swiftly get out of control.

Dry Christmas trees present a major hazard—dispose of yours as soon as the holidays are over.

And—last but not least—don't take a chance of any kind. Be constantly alert. Have your fun safely.

European War Power

Europe's armies are much larger now than in 1914. Russia has almost 20,000,000 men in her forces today, as against 4,000,000 then. France has 6,200,000, as against 1,380,000. Britain has 916,000, as against 803,000. Italy has 7,125,000, as against 2,000,000. Only one central power, curiously enough, has no greatly increased forces—Germany, with 3,600,000 soldiers now, as against 3,350,000. These figures include reserves.

Name Chloe of Greek Origin

The name Chloe, of Greek origin, means "blooming" or "verdant." It was the summer name of Demeter, the Greek goddess of agriculture and poets have often used it as a name for a shepherdess or rustic maiden. St. Paul mentions a Chloe of Corinthia. Although pretty and melodious, Chloe has never been in common use and no prominent bearers of it have been found in the archives of history.
