PATRIO And Greensborough Palladium.

VOL 11

GREENSBOROUGH, N. C. SATURDAY MAY 12, 1827

THE PATRIOT.

Is possed and published weekly by T. FARLY STRANGE,

At Iv. Hollars per annum, payable within three muchs from the receipt of the first number, or Three Dollars after the expiretion of that time.

No aper to be descontinued until all arrest ages are paid, unless at the option of the Editor; and pendare or dify a discontin-hance will be considered a new engage wen.

ADV DEALSE.MENTS, Not exceeding 16 lines, nearly inserted three t mes for one dollar, and 25 cents for eve 13 succeeding 1 ublication, those of grea. ter length in the same propartion-Let i. r. . . . he Editor must be post paid.

> ----to the Farriel. No. 1.

MR EDIT E .-- Whilst you are hiding you or cavers to esserint your paper the medium of ends htenco are free discussion, it will not be jubact-in view? He ought to redenier, that these discussions should in mber that we do not all entertein be conducted with some regard to that parental attachment to his vereligance of language and correctness | bostly which he himself does .- After of aste. It came have escaled taking leave of his knight, he prothe observation of your most superfir .1 readers, that the 'republic of posing to treat of things which "de ho -rs" has of late suffered a violent mand our attention."-We would on age from the unwariant a at- here hope, that Dudley has recover ta ha done of your contributors, ed from his Quix tic enthus asm, over the signature of Dudley His bu how are we sill disappointed firs number is so contradictory to find bim still soaring, and amaz at he tules of polite composition, at the wonders of the age. With me so subvirsive of true taste that his former confidence, he clothes it concrets to undergo a critical an few old, wornout ideas, in a splendic co graduating his reasons on the of affairs is interesting. In the clu se the bare rerusal of a stricture on the strangeness of evens, and the criti-"kright of the rueful countenance," hus proprios gladius" and the like, and after having filled his pericracourse of mellifluous sounds as will cho, and tells of their wonder ful adventures with as much exultation as

ellige

f he had been titling a new tale. Dudley will no double exclaim that roling? It is true, he sile us in the subject. course of his remarks, that he is a-

suppose that right down thating subject must appear to present, some nonescose can be germandized by to entruit sertiments, by note his readers, until he thinks proper east ongo the attention of the ento inform us that he has an ultimate mises to reveal his object by proand sublime at ire, which seems con Preliminary reports and a kind pretely to have captivated his ow marine remains (the magnesian lime of clf mpor and ridicule constitute imagination. What a tectous and some.) then a long interval of new the survey are of the columns which a signating task is it, to follow him red sandstone intervanes, destitute Livery has filed. He fi st sets out shrough the circutous mezes by almost if not entirely, of organic rein qui e a le by strain . . . if perfective which he would inform (what every mains, preparing as it were the way as' n -hed at the worders of the ace. chald knew hef te) th t the aspect for a new order of thing: This orre is a cf chivality and at last giv or his worderous flight he becomes as ds and obelk. All there teds con In as the cause of his astonishment, so powerfully wrought upon by the tain corais, enerinter, tes-G vernot's Message. One would cal situation of all us, that he ix barrine oviparous quadroneds, yet be inclined to conclude that Dudley claims in the language of '76 wille widely distinguished from the famiwas it endfully exposed to the a- time which retrics men's souls." It lies contained in the lawer bods of fains of a discoved imag nation or Dudley's ardor has a little abated the transition and exbonder us class that is had full confidence is his as he will find by reperusing a few of and pa traffy distinguished among bilty to raise the loud laugh, by re his sentences in regard to "State the modive- according to the bed which preserting his adversary as the rights," mational machine," mag they occupy. Hitherto the remains "kright of the rueful countenance," has proprios gladius" and the file, ied with the mineral substance in (the ild, hackneyed mode of ridi- that he has well personated his fa which day ar imbeded i) but last cure which has long since lost its vorite hero. Don. He has made a ly in the strate which cover the chalk efficiency.) After saying that his wonderful slipply of words and we find the shells merely preserved, attempts at wit have been wofully sounds, but has forgotten that all and momenta state that when the weak, and that his words are was your readers are not caviliers. Up- clay or sind in which they lie is tinkling brass," I shall attempt to on the whole, he has jumbled figures, wash d off, they might appear to be confi m my previous remarks by wielded "swords and sickles" and recent, had they not fost the colour rel trence to the writers own piece, mustire such a formidable array of and become more brittle. Here we - the first sentence, which no doubt tookneyed expressions without i find beds of movine shells alternately e t Due y much painful kab , and deas that his mixture would well with others peculiar to fresh water, nit m with he choices fuits of his flights of imgination, in a word, swept) containing the remains of nu Inbours, he determined to astonish this perfect revival of chivalry, has merous land quadrapeds, many of and overwhelm his readers by his all proceeded from this c mnion oc-aplended duction and musical periods. currence? Lake be old woman who, of elephant or mammath, hear, rh-no-One can hardly help entering, in was deprived of the advantage of e ros and elk) mingled with othe s, with conscious dignity, and antici perfectly amazed at the news of a trus." paying the admirations of the aston- communication from Amicas .---isted reader. Indeed, Mr Editor. There is one other supposition which endation of the Geology of the loss the ongle s ntence contains the dis will explain Dudley's attack upon country, it will appear that the great the cushed characteristic of this weight common sense, but I torbear to menor ly anxious to produce such a con- to be thought vain, (... g pardon.) est but oue of the strata of Englandconsumate the wayt of solidity, fimaries, but sty is inde without called erag not true I subinit to the charge of respondent to curb his fiery imaginasuch a remarkable perversion of the lawns of reason Lot him temem "style" that this shall be my only ber that the English language must excuse for dwelling upon it. - After suffer an irreparable disadventage having emoyed the thrilling exstacy from such unprovoked attacks. I of so powerful an eff of genius, we have avoided quoting any of his would bardly suppose, that he did sentences under the hope that eavaluous sparit would flag before it word to the wise will be sufficient," had resuscitated Don Quixotte, and could however, make Dudley himattacked a wind mill. And sure e self stare, by collecting some of his non h, he begets a Don and a Sen- pho ases-but I must bid him adieu.

NAPOLEAN.

From the Raleigh Register.

Age of the low country .- Professor I am representing his burlesque as Mitchell makes the following quotaif it was all in good carriest, but I time tran. Conybeare & Phillip's Gewould ask Dudley, what he is ridi ology of England and Wales, on this

"If we cant a rapid view over the bout to oppose Amicus, but does he phenomena of this distribution, the of the most singular problems which quirer into nature ; first, we have a foundation of Primitive Ricks destiinte of these remains; in the next succeeding sories (that of transition) orals, enerinites and testacia, differ at however from those now known. appear af first sparingly; the fossit remains of the carboniferous limestone, and nearly of the same nature with thus: in the Transition Rocks. but more abundant; the coal measures eame* how yer themselves which repose on this fim stone searcely presenta singla shell or coral, last on the contrary, houn | with vegetable temains, ferns, fl gs, reels of unknown species, and arge tinuls of succulent plan's. s "angers to the present globe Upon the coal reat hold again containing der compenses in the line, and is contion d in the obtes green and irontacia, crustacia, vertebral lishes, and are always potr fi d (i. e. impregnacontinue of the solution of th the wits of the most accut, to ann. ed from his lofty station, and de she is at present existing on the same is two stories high, supported in lyze and understand its meaning. If clates that another phenomenon has crest; and lastly, over all these stra- front by ten heavy pillars and ar through the politeness of apt. I may venture an opinion on it, I been of late witnessed, viz: + that ta, indiscriminately, there is spread thes and occupies a square of near- William R. Bowers, who left San would indge, that the author had your paper has received a communi- a covering of gravel (seemingly form- 1y 300 feet. The lower apartment Blas on the 1st of March last, and resolved in his mind every phrase cation in regard to the Governor's ed by the action of a deluge, which is used for the various civil and mili- came through the interior of M xico which is apt to please by its sound, Message." And is it possible that has detached and rounded by attrition tary offices of the government; in to Veta Cruz, we have the following all this array of words, these hold fragments of the rocks over which it them of unknown general or species other. imagination, his chamber when he news papers because the lived in equally strangers to the elimates; will a full charge or pride, structing her." Dudi viscems to have been present occupying the same coun (but the present governor has creet, prope head, if we upply these facts to the elumass of clay, sand and pebbles, that ter. Regardl ss of "sense" he acents tion it, as I know he would not like the Soate, is not older than the new mous collection of sounds without where poor Sancho gets nucly flan, marine shells which the shell light the greatest care.

sense, and then if my structures are keted. Le me entreat your cor- are indentical, at least in most cases | This place is used as a public with these now inhabit ng the Atlan | walk for the ladies at evening. On ignorance. This first sentence is tion, & not to gallop headlong over tic Coast and that the whole of it Thursday evening of each wek, the was deposited, if not at one t me, at royal band inusicians parade on one least within a very short per od. is sile of the square, while the centro proved by the circumstance that these is occupied by the spectators and shells are every where n the same state listeners, usually comprising the of preservation, and therefore of the youthful gay of both sexes On

Professor Mitchell first fell in with such occasions the dress of the ladies the shells upon the plantation of is white, with no head dress, except Samuel Robeson in Bladen county, perhaps a few roses twined in the 12 miles above Elizabeth. The first hair. When the moon is hining, shell observed was a species of Pru the effect is singularly beautiful.

turculus. This was traced down the On one side of the square is the River, quite to Wilmington, and it Post Office [Correo,] occupied for a was found at internals of 10 and 15 variety of purposes besides the one miles, throughout the whole distance indicated by its nam . The front on Major Owen's plantation, in the of this building is not very unlike bed of the River at Elizabeth, at that of the government house.

abou Major Gillespies, on a branch cers of the customs are small and Picten, &c. were found in most of articles of produce of the Island very these places and a more accurate ex. an export duty, an officer is iw yo aminat on would probably be reward: placed there to prevent any contraed by the discovery in them all. They band. An thee public walls, wallad are alike in their appearane , wheth the Atameda, overlooks he bay. er taken from one or another of the It is about one hundred rods in above mentioned localities, so that if length, and two in width, with a wak of half d-eayed shells from the upper water, built of stone; and a -im lar part of Biaden. tom Bounswick, one about three feet high, next the stroyed, and they piled up by some ex ept in a volant. It is goverally great calastrophe-on- of those revo- thronged on bright montigh anydarkness. Shells that are tossed by the waves, soon have all their angles. worn off by the attrition of the saud, but they have as many sharp angles and delicats fortows and projections as are to be found in those which con tum living numals. This fact appears to me, says the Professor to prove decisively, that the soil of the characterized by decency. low country is not the result of a grathe sea.

Walker's Bluff, in three or four places The building occupied by the offiof Livingstons Creek near the bridge low, and situated near the whatf, at Witmington, and in the sides of to which there are several passages, the natural well in Duplin county guarded by soldiers; and as nost Spacies of other general-Venus, Area guarded by soldiers; and as nost a person were presented wit a mass of four feet high on the side or ho New-Hanover or Duplio, he would be road. The walk is entirely of stone, unable to tell from which place they plastered and rendered as am the The appearance of the shells is as a marble hearth- It is irequentalso such, as to carry conviction at ed by the ladies and gentlemen, oonce to the mind, that they have ne- venings only, as the heat here is inver been tossed by the waves upon tense during the day and besides, the sea-shore-but that the azimais it is not fashionable for a lady . be inhabiting them were suddenly de- seen in the streets at any other time, carts, and negrous.

NO. 8.1

[From the New York Daily Advertises.] CUBA IN 1827.

The Plaza de Armas, in front of Eliza, arrived his morning from peruses the harmonious collection, to the backwoods and who had not while they are now found thymnas, this building, is a square of equal that port. Some interesting marine see him dash aside his pen and rise therefore heard that " [esus died for &e) yet associated with many at size. Formerly it was a grass plat, intelligence will be found under the ed a small stone wall of about two? Capt. Bowers left at Sm Blas tect high a our it, d plac don the Unied States sloop of wa Peathis an iron raising. He has also cock, Capt Thomas Ap. C. Jones, subdivided it into smaller squates, to s il for Lima in May, 1826 on a by stone walks tunning through it; cruise among the South Sea is ones, and around each of the divisions, in in the course of which she visited the centre, is now creeting an iron Marquesas' Groupe, Otaheite, and I have the far gl need at his pre that which, in the above extract, is railing. Such of the beds as are other of the Society Islands, the already finished are fired with a Soudwich, and sime other islands Let our teaders was to this to first onset This is proved by the fast that the variety of Bowers, cultiveted with of miner one reason the North There Boury Pacific Oceans:

lutions in the condition of the globe, ings, when the reflections of light respecting the causes of which we from the bay, the music of the for sp shall probably forever remain in and the display of beauty, with the u idness of the Cuban sky, give a peculiar sensation of pleasure.

At the head of this walk is the Theatre, of which nothing can be said, except that in its appearance it is a decent building. The performances of the stage are generally

On the opposite side of the bay is dual meroschment of the land upon Regia; the spot about which so much has been said, as the resort of he pirates. At present there is a litthe piracy, that the Hegla is occupied for other purposes. Under he id-The streets of the Havana are ve- minis ration of Mr. Monroe, they ry narrow, and lowest in the cen had dinners there, and used to drink tre. The side walks are of course his health as the "friend of piraces!" in proportion; and, as little atten | Boats are constantly crossing and tion is paid to keeping any part of recrossing to this place and paracuthe pavement in repair, it is difficult larly on feast days. They are so to walk with case. In addition to numerous, that the government have this, the part of the city near the licensed hem and compelled them wharf is usually crowded with mules, to go by turns, and regulated up) pri of passages. The whole numthe most prominent public build, ber of these and other sm h row

From the Sandwich Islands the conticuts a large gau op bing the communication giving late inform to the court; and the upper story is oc tion form he United States sloop of cupied by the Captain General and war Peacock, and late and graufyhis officers. The public prisons is ing intelligence f om the Sandwich on one side, and the military on the Islands. From Vera Cruz. Capt. Bowers came passenger in the bag