A STORY FOR MARRIES FOLKS.

Andrew Lee came home from his shop was also tired and out of spirits.

with knitted brows and mondy aspect. Not a word was spoken by either, Mrs. of her spirit.

about with a weary step.

Andew arose and went to the table. He was attempted to speak an angry word, dearest place on earth." but controlled himself and kept silent. man, if there had been a gleam of sun- can never lie in shadow." sline on the face of his wife. He noticed for the face of his wife looked so cepelling that home with joy and beauty. les , that he feared an irritating reply: And so, in moody silence, the twain sat together until Andrew had, finished his

"I should like to find some occasion for | ares are judiciously applied. praising mine." How quickly his thoughts expressed that ill-natured sentiment. But his eyes were on the page before him, and

Praise your wife, man; for pity's sake give her a little encouragement. It won't It is full of touching tenderness;

Andrew Lee raised his eyes from the paper and muttered, 'O, yes; that's all very well. Praise is cheap enough. But praise her for what? For being sullen, again to the paper.

8 She has made your home comfortable, your heart bright and shining, your food agreeable; for pity's sake tell ber you thank her, if nothing more, She don't expect it; it will make her eyes open wider than they have for ten years; but it will do her good for all that, and you,

At seemed to Andrew as if this sentence was written just for him, and just for the occasion. It was a complete answer to his question, "Praise her for what?" and he fait it also a rebuke. He read no further, for thought came too busy and in a new direction. Memory was convicting him of injustice to his wife. She had always made his home as comfortable for him as her hands could make it, and had he offered the light return of praise or commendation? Had be ever told her of the satisfaction he had known, or the comfort he had experienced. He was not able to recall the time or occasion. As he thought thus, Mrs. Lee came in from the kitchen, and, taking her work-basket from the closet, placed it on the table, and, sitting down without speaking, began to sew .-work in her hands, and saw that it was the beson of a shirt, which she was stitching mently. He knew that it was for him that

"Praise your wife." The words were before the wes of his mind, and he could not look away from them. But he was not ready for this vet. He still felt moody and unforgiving. The expression of his wite stace he interpreted to mean ill-nature, for which he had no patience. His his promise to pay, or withholds the payeyes fell upon the newspaper that lay ment of a debt when it is in his power to spread out before him, and read the sen-

" A kind, gentle word, spoken in a gloomy house, is the little rift in the cloud that lets the sun-line through."

Lee struggled with himself a while longer. His own ill nature had to be conquer ed first; his moody, accusing spirit had to ! fully modulated with kindness; metion of her reedle had ceased. 3 My shirts are better made, and whi ence to that in raw state. ter than those of any other man in the shop," said hee, encouraged to go on.

"Are they?" Mrs. Lee's voice was low and had in it a slight loskiness. She did turn her face, but her husband saw that she leaned a little fowards bim. He had, broken the ice of reserve, and all was cary now. His hand was among the clouds and a feeble ray was already struggling through the rift it had made.

"Yes, Mary," he answered softly ; "and I've heard it more than once what a good wife Andrew Lee must have." Mrs. Lee turned her five towards her husband .-There was light in it, and light in her eye. But there was something in the expresalta of the countenance that a little puz-

" I lon't you think so?" she asked, quite peated, as he steed before her,

" It you?" It was all she said.

then, Andrew, it would do me good."- where he had worked all day, tired and mind of Andrew Lee. He had never giv- the United States they cause but few .-"A smilling wife and a cheerful home- daily, until doubt of his love had entered This does not include the loss of life from a paralise it would be!" said Andrew to her soul, and made the light all around her the recent unfortunate explosions in Yorkhimself, as he turned his eyes from the thick darkness. No wonder that her face shire and Staffordshire. Over 600 lives clouded face of Mrs. Lee, and sat downer grew clouded, nor what he considered were lost by these last. It is thought

Les was getting supper, and she moved "You are good and true, Mary, my and nine hundred feet deep, and the liabiliown dear wife; I am proud of you-I ty of these explosions, will induce increas-C. me," she said at last, with a side love you, and my first desire is for your ed emigration on their part to this counhappiness. O, if I could always see your try. They have to work at low wages in face in sunshine, my home would be the England, and in some mines many of the

He could find no fault with the chop nor of love and praise, Andrew," said Mrs. eighty-four degrees is the temperature at the home-made bread, nor the fragrant Lee, smiling up through her tears into his which it is said the work in certain parts ten. They would have cheered his inward face. "With them in my ears, my heart of some English mines is now carried on,

How easy had been the work for An- men cannot steadily labor. Are you not well, Mary?" The words the cloudy horizon, and now the bright tion with our American mines, the coal were on his lips, but he did not utter them. sunshine was streaming down, and flood- here being generally in the hills and high false moral and political grounds, and car-

DO NOT CULTIVATE ORDINARY LAND WITHOUT MAXURE. - Recollect, says The Cultivator, it costs you on our average as he pushed his chair back, his wife soils, ten dollars or more, to make an acre arose and commenced clearing off the ta- of corn with hired labor, and fitteen or more to make and gather an acre of cot-This is purpostory !" said Lee to him ton. If you do not lock closely after your self as he commenced walking the floor of hands, it will cost you a good deal more their little breakfast room, with his hands than that. Now, every acre cultivated, thrus desperately away down into his that will not yield crops worth at least the provers' pockets, and his chin almost above amounts, will not only be no profit, but run you into debt. Large crops still After removing all the dishes and taking are required, to obtain a profit on hired them into the kitchen, Mrs. Lee spread | labor. Lands, then, which will not yield freshed trimed lamp thereon, went out such crops, we must let them rest, or and shut the door after her, leaving her manure them sufficiently or we lose monhasband alone with his unpleasant feel- ey. At least half of our poorest soils, iners. He fook a long deep breath as she hitherto devoted to corn and cotton, did so, passed in his walk, stood still for should be thrown out to rest, and the balsome moments, and when drawing a par ance enriched. How long will it take us tention to matters of detail lies at the root experiment of reforming and saving it has per from his pocket, sat down by the ta- to exhaust what little capital we have leid, ble opened the sheet, and commenced if for every acre on which we can make a shove all is the mother of good luck. Ac- most and last; and now that Christianized, reading. Singularly enough, the words net profit of ten dollars, we continue to mon which his eyes rested were "Praise cultivate five, which lack from three to ten wom wife." They rather tended to in- dollars each of meeting the actual cost of crease the disturbance of mind from which cultivation. There are few lands which will not yield a profit, if commercial man- fairs. What is done in business must be aid us in the work of self-government,

> It's DARK.-The following beautiful sentiments are from Meister Kart's Sketch Book, entitled the "Night of Heaven."-

orable man sees the results of years swept eruelly away by the knavish, heartless adversary. It is dark when he feels the clouds of sorrow gather around and knows and making her home the most disagreea- that the hopes and happiness in others are ble place in the world?" His eyes fell fading with his own. But in that hour the memory of past integrity will be a true consolation, and assure him even here on earth of gleams of light in Hesven. It is dark when the dear voice of that sweet child once fondly loved, is no more heard around in murmurs. Dark when the light pattering feet no more resounds without the threshold, or ascend step by step up-stairs. Dark when some well known air recalls the once oft attuned by childish voice now hushed in death! Darkness; but only the gloom which now heralds the day-spring of immortality, and the infinite light of Heaven.

> A VERY Successful Book .- A New York correspondent says:

Paying Debts.—One of our exchanges Mr. Lee glanged almost stealthily at the has the following strong remarks on this subject. They drive the nail in to the head and clinch it :

Men may sophisticate as they please .-They can never make it right, and all the bankrupt laws in the universe cannot make it right for them not to pay their debts.-There is a sin in this neglect as clear and as deserving church discipline as in stealing or false swearing. He who violates meet the engagement, ought to feel that in the sight of all honest men he is a swindler. Religion may be a very comfortagion does not make a man deal justly it is not worth having. STOCK-FEEDING,-The question as to be subjust. He thought of many things which is the most profitable for feeding to say, yet he feared to say them lest his stock, raw or cooked food, still engages wife should meet his address with a cold the attention of the agricultural press.rel aff. At last, lenning toward her, and The majority of voices are in favor of the taking held of the shirt bosom upon which cooking process. A Kentucky farmer fed she was at work, he said in a voice care raw corn for a given time to his hogsweighing them at the time of commen-"You are doing the work beautifully, eing the experiment, and again when a change made was to cooked food. The re-Mrs. Lee made no reply. But her hus suit was 54 to 74-a large balance in favor pand did not fail to notice that she lost al. of cooked food after deducting the exmost instantly that rigid erectness with pense of preparing the latter. Even onewhich she had been sitting, nor that the ball of the above difference would justify James on Thursday night last. The housethe feeding of the cooked material in pref> lient in an ancooked state is very heating, ously burned. and tends to collect the water from the In this connection we will take occasion her to the patient.

THE MOST INDEPENDENT MAN.—There "What a question!" cjaculated Andrew is no man more independent than the less, starting up, and going round to the owner of a well cultivated farm. He is ting, "What a question, Mary!" he re- any other calling. He has always a sure support before him without consulting the Alb rt Sidney Johnson were permitted to opinions or relying upon the custom of lie in the streets of Galveston a whole day, " Yes, tarling," was his warmly spoken any one. There is a constant market for on account of an infamous order from an miswar, and he stroped down and kissed all the surplus he can produce, and he ob- infamous Yankee officer, whose business, her. " dow strange that you should ask trains for it the current price without any during the war, was burning mills and one demanding to know of him his reli- barns, and making war on defenceless wo-" If you would only tell me so now and gious or political faith.

ENGLISH AND AMERICAN MINING .the manly breast of her husband, stood and mining in the United States and Great and wept.

Britain. In the latter country mine ex-What a strong light broke in upon the plosions cause numerous deaths, while in operatives never come above ground. On "How precious to me are your words account of their great depth, eighty and and at a higher temperature than this drew Lee. He had swept his hand across There is nothing of this sort in connec-English laborers, when here, ften become come, perhaps to general dissolution. capitalists by reason of the advantages "Yet I dare not speculate about the fuit is stated, by men who worked them before us. Judgment will come. years ago, and there are banks whose | * Presidents tormerly were coal miners.

> VALUE OF ACCURACY .- It is the result f every day's experience that steady atof human progress, and that diligence, half-do ten times as much. A wise man earth. used to say, "Stay a little that we may make an end the sooner." Too ence who can define a fact accurately."-Yet, in business affairs, it is the manner in which even small matters are transacted that often decides men for or against you. With virture, capacity and good conduct in other respects, the person who is habitually inaccurate cannot be trusted; his work has to be done over again; and he thus causes endless annoyance, vexation

PICTURES .- A room with pictures in it and a room without pictures, differ about as much as a room with windows and a room with windows and a room without windows. Nothing, we think, is more melanchely, particularly, to a person who has to pass much time in his room, than bleak walls with nothing on them-for pictures are loop holes of escape to the soul, leading to other scenes and other The Prison Life of Jefferson Davis spheres. It is such an inexpressible relief has sold to the forty-fifth edition; and is to a person engaged in writing or even still well. This book has been one of the reading on looking up, not to have his most profitable to the author and publish- line of vision chopped off by an odious er ever issued from the American press. white wall, but to find his soul escaping Dr. Craven's net receipts from it in this as it were, through the frame of an ex country and Europe are said to be close quisite picture to other beautiful and perhaps heavenly scenes where the fancy for a moment may revel, refreshed and de-

> Thus pictures are consolers of loneliness; they are relief to the jaded mind they are windows to the imprisoned thought; they are books; they are histories and sermons, which we can read without the trouble of turning over the leaves. -Downing.

THAD, STEVENS IN OHIO,-Thad, Stevens is passing away. Last winter he had many admirers and a host of followers, for six weeks in The Greensboro Patriot for and was really a leader in the national said defendants requiring them to be and ap-House of Representatives. This winter, pear at the next term of this court to be holwhich he commenced in Washington with a declaration that he had wasted much the 4th Monday in March next, then and there time in being a conservative, and proposed to plead, answer or demur to said petition of ble cloak under which to hide, but if reli- to be a radical, he has been kicked and the same will be taken pro confesso and heard cuffed almost without ceremony. His enabling act for the Southern States has September, 1866. R. B. WATT, C. M. F. been committed to the Committee on Reconstruction, and that's an end of it. * * * The extremists are defeated, and the thanks of the people of good sense every where are due Mr. Bingham, of Ohio, for his influential part in accomplishing this excellent result.—Cincinnati Commercial

DON'T BLOW OUT YOUR KEROSENE Lamps.-An accident, which for a time threatened the most distressing consequences, occurred in the family of Rev. T. B. hold were about to retire when a young patent, which I am prepared to show. EFFICACY OF ONIONS .- A writer says : ed down the wick. The result was an ex-We are troubled often with severe coughs, plosion of the lamp by which the girl's the result of cold of long standing, which | dress was set on fire. Her mother hastenmay tara to consumption or preamature ling to her assistance, was also enveloped leath. Hard cough causes sleepless nights in the flames, while the burning fluid rapby constant irritation in the throat, and a | idly ignited other materials on the floor .strong effort to throw off offensive mat. Fortunately, however, there was a loose ter from the lungs. The remedy I propose | roll of carpet in the room with which Mr. has been tried by me, and often recom- Thomas Sparrow succeeded in smothering mended to me with good results; which out the flames before they inflicted burns is simply to take into the stomach a piece on either of the ladies. Mr. Sparrow, and Is permanently located in High Point, N. C. of raw onion, after chewing. This escu- Mr. James were both severely if not seri- and most respectfully offers his Professional lungs and throat, causing immediate re- to call the attention of those who use kerosene oil, to the fact that scarcely a day passes that our exchanges do not bring us most approved and modern style. accounts of accidents caused by careless attempts to extinguish kerosene lamps .-Newberne Commercial, Jan. 25th.

> DISGRACEFUL.—The remains of Gen. men and children.

PROPHECY OF RETRIBUTION-GLOOMY Mrs. Lee arose, and leaning her face against There is a great difference between mines REFLECTION .- The venerable Nathan Lord, D. D., for a third of a century President of Dartmouth College, New Hampshire, amid all the political infatuation and out of spirits; came home to his wife, who en his wife even the small reward of praise The aggregate in Great Britain during religious fanaticism that has surrounded for the loving interest she had manifested the ten years from 1856 to 1866 was 2,019. him, and that compelled him finally to surrender the position he had so long adorned, adheres steadfastly to the principles and opinions that he espoused before moodiness and ill-nature, took possession that the great hardships and dangers to the insanity that now prevails in his secthe English miners, working in pits eight tion of country had become general. The Charleston Mercury of Saturday publishes a portion of a private letter by him last month to one of his former pupils, extracts from which we subjoin:

"I do not justify, in point of Christian principle or common prudence, the meth ods by which you sought redress of the wrongs you have, for more than a generation, received from the North. But I more blame ourselves, first, for our denunciation of slavery itself, in distinction from its abuses, and then for our "irrepressible conflict" with it, undertaken upon regions. Coal mining, therefore, is per- ried on hatefully, as it has been, after a formed at much greater advantage in this Mahometan fashion. Were the institution country than in England. The mines pay a malum in se, and not some times a conbetter here also. In England only from servative necessity for all the parties, our three to five per cent. are the profits, and method of overcoming it has been, from it is thought that much capital invested in first to last, unworthy of a Christian peocoal mining there, will seek new fields of ple. We have done the work. We have labor. Our coal and iron mines will thus, given you a dreadful punishment. But, from natural causes, draw both laborers as we have done it in unrighteousness, our and capitalists from Europe. The skilled retribution, some time, somehow, will which they find and which their knowledge | ture. * * I fold my hands, and wait enables them to avail of. There are mines upon the providence of God. But in the owned now in the interior of Pennsylvania general and in the long run I see no good

"I think thus the rather beecause I seem to see an appproaching catastrophe of all the hations. The world has grown old in transgression. From East to West the been tried in vain. We are the westerncursey is also of much importance, and an | Anglo-Saxon, republican wisdom has failinvariable mark of good training in a man ed, instead of calling on God for help we -accuracy in observation, accuracy in are calling upon the negro. We look to a stand, in the McConnel house, where I will be speech, accuracy in the transaction of af- brutified, shittless and licentious people to well done; for it is better to accomplish | which has been impossible to ourselves, perfectly a small amount of work than to and which I now believe is impossible on

The demonstration seems now almost little attention, however, is paid to this complete that man can neither govern nor highly important quality of accuracy. As be governed, nor govern himself, and that a man eminent in practical science lately the last failure will somehow prove the observed, " It is astonishing how few pear greatest of all. The volcanic throes of ple I have met in the course of my experi- the nations to overturn arbitrary power will be ultimately successful. Then "liberty, equality, fraternity," will have its short day; and when its Babel seem to be State of North Carolina, completed the dream of earth will vanish.

> Here all such prophecying is vain. I find myself almost alone. I sometimes ering and perishing negroes, than among the philanthropists who have given them a boon which they know not how to use, and which these boasters never would have to repose, and prate, and lament?

No Doubt About It.-Prentice of The Louisville Journal, tenders his advice to the public as follows: "Never buy goods of those who don't advertise. They have so little to sell that they have to sell James Nations, vs. P. F. Hopper and John P.

There are seven clergymen in the Vermont Legislature.- [Ex.

Well, what of it? there are seven more in the Illinois penitentiary-or ought to be. - Boston I ost.

Torth Carelina, ROCKINGHAM COUNTY. Court of Equity, Fall Term, 1866. John Barns and others, vs. Robt. Martin and

PETITION TO SELL LAND. In this case it appearing to the satisfaction of the court, that the defendants Elizabeth Allen, Walter Allen, Leak Allen and Andrew Allen are not inhabitants of this State; It i therefore ordered that publication be mad den for the county of Rockingham at the court house in Wentworth on the 5th Monday after exparte as to them.

Witness, Robt. B. Watt, Clerk and Master to greatness, and that of Forney, faded at the Court of Equity for Rockingham county Harrisburg, and now his pet scheme of an at office 5th Monday after the 4th Monday in Nathaniel Scales,

janll DR. J. W. HOWLETT, SURGEON DENTIST

SURGEON DENTIST,

Is prepared to perform any operation pertain tific plan. He has on hand a beautiful lot of Vulcanite or Hard Rubber, and the last improved feeth for Vulcanite, and is fully competent to execute work in any style that the late improvements in the science have suggested. For the benefit of those Dentists who visit this place, and as I learn have asserted that I have no patent for the use of the rubber process, I will simply state that I was the first Dentist in North Carolina who secured the plead, answer or demur to the said several girl attempted to extinguish a kerosene lamp by blowing it out after having that lamp by blowing it out after having turn- made for them over seven years ago, and I to the court of Equity for Rockingham county have never yet charged over $30 per sett for at office the 5th Monday after 4th Monday in them. They were then used as temporary teeth, September, 1866. but owing to a late revolution in the science have suddenly become highly recommended for permanent use. I make them as many can testify; and I assure my old friends and the public generally that I am thoroughly acquainted with all the late improvements in the sei-

DENTAL SURGERY.

W. O. JONES, D. D. S. services as DENTIST to the citizens and pubie generally. He is a regular graduate of the Philadelphia Dental College, with a practice of five years, and flatters himself that he is prepared to perform dental operations in the inary.-Will open January 21, 1867, with four teachers at each School. EXPENSES PER SESSION OF TWENTY WEEKS Entrance Fee..... Board paid by the month is... 10 00

Rev. G. W. HEGE, A. M. Pres. Yadkin College, N. C. PORTER & ECKEL.

Payment in advance

REMOVED! 田田

MO EM

REMOVED

"18 years established in N. Y. City."
"Only infallible remedies known." "Free from Poisons." "Not dangerous to the Human Family."

Costar's" Rat, Roach, &c Exter minator

Is a paste—used for Rats, Mice, Roaches, Black and Red Ants, &c., &c. Costar's" Bed-Bug Exterm nator

Is a liquid or wash-used to destroy, and also as a preventive for Bed-Bugs, &c. Costar's" Electric Powder for Insects

BEWARE!!! of all worthless imita See that "Costan's" name is on each Box, Bottle, and Flask, before you buy. Address.

HENRY R. COSTAR, Sold in Greensboro, N. C.

And all Druggists and Retailers everywhere

I have removed to one door below my old

* | pleased to see my friends and sustomers.

Hildesheimer.

apleted the dream of earth will vanish. Court of Equity. Henry W. Weeden and others.

ORIGINAL BILL. imagine that I could do more among your people, and even among the outcast, suff Winslow two of the defendants in the above named case reside beyond the limits of this State: It is therefore ordered that publication e made for six successive weeks in The Greensboro Patriot, notifying said defendants of the filing of this bill and that unless they appear given them but to make them subvervient at the next court of Equity to be held for said to their fanatical enterprises or their lust day of March, 1867, and plead, answer or deof power. But my day is past. What mur to the same judgment pro confesso will be can one at three-score and fifteen do but rendered, and the case set down for hearing exparte as to them. Witness, Ralph Gorrell, clerk and Master in Equity for said county, this 4th day of January 1867, RALPH GORRELL, C. M. E. 27-6w ad88

Vorth Carolina, SURRY COUNTY. In Equity, to Spring Term, 1867.

Grogan. ORIGINAL BILL.

In this case it appearing from the affidavit of complainant that P. F. Hopper, one of the defendants, resides beyond the jurisdiction of this court : It is therefore considered that publication be made in The Greensboro Patriot, a newspaper published in Greenshoro, N. C., for six successive weeks notifying the said P. F. Hopper to be and appear before the judge of our next court of Equity to be held for the ounty of Surry at the court house in Dobson n the 2nd Monday after the last Monday in February next, then and there full, true and serfect answer make to the bill of complaint so iled against him or the same will be taken as ero confesso and heard accordingly.

said court at office January 11th, 1867. JOB WORTH, C. M. E. 28-6w ad$5 Tor La Carolina, ROCKINGHAM COUNTY. Court of Equity, Fall Term, 1866. Hamilton Scales.

ORIGINAL BILL. Wm. Dalton and others. Henderson Joyce, ORIGINAL BILL. Wm. Dalton and others. ORIGINAL BILL.

Wm. Dalton and others. ORIGINAL BILL.

Wm. Dalton and others. Waiter R. Smith,

Wm. Dalton and others. In the above cases, it appearing to the satisfaction of the court, that the defendants Nancy ing to Dentistry upon the latest and most scien- Hylton, George W. Hylton, Thomas J. King and Gabrill Hylton, Administrator of A. J Hylton are not inhabitants of this State; It is therefore ordered that publication be made for six weeks in The Greensboro Patriot requiring them and each of them to be and appear at the next term of this court to be holden for the county of Rockingham at the court house in Wentworth on the 5th Monday after the 4th Monday in March next, then and there to bills, or the same will be taken pro confesso

> R. B. WATT, C. M. E. Verth Carolina, ROCKINGHAM COUNTY.

Court of Equity, Fall Term, 1866. James C. Smith and Joseph H. Smith, John W. May and Henry Barnes,

ORIGINAL BILL. In this case it appearing to the satisfaction of the court, that the defendant John W. May is not an inhabitant of this State; It is therefore ordered that publication be made for six weeks in The Greensboro Patriot for said defendant requiring him to be and appear at the next term of this court to be holden for the county of Rockingham at the court house in Wentworth on the 5th Monday after the 4th Monday in March next then and there to plead, answer or demur to the said bill or the same will be Vadkin College, and B. F. Sem- taken pro confesso, and heard exparte as to

Witness, Robt, B. Watt, Clerk and Masterto the Court of Equity for Rockingham county at office 5th Monday after the 4th Monday in September, 1866. R. B. WATT, C. M. E. 28-6w ad$8 jan11

Burr Mill Stones and Bolting Cloths. -I am prepared to farnish to order Burr Mill Stones of any size required, and Bolting Cloths of all numbers, both of the R. G. LINDSAY.

"Rats come out of their holes to die."

Is for Moths, Mosquitoes, Fleas, Bed-Bugs, Insects on Plants, Fowls, Animals, &cc.

484 Broadway, N. Y.

'COSTAR'S" CELEBRATED

BUCKTHORN SALVE, For Cats, Barns, Bruises, Wounds, Boils, Cancers, Broken Breasts, Sore Nipples, Bleeding, on hand cheap for cash, Salt, Corn, Flour, Blind and Painful Piles; Scrowulous, Patrid Mest, Becon, Lard, Sugars,—assorted, Coffee. and Ill-conditioned Sores; Ulcers, Glandular Swellings, Eruptions, Cutaneous Affections, Ringworm, Itch, Corns, Bunions, Chilblains, Ac; Chapped Hands, Lips, &c.; Bites of Spi-ders, Insects, Animals, &c., &c. Boxes, $5 etc., 50 etc., and $1 Sizes,

Sold by all Druggists everywhere. And by HENRY R. COSTAR, Depot 484 And by

> "COSTAR'S" UNIVERSAL

OORN SOLVENT, For Corns, Bunions, Warts, &c. Boxes, 25 ots., 50 cts., and $1 sizes. Sold by all Druggists everywhere. And by HENRY R. COSTAR, Depot 48 Greensboro, N. C. And by

> "COSTAR'S" PREPARATION OF

Witness, Job Worth, Clerk and Masteroff Bitter-Sweet & Orange Blossoms FOR BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION. Used to Soften and Beautify the Skin, move Freckles, Pimples, Eruptions, &cu Ladies are now using it in preference to all

> Bottles, $1. Bold by all Druggists everywhere. And by HENRY R. COSTAR, Depot 484 Broadway, N. Y. Greensboro, N. C.

> > "COSTAR'S"

COUGH REMEDY, For Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Consumption, Bronchial Affections, and all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs. Bottles, 25 ets., 50 ets and $1 sizes. Sold by all Druggists everywhere. And by HENRY R. COSTAR, Depot 484 Broadway, N. Y. Greensbore, N. C.

"COSTAR'S"

CELEBRATED BISHOP PILLS, A UNIVERSAL DINNER PILL, For Nervous and Sick Headache, Costiveness,

Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Billousness, Constipation, Diarrhea, Colics, Chills, Fevers, and general derangements of the Digestive Organs. Boxes, 25 cts., 50 cts., and $1 sizes. Sold by all Druggists everywhere,

And by HENRY R. COSTAR, Depot 484 Broadway, N. Y. Greensboro, N. C. And by-

in striction flow through, Medicines, Unions, Other and Westerne

RICHMOND, Va, PAPER AND BAG WARE-HOUSE. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL. ROBINSON & FAIRBANKS, DEALERS IN TWINES, PAPERS OF ALL KINDS, BLANK BOOKS AND STATIONERY HIGHEST PRICES

THOS. J. SLOAN!

JAMES SLOAN & SONS.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

GROCERS,

AND

General Commission Merchants,

Greensboro, N. C.

MAIN STREET,

R. M SLOAN, JR.

17-6m

JAMES SLOAN.

oct26

PAID FOR RAGS AND PAPER STOCK. Agents of Paper Mills. Orders solicited from Merchants in city and country. Printers, Publishers, Teachers Colleges,

Schools, Officers and Courts will find it to their advantage to inspect our Stock and prices. 914. 914. COUNTRY MERCHANTS will find it to their INTEREST TO SHIP THEIR RAGS DI-RECT TO US.

Cash remitted at once, and the HIGHEST PRICE pald for Rags and Paper Stock. ROBINSON & FAIRBANKS. Paper and Rag Warehouse, 914 Main Street, Richmond. Dortrait Painting,

D. L. CLARK PORTRAIT PAINTER

PHOTOGRAPHIST. HIGH POINT, N. C. Portraits painted in the highest style of the art. Photographe, &c., of all styles and sizes, of the most perfect finish.

S. NORTHROP, W. H. NORTHBOP, W. A. CUMMING NORTHROP & CUMMING,

Commission Merchants AND PROPRIETORS OF THE

Corner Princess and Water Streets, WILMINGTON, N. C. S:rict personal attention given to the sale of all country Produce. Orders for Gunano, &c., so-

Wilmington Steam Saw and Plaining Mals

Groceries, Groceries! The subscriber keeps constantly Oils, Dye-Stuffs, Pepper, Ginger. &c. C. G. YATES

Keep Dry and Warm! ne best way to manage Doc Lors' bilis, (which, it seems, like the bill of of the musquito) must needs be presented occasionally, is to take the each. call at Yntes' and treat yourselves and families to a good suit of WARM CLOTHING, Shawls, Boots, Shoes, &c.

CALL AND SEE! adies' and Misses', Gent's and Boy's

DRESS GOODS. Nubias Sontage, Roods, Shawle Clothing, Hets, Boots and Shoes, for all, a dingreat variety, are offered cheap for cash, by C. G. VATES.

Indispensable Metalic Articles.

The subscriber continues to manufactore Tin, Sheet Iron and Copper ware, and will endeavor to keep a good stock of different gr des of TIN WARE ready for sale, so as to supply as good an article as possible, and also a light article to sell as low, or lower, than any Northern article br ught here can be

He also offers Corn Shellers, Straw Cutters, Plows, Iron, Strel, Castings, Powler, shot, Lead, Jun Caps, Flints, Scales, Steelyards, Nails, Axes, Locks, Hinges and Soners, assorted, and many other articles in the hardware line C. G. YATES

Dioneer Foundry and Machine Shops, Greensboro, N. C .- The undersigned respectfully announces to the public that he is sole proprietor of the above establish ment, and having refitted and furnished the same with new and improved machinery, he is prepared to do in the best manner all kinds of casting and Machine work. Such as manufacturing and repairing Tureshing Machines, Horse Powers, Straw Cutters, Corn Shellers, Mill Gearing, Plows and Piow Castings, Overs, Skillets, Lide, and all kinds of casting.

Blacksmithing and Wood work promptly done. Work taken from the depot in Greensboro, and delivered to the railroad agent tree of drayage.

All kinds of marketable produce taken in exchange for work. J. H. TARPLEY. House and Lot in Greensboro for Sale. - My house and lot in Greensboro near the centre of the town, is for sale. The house has six rooms, a good garden and all ned essary out buildings. There is also on the loa brick office. I would also respectfully and earnestly request all persons indebted to me to sall and settle; I may be found at the Drug Store of Caldwell & Glenn A. C. CALDWELL.

New Goods! New Goods!! good assortment of almost A every thing usually kept in a retail Store may be found at the Store of C. G. Yates, and can be bought CHEAP FOR CASH, or GOOD BARTER, for which I will pay the best market prices. Call at corner Store on South Elm Street near the Bank.

D. F. Caldwell, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Has removed his office to the first room on the left hand of the second floor, of the Tate corne

NEW GOODS!

The undersigned would respectfully inform the public that, he has just opened on East Market Street, mear the Man-lon House, a new and legant stock of GOODS embracing Dry Goods, Broad Cloths, Cassimeres, Cassinetts, Beaver Cloth and every article in the line of

Gents' Furnishing Goods Alpaceas Worsted, Delaines, Prints. Ginghams, Flannels, &c . with acomplete line of Ladies' Dress Goods. Readymade Clothing. Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes.

Ladies' Straw Goods and NOTIONS in endless variety. GROCERIES of the very best quality, including the best Coffee, Sugar, Spices, Cheese &c My stock of HARDWARE is heavy and embraces amongst a general assortment, a complete stock of Cabinet maker's materials. I most respectfully solicit a call, assuring my friends and the public test I am preper ed to offer inducements equal to suy boose in taken in exchange for Goods. Breadstuffs and Family Supplies always on W. D. TROTTER hand for sale. For Sale.—The lot and frame row of offi-ces situated in the rear of the Farmers town. Give me a call Every variety of Barter

Bank, and Porter & Eckel's Drug Store, Terms reasonable. Apply to 29-5w BRENIZER, KELLOGG & CC.