AUTUMN.

Translated from the French of M. Lamartine.

Welcome ye trees, in dying verdure clad, Weeping your golden tears on all below;

With thoughtful step in lonely woodland path I love to mark the year's retreating form.

Her glory gone, still beautiful things I see— The fireweed of a friend, the last low sigh.

So ready from the shores of life to spring, Weeping for summer days of hope long past,

Earth, sun, vale, nature, beautiful and fair, For you, on death's dark verge, a tear I shed;

THE PATRIOT.

FRONTIER FOR THE "SPOILS."—Office holders in every branch of the Federal Government...

"The President of the United States has seen with dissatisfaction, officers of the General Government...

"The recent demonstrations of public sentiment inscribes on the list of Executive duties, in characters too legible to be overlooked, the task of reform...

COL. JEFFERSON DAVIS—GEN. TAYLOR.—Col. J. Davis, Senator from Mississippi, recently made a speech at Jackson, in the course of which he alluded to Gen. Taylor in the following complimentary terms...

FREE SOIL IN VIRGINIA.—The movement occurring in the "Tenth Legion," (the strong hold of Democracy in the State) will of course damage mostly the Cass party...

THE CHEROKEE NATION.—The National Council is announced to meet at Tahlequah on the first Monday of October.

Street Fight in Vicksburg.—We learn from New Orleans papers that a fatal rencontre took place in one of the streets of Vicksburg on the 15th ult.

ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS.—The annual return of the Grand Secretary shows a great increase of the Order of Odd Fellows in the United States.

Number of Lodges in the United States, 1757 Initiations, 35,132 Contributing Members, 144,325 Revenue of Subordinate Lodges, $1,033,207 7/8 Paid for the relief of members, widows and orphans, 345,737 7/4

A THRILLING INCIDENT.—At the great Whig Mass meeting at Fort Harrison, near Terre Haute, Indiana, the following incident is related by a correspondent of the State Journal:

Gov. Letcher made a most happy address, and particularly gratifying to his Whig hearers. He depicted in the most glowing colors the stern and unbending honesty, and the many eminent qualifications of Gen. Taylor for the Presidency.

The following table comprises the forces furnished by the several States on the call of the War Department, during the late war with Mexico:

Table listing military units and personnel counts for various states like Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, etc.

Of these, 43,213 men were from the States south of Mason and Dixon's line, and 22,130 from the free States—difference in favour of the Southern States, 21,077 men, citizen volunteers.

WISCONSIN.—The judges chosen at the late election in this State, met at Madison on the 11th, and were sworn into office by Justice Seymour.

Table listing judges and their terms for various districts in Wisconsin.

The organization of the Court was completed by the appointment of J. Ripley Brigham, of Madison, as Clerk of the Supreme Court.

The aggregate vote of this State at the judicial election was only 16,219. In November the vote will not be less than 45,000.

It will be perceived that a Convention has been held at Woodstock, and that a Free Soil Ticket is presented to the voters of Virginia.

Whether this ticket will receive ten or ten thousand votes, we know not. Those who have gotten it up, and who intend to vote it, have a perfect right to do so, and are entitled to all the courtesy extended to the strongest party in the State.

The Winchester Virginians state that large numbers of emigrants have passed through that town within a month past, principally bound for that noble region, Western and North Western Virginia.

The last session of Congress was the longest, with the exception of one, held since the commencement of the present Federal Government in 1789.

THE CHOLERA.—A letter from Hamburg, of Sept. 15th, says: "A number of violent cases of Asiatic cholera have already occurred, principally among the lower order of the people."

THE VETO POWER.—We have been struck with the coincidence of views upon the veto power between General Taylor and the Father of our country.

LOW WATER IN THE LAKE.—The water in Lake Erie is much lower this season than last. So much has it fallen that there is an inadequate supply for the canal and for hydraulic purposes at Black Rock.

THE NORTH AND THE SOUTH. In a recent able letter to the people of Massachusetts, in favor of the election of Gen. Taylor, written by the veteran, HARRISON GRAY OTIS, we find the following:

It is further seriously objected that General Taylor is a slaveholder. This objection comes above sixty years too late. It was disposed of in substance by the original articles of confederation, and annulled in form by the constitution of the United States.

WASHINGTON'S ANCESTORS.—Macready, the actor, at the request of a friend in this country recently paid a visit to a church of Wiltshire, England, to search for a tomb represented to be that of one of Washington's ancestors.

GEN. TAYLOR—On War and Peace. I sincerely rejoice at the prospect of peace. My life has been devoted to arms, yet I look upon war at all times and under all circumstances as a NATIONAL CALAMITY, to be avoided if compatible with national honor.

I need hardly reply to your concluding inquiry, that I AM A PEACE MAN, and that I deem a state of peace to be absolutely necessary to the proper and healthful action of our REPUBLICAN INSTITUTIONS.

OUR CALCULATION.—From "all the lights now before us," we give the following as the probable result of the Presidential election next month.

Table showing calculations for the Presidential election, including votes for Cass, Fremont, and Taylor.

WHITE POPULATION OF THE U. STATES IN 1840. Free States, Slave-holding States.

Table comparing white population between free states and slave-holding states in 1840.

NEVER VOTED.—Gen. Washington Park Curtis, the step-son of the immortal Washington, and the inheritor of the Mount Vernon Estate, in a speech recently delivered in favor of General Taylor, said that in 43 years he had not voted.

LIBERIA.—Lord Palmerston, it is said, has informed President Roberts of Liberia, that there will be no hesitation in acknowledging the sovereignty and independence of the Republic of Liberia.

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO FIND ANY CAUSE FOR THIS DISPOSITION to embark in a crusade upon the Southern institutions, which did not exist at the time when the Northern States stipulated in fact to leave them uninterrupted.

LEDRU ROLLIN.—The oratory of this remarkable man seems to be retrieving its reputation from the immense load of obloquy which was heaped upon it by his errors in the Provisional Government.
