

THE TARIFF.

EXTRACTS from the Messages of the Presidents of the United States on the subject of the Tariff.

"The advancement of agriculture, commerce, and manufactures, by all proper means will not only...

"Congress has repeatedly, and not without success directed their attention to the encouragement of manufactures..."

"We have experienced what we did not then believe, that there exists both proficiency and power enough to exclude us from the field of interchanges with other nations..."

"The revision of our commercial laws, proper to adapt them to the arrangement which has taken place with Great Britain..."

"I recommend as a more effectual safeguard and an encouragement to our growing manufactures that the additional duties on imports which are to expire at the end of one year after a peace with Great Britain..."

"But there is no subject which can enter with greater force and merit into the deliberations of Congress, than a consideration of the means to preserve and promote manufactures which have sprung into existence..."

"In adjusting the duties on imports to the object of revenue, the influence of the tariff on manufactures will necessarily present itself for consideration..."

"Our manufactures will likewise require the systematic and fostering care of the Government. Possessing, as we do, all the raw materials, the fruit of our own soil and industry..."

"Uniformity in the demand and price of an article, is highly desirable to the domestic manufacturer. It is deemed of great importance to give encouragement to our domestic manufactures..."

"It cannot be doubted, that the more complete our internal resources, and the less dependent we are on foreign powers for every national as well as domestic purpose..."

"The great interest of an agricultural, commercial, and manufacturing nation, are so linked in union together, that no permanent cause of prosperity to one of them can operate without extending its influence to the other..."

"The power to impose duties upon imports originally belonged to the several States. The right to adjust these duties, with a view to the encouragement of domestic branches of industry is so completely identical with that power..."

"The revision of our commercial laws, proper to adapt them to the arrangement which has taken place with Great Britain..."

"I recommend as a more effectual safeguard and an encouragement to our growing manufactures that the additional duties on imports which are to expire at the end of one year after a peace with Great Britain..."

"But there is no subject which can enter with greater force and merit into the deliberations of Congress, than a consideration of the means to preserve and promote manufactures which have sprung into existence..."

"In adjusting the duties on imports to the object of revenue, the influence of the tariff on manufactures will necessarily present itself for consideration..."

"Our manufactures will likewise require the systematic and fostering care of the Government. Possessing, as we do, all the raw materials, the fruit of our own soil and industry..."

Table listing various goods and their prices, including Flat iron, Nails, Scythe blades, Weeding and hilling hoes, Nails, Richmond made, Carpenters' knob locks, average, Stock locks, Table knives and forks, Spades and shovels, Trace chains, Cross-cut and mill saws, Leaf sugar, best double, Leaf, per lb., Bar lead, per lb., Wood screws, though prohibited by duty, are at least 20 per cent. lower...

STATEMENT showing the relative prices of leading styles of Dry Goods, Jan. 1, 1841, and Jan. 1, 1843.

Domestic Goods. Jan. 1, 1841. Jan. 1, 1843. Cotton ozabergs per yd. 8 a 10 cts. 6 1/2 a 7 1/2

The Tariff has not only had the tendency to reduce Domestic Goods, but it may and has reduced Foreign Goods. For example: Irish Linens were imported in 1841 duty free—in 1843 they paid a duty of 25 per cent. and with the duty added are at least 20 per cent lower than in 1841.

The prices of Silks have varied less during that time than upon other Goods, yet there was a considerable difference. In 1841 Sewing Silk, &c. paid a duty of 33 per cent. and in 1843 they pay a duty of 82 00 per pound or about 45 per cent.

FACTS ON THE TARIFF. The merchants and business men of Richmond, Virginia, who do not believe that the present Tariff is either beggarly or taxing the country, have made out a statement of the wholesale prices in that market of all the staple articles of import and consumption under the low Tariff of 1841 and the high Tariff of 1843 respectively.

It is known to all that money was scarce and interest comparatively high in 1841, while in 1843 cash was abundant in the commercial cities and interest down to 4 or 5 per cent. on the best paper.

There is nothing like this in the history of our country. In 1843 and in 1844, we imported three-fourths as much, but we were borrowing money abroad heavily, so that this amounted to nothing; while in 1843 we have not only made a net gain of twenty millions in specie, but we contracted no debts abroad.

A COMPARATIVE STATEMENT. Of the wholesale price of goods in the various branches of trade in the city of Richmond, carefully made up from actual sales in the year 1841, when the Tariff, under the Compromise Act, ranged at the very lowest rates of duty; and in 1843, the first year after the oppressive Tariff, as denunciations call it, passed by a whig Congress, went into full operation, viz:

"Well, my friend, what situation do you wish?" "Why-y-y, I'm not very particular; but some how or other, I think I should like to be a minister. I don't mean of the gospel, but one of them ministers to foreign parts."

"I'm very sorry, very sorry indeed; there is no vacancy just now." "Would not something else suit you?" "Why-y-y," answered the apple-headed man, "I wouldn't much care if I took a situation in one of the departments. I wouldn't much mind being a comptroller, or an auditor or some such thing."

He then, after some hesitation, asked for a clerkship, and finally the place of messenger to one of the public offices. Finding no vacancy here, he seemed in vast perplexity, and looked all round the room, fixing his eye at length on me, and measuring my height from head to foot.

CONGRESS. The proceedings of Congress have been altogether without interest for some weeks past. The Senate continues to hold long Executive sessions with closed doors, engaged no doubt in the consideration of the Treaty with Texas.

ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS. The injunction of secrecy having been removed by the Senate from the documents communicated by the President concerning the concentration of troops on the Texian frontier, the official account of these extraordinary movements are published to the world.

ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS. The injunction of secrecy having been removed by the Senate from the documents communicated by the President concerning the concentration of troops on the Texian frontier, the official account of these extraordinary movements are published to the world.

ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS. The injunction of secrecy having been removed by the Senate from the documents communicated by the President concerning the concentration of troops on the Texian frontier, the official account of these extraordinary movements are published to the world.

ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS. The injunction of secrecy having been removed by the Senate from the documents communicated by the President concerning the concentration of troops on the Texian frontier, the official account of these extraordinary movements are published to the world.

ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS. The injunction of secrecy having been removed by the Senate from the documents communicated by the President concerning the concentration of troops on the Texian frontier, the official account of these extraordinary movements are published to the world.

FOR GOVERNOR, WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, OF THE COUNTY OF ORANGE.

FOR PRESIDENT, HENRY CLAY, OF KENTUCKY.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, THEODORE FRELINGHUYSEN, OF NEW JERSEY.

GRENSBOROUGH, Saturday Morning, May 25, 1844.

CONGRESS. The proceedings of Congress have been altogether without interest for some weeks past. The Senate continues to hold long Executive sessions with closed doors, engaged no doubt in the consideration of the Treaty with Texas.

ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS. The injunction of secrecy having been removed by the Senate from the documents communicated by the President concerning the concentration of troops on the Texian frontier, the official account of these extraordinary movements are published to the world.

ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS. The injunction of secrecy having been removed by the Senate from the documents communicated by the President concerning the concentration of troops on the Texian frontier, the official account of these extraordinary movements are published to the world.

ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS. The injunction of secrecy having been removed by the Senate from the documents communicated by the President concerning the concentration of troops on the Texian frontier, the official account of these extraordinary movements are published to the world.

same time, it is my opinion that Mexico or any other Power will find in your approval of the treaty no just cause of war against the United States; nor do I believe that there is any serious hazard of war to be found in the fact of such approval.

GEN. CASS ON ANNEXATION. Gen. Cass has addressed a letter to the Hon. E. A. Hannegan, under date of May 10, in which he advocates the immediate annexation of Texas.

DEMOCRACY AND THE TARIFF. The Whig Tariff of 1842 was an abomination in the eyes of the Democracy. They "swore terribly" about it, and a quiet man would have thought they would tear it all to shreds and tatters the moment they laid their hands on it in the halls of Congress.

ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS. The injunction of secrecy having been removed by the Senate from the documents communicated by the President concerning the concentration of troops on the Texian frontier, the official account of these extraordinary movements are published to the world.

ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS. The injunction of secrecy having been removed by the Senate from the documents communicated by the President concerning the concentration of troops on the Texian frontier, the official account of these extraordinary movements are published to the world.

ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS. The injunction of secrecy having been removed by the Senate from the documents communicated by the President concerning the concentration of troops on the Texian frontier, the official account of these extraordinary movements are published to the world.

ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS. The injunction of secrecy having been removed by the Senate from the documents communicated by the President concerning the concentration of troops on the Texian frontier, the official account of these extraordinary movements are published to the world.

ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS. The injunction of secrecy having been removed by the Senate from the documents communicated by the President concerning the concentration of troops on the Texian frontier, the official account of these extraordinary movements are published to the world.

ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS. The injunction of secrecy having been removed by the Senate from the documents communicated by the President concerning the concentration of troops on the Texian frontier, the official account of these extraordinary movements are published to the world.

$20 REWARD. RANAWAY from the subscriber on the 12th instant, a NEGRO BOY by the name of Frank, 21 years old, about five feet high and weighing 130 or 140 pounds, black complexion, has a scar on his left arm occasioned by a burn. He is a blacksmith by trade. Amongst his clothing he had a brown jeans frock coat, a cut velvet waistcoat, pantaloons not recollected; and a small velvet cap.

THE CONDITIONS upon which God has given health to man, is a constant care to keep his stomach and bowels free from all morbid or unhealthy accumulations. The means to effect this are those remedies which cleanse the bowels and purify the blood. DR. B. BRANDRETH'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS tend to cure all disease, because they are the natural medicine of man; and therefore, only remove the corrupt or vitiated humors—the cause of pain and sickness, leaving the blood in a good and healthy state, to give life and strength to the body.

Extensive Assortment of Pianos, PROBABLY THE LARGEST IN ANY ONE ESTABLISHMENT NOTHIN OR SOUTH. IN purchasing so costly an article as a Piano Forte, would it not be well to order it from one who has been engaged in the business some 8 or 9 years, has sold, upon trial, to different persons in Virginia and North Carolina near four hundred instruments, without selling a bad one, and who offers to take all the responsibility of selecting you, and to grant you the privilege of returning in case you are not pleased?

ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS. The injunction of secrecy having been removed by the Senate from the documents communicated by the President concerning the concentration of troops on the Texian frontier, the official account of these extraordinary movements are published to the world.

ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS. The injunction of secrecy having been removed by the Senate from the documents communicated by the President concerning the concentration of troops on the Texian frontier, the official account of these extraordinary movements are published to the world.

ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS. The injunction of secrecy having been removed by the Senate from the documents communicated by the President concerning the concentration of troops on the Texian frontier, the official account of these extraordinary movements are published to the world.