PATRIOT.

GREENSBORO, N. C. FRIDAY, MARCH 29, 1867.

EDITED BY—Gov. Worth has pardoned Bob Davis, felon, convicted of burglary at the Fall term of Guilford Superior court and sentenced to be hanged.

DR. MARSH'S L. WOOD.—We learn from The Christian Advocate that Rev. Marquis L. Wood after a voyage of more than one hundred days from Shanghai, arrived in New York on the 20th instant.

THE SENSITIVE ORDER.—The order of Gen. Sherman's sensitive command of the Military Department of North Carolina and South Carolina, and known as District No. 2, is being read in another column.

RECOVERATIVE POWER.—There is much in the following extract from Lord Macaulay's history of England, to encourage our people amid their present troubles.

THE CRISIS.—Mike Lipman's Circus is coming and will perform in Greensboro, Wednesday, April 3d.

FINE PICTURES.—We have received from the publishers Messrs. Haas & Lubrecht, 108 Liberty Street, New York, life size engravings of George Washington, Jefferson Davis, Gen. R. E. Lee, Stonewall Jackson, President John S. Galt, Grant and Abraham Lincoln.

binding—who never declared Andrew Johnson, the Reverend William G. Brownlow and the Hon. Edward Everett three of the most elegant devils out of perdition—who never demanded that Union men be drilled in the Confederate camps of instruction till their legs should become limber—who as a "Union landmark" never proclaimed, as the sixth sign "unqualified opposition to what is called negro suffrage"—who never indignantly called to publish the laws of the United States on the attainment of power by Abraham Lincoln because he was elected by the Republican party,—to the exclusion of men, we say, whose "loyalty" consists in direct opposition to that above sketched.

privileges which are being conferred upon them, they should educate themselves and their children. It is the duty and the interest of the white men to help the colored men in their educational and moral training. If we were actuated by interest alone, we should rather contribute to their attempt to retard their advancement.

Gen. Sherman's Sensitive Order. HEADQUARTERS, 2ND MILITARY DISTRICT, (North Carolina and S. Carolina.) Columbia, S. C., March 21, 1867. GENERAL ORDERS, No. 1.

I. In compliance with General Orders No. 10, Headquarters of the Army, March 11th, 1867, the undersigned hereby assumes command of the Second Military District constituted by the Act of Congress, Public No. 58, 2nd March 1867, entitled "An act for the more efficient government of the rebel States."

II. In the execution of the duty of the Commanding General to maintain the security of the inhabitants in their persons and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to be punished or caused to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, the local civil tribunals will be permitted to take jurisdiction of and try offenders, excepting only such cases as may be by the order of the Commanding General be referred to a commissioner or other military tribunal for trial.

III. The civil government now existing in North Carolina and South Carolina is provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States, at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same. Local laws and municipal regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the United States, or the proclamations of the President, or with such regulations as are or may be prescribed in the orders of the Commanding General, are hereby declared to be in force; and, in conformity therewith, civil officers are hereby authorized to continue the exercise of their proper functions, and will be respected and obeyed by the inhabitants.

IV. Whenever any civil officer, Magistrate, or Court neglects or refuses to perform an official duty properly required of said tribunal or officer, whereby due and rightful security to person or property shall be denied, the case will be reported by the Post Commander to these headquarters. Arrests by military authority will be reported promptly. The charges preferred will be accompanied by the evidence on which they are founded.

V. The Commanding General desiring to preserve tranquility and order by means and agencies most congenial to the people, solicits the zealous and cordial cooperation of civil officers in the discharge of their duties, and the aid of all good citizens in preventing conduct tending to disturb the peace; and to the end that occasion may seldom arise for the exercise of military authority in matters of ordinary civil administration, the Commanding General respectfully and earnestly commands to the people of North and South Carolina unreserved obedience to the authority now established, and the diligent, considerate and impartial execution of the laws enacted for their government.

VI. The following named officers are announced as the staff of the Major General Commanding: Capt. J. W. CLOUS, 38th U. S. Infantry, Aid-de-Camp. Bvt. Major J. R. MYRIK, 31st U. S. Infantry, Aid-de-Camp and Act. Judge Advocate. Major James P. ROY, 6th U. S. Inf. Act. Asst. Inspect. Gen. Bvt. Major General R. O. TYLER, Deputy Quartermaster Gen. U. S. A., Chief Quartermaster. Bvt. Brig. General W. W. BARNES, Maj. and C. S., U. S. A. Chief Commissary of Subsistence. Bvt. Lieut. Col. CHAS. PAGE, Surg. U. S. A. Med. Director. D. E. SICKLES, (Official) Maj. Gen. Commanding. J. W. CLOUS, Aid-de-Camp.

A Mournful Tragedy.

Some years ago the fashionable world of Gotham was startled from its proclivities at the announcement in gossiping circles, and shortly afterwards in the sensational papers, that Minnie Boker, the youthful daughter of Mr. Boker, a millionaire, had in an evil hour, become enamored of her father's coachman, and consented to a secret marriage. The foolish attachment became known to the father when too late to remedy, and he subsequently disowned the foolish and erring child.

The number of delegates we have not learned, but judge the number was large, both white and colored. The colored people thronged the lobbies, galleries and doors. The delegates were seated, the whites mainly on the right and the colored on the left, though somewhat mixed.

We learn that Mr. Dockery was conducted to the Chair by Mr. Jas. H. Harris, colored, and Mr. R. P. Bick, white. We are glad to say that the meeting treated the colored delegates with distinguished attention throughout.

We have time only before going to press, to give a brief sketch of the proceedings on yesterday in the Commons Hall, in this City, of the reconstruction meeting. The reconstruction meeting, called by the loyal members of the Legislature of this State, was organized, on motion of Col. C. L. Harris, by calling Gen. Alfred Dockery, of Richmond, to the Chair, and on motion of W. W. Holden, appointing as Secretaries Dr. H. J. Menninger, of Craven, (white), and Mr. John S. Leary, of Cumberland, (colored).

After an appropriate and patriotic address by Gen. Dockery, the committee on organization reported the following as permanent officers: Hon. A. H. Jones, of Henderson County, President. Col. David Heaton, of Craven, and Dr. O. P. Hadley, of Richmond, (white), and James H. Harris, of Wake, and J. R. Goode, of Craven, (colored), Vice Presidents.

Mr. Jones was conducted to the Chair by Dr. William Sloan, of Gaston, (white), and Jas. H. Harris, of Wake, (colored). He then returned his thanks for the honor, and spoke at some length in an eloquent strain on the condition of the country, and the importance of the deliberations of the body over which he had been called to preside.

Considerable discussion ensued on various motions, in which a number of members took part; after which the President announced the following as the committee on resolutions, to report to the meeting to-day: Messrs. Thomas Settle, B. S. Hedrick, David M. Carter, Robt. P. Dick, Dr. Eugene Grissom, C. L. Harris, Alfred Dockery, C. R. Thomas, Joseph W. Holden, and John B. Odum, (white), and Messrs. James Bowman, J. S. Leary, J. W. Hood, G. W. Brodie, W. Cawthron, E. Miller, J. R. Caswell, Handy B. Lockitt, W. R. Smith, and H. Unthank, (colored).

A good joke is told on one of our elevators-keepers, which is too full of genuine humor, "under pressing circumstances," to be lost. A short time ago a representative of the Green Isle stepped into the saloon of the person above alluded to, and with a countenance full of inquiry, said: "An' have you got any good rye whiskey?" "Yes, very good; the best in town," said the saloon man.

THE HONORABLE YANKEE NAME.

In every age and in every clime it has been regarded as ineffable unfitness for a benefactor to twit others with their obligations, especially when they have fallen into misfortune. The Boston Transcript has called upon its readers to contribute to the relief of the colored people in the South.

STURCK OIL.—The Alexandria Journal of Saturday afternoon says that Friday morning about 9 o'clock, Dr. Gregory, who has continued persistently boring for oil on Captain John Powell's farm, in Fairfax county, struck oil in earnest at the depth of 116 feet; about one third of which distance has been bored through coal formation, and two thirds through sandstone.

A "CULLED" WITNESS.—The Baton Rouge Advocate gives the following extract from the testimony of a witness examination about the participation of one Sam Bowman in a late robbery.

"O, yes, I bought ice cream from him often." "What is his name?" "That is none of my business; go; somethin' else to do 'sides follerin' people 'bout to find out 'lar names." "How do you know that he is the same man?" "Don't I tell you, boss, Ise bought ice cream from him, lots of time. Ob course he's de man. Don't I recollect his paint-wagon and his sassars, and the way he hollered ice cream. Ob course he's the same man."

General Spinner receives numerous letters from the South enquiring when short currency will cease to be valuable. He fears that people are imposed upon, and gives assurance that all issues of fractional currency will be redeemed.
