

THE GLEANER

GRAHAM, N. C., DEC. 22, 1938

Local News

-We wish you a very joyous and happy Christmas, we certainly do!

-At 7:30 Friday night a Christmas program will be presented by the Sunday School at Bethany.

-At 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon a Christmas treat will be given the Sunday school at the Christian church.

-According to the weather reports, it appears that pleasant crisp weather will prevail for the Christmas season.

-The congregation at Graham Christian church on Sunday morning enjoyed a vocal program given by the Cox Sisters quartette (Misses Lillian, Gladys, Fleta and Mary Cox) of Ramsauer. Their father, Rev. H. V. Cox, was with them.

-A program of appropriate Christmas songs has been given by Miss Betsy Thompson, daughter of Mrs. J. Mell Thompson, each afternoon, beginning last Friday. She sings in a loud speaker in M. R. Neese's store. She sings well and could be heard for several blocks around.

-On Tuesday evening a party was given the Times-News carriers by Mrs. W. L. Cooper and Miss Mary Cooper at their home on N. Main street. The latter is the Graham correspondent. Each of the carrier boys received a present from the newspaper management.

-Your family reading matter is important, more important than you might think. It should be clean, wholesome, instructive, interesting. Seven publications one year for only $2.00—a half-price offer that will be good for a short time only. The combination will afford reading for the whole family, town or country. Do it now before the offer is withdrawn.

-Mrs. Sallie Roberts Hargis, widow of R. O. Hargis who died 30 years ago, on Sunday, 11th inst., celebrated her 89th birthday. She makes her home in Mebane with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Cora Sharpe Hargis. Her only living child is Mrs. J. R. Pendergrass of Mebane; there were three others, a daughter and two sons. There are eight grandchildren, one in China, and the others at different points in this State. The occasion was celebrated with a sumptuous dinner attended by more than 20 of the family.

-These are at home for the holidays:

Fred Williams from Campbell College.

Miss Lucille Walker, teaching at Mocksville.

Marvin Yount from Duke University.

James White, teacher in Emory College, Valdosta, Ga.

Kent Stratford from Davidson College.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Stratford from Greensboro College.

Julius Thompson from Coyle Electrical College in Chicago, having completed the course.

-Don't forget those less fortunate than yourself when enjoying the abundance with which you have been blessed. Remember: It is more blessed to give than to receive. The crumbs that fall from some tables would be a feast to others. It's a many-sided world that showers life's good things on some while a next-door neighbor is in dire need and want and suffering the pangs of hunger. It should be the joy of somebody to turn a ray of hope and sunshine on their bleak lives—nay, more, it is a duty. If you have it to spare, don't forego the joy of making some fellow creature happy for a day. There is no more opportune and appropriate season than the Christmas time.

-A marriage of unusual interest will take place at Graham Presbyterian church Friday, tomorrow, afternoon, when Miss Betty Scott will be united in marriage with Robert Benton McKenzie of Rockingham. Miss Scott is a pretty brunette, attractive and popular, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Scott. On the paternal side she traces her ancestry back to the pioneers of pre-Revolutionary days in Alamance and Guilford counties, who have constituted a type of the best citizenship. She is an alumna of St. Mary's College in Raleigh. Numerous delightful courtesies have been extended her, and her many friends in Graham and beyond will wish her a most happy wedded life.
