Parent-Teacher Association

The Parent-Teacher Association held one of its most interesting meetings yesterday afternoon at 3:30 in the Rest Room, with an attendance of approximately 125. Mrs. John H. Anderson, in introducing the speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Clarence Johnson of Raleigh, commissioner of public welfare, told of the wonderful work she had accomplished throughout the state. Mrs. Anderson also gave a brief review of the accomplishments of the Parent-Teacher Association, the delightful dinner given by the hot lunch committee of the association in honor of Fayetteville's Wonder Eleven, of the interest and co-operation of the association in making Educational Week a success, and spoke of the Oronoke Island Lost Colony film that is to be shown here at the lecture show under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association.

The president announced the Fayetteville High School has been it on the accredited list.

Mrs. Johnson charmed her audience and they listened with rapt attention to her talk on "Child Welfare." Mrs. Johnson gave three important things for the child—a healthy childhood, a happy childhood and a religious childhood, emphasizing on each of these three titles, she told the audience that the responsibility for the faults of the young people of today did not belong to the young people themselves, but was the responsibility of the older people. Mrs. Johnson made a plea for a detention home for children in this county, as welfare work is carried on well in this city, except for the fact that we have no detention home and it is much needed, she said.

Eighteen little girls and one little boy of Miss Kate Matthews' made a delightful little entertainment in the singing choruses, they were dressed in pilgrim costumes and delighted those present.

In Honor of Miss Hardison

Miss Harriet Hardison was the guest of a lovely luncheon given by Miss Margaret Hulse at her home on Haymount, Wednesday, one o'clock. Potted plants and Mrs. were effectively arranged, the color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the dining room, a silver basket filled with pink and white snapdragons forming the centerpiece. Place cards were attractive miniature pictures. A delicious seven course luncheon was served, the salad and a course being of heart shape design.

Those enjoying Miss Hulse's hospitality besides the honor guest, Miss Harriet Hardison, were Misses Hester, Sallie Haigh Underwood, Lucie Cooper, Frances Green, Kathleen Reynolds, Laura Kyle Underwood, Mesdames Robert O. Burns, Thomas Wooten, Edwin V. Kerr and Balmer, the two latter of Camp Bragg.

Miss Williams Recovering

The following from Wednesday's Wilmington paper will be read with interest:

"Her many friends will be delighted to know that Miss Pan Williams of Fayetteville, has entirely recovered after an operation for the removal of her tonsils at the Walker Memorial Hospital and is a beautiful Christmas gift for each little guest. Cream and cake was served."

A CHRISTMAS PRESENT

The Entire Family Can Enjoy

—not only Christmas night but every night in the year; for what gives greater pleasure in the home than good light and artistic lighting equipment?

Isn't it worth while to give your family something useful? They probably spend more time in the living room and dining room than any other two rooms of your home. Here they have their pleasures and entertain their friends.

Certainly, then, these rooms should be attractive and comfortable. No other furnishing will give them the pleasure or add more to the attractiveness of the room than an artistic chandelier.

Our display rooms contain many attractive chandeliers and numerous electrical appliances which make both useful and beautiful presents. We shall be happy to show them to you.

Open Every Night Until Christmas.

Our store will be warm and comfortable to visit any evening after supper.

When Christmas Comes

The hard of the world seems hard. The heart of the world seems cold. Of selfish schemes seem all its dreams. And its only goal seems gold. Yet whenever Christmas comes, The world the mask removes. From the tender part of its kind, true heart. And we learn how much it loves. We see its a good old world Which only plays a game; Though it loves the race and it keeps the pace. It is tender all the same. Though it struggles hard to win. The dream in its heart is sweet; And on Christmas Day it is glad to lay. The prize at its Saviour's feet. —Lee Shippey.

The following invitation will be read with interest by friends in Fayetteville:

"Mr. and Mrs. John Victor Grainger request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Fannie to Mr. Walker Taylor, Junior on Wednesday the fourth of January, at one o'clock St. James' Church Wilmington, North Carolina."

UNIVERSITY OF CHATTANOOGA INVITES COLLEGES JOIN THEM

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Dec. 15.—The University of Chattanooga, in quitting the S. I. S. A., because of the adoption of the anti-freshman rule at the Birmingham meeting last week, decided to invite schools which find themselves in similar status to join a new organization. It was also decided to offer to play members of the new S. I. C., as well as those remaining the old S. I. S. A., under full rules as adopted at Birmingham, except as to the playing of freshmen. Sufficient assurances have been given of games, it was understood, and university leaders are confident that less than seven or eight schools will follow the local school out of the S. I. S. A.

DUNN SELLS OUT ITS LIGHT PLANT THROUGH ELECTION

Without Dissenting Vote, the Recent Contract Is Ratified by the Voters

(Special to The Observer) DUNN, Dec. 15.—Without a dissenting vote the citizens of Dunn yesterday ratified the contract through which the town's municipally owned electric system will pass into the hands of the Carolina Power and Light Company for the sum of $45,000, which is $5,000 more than the total amount of bonds issued twenty years ago to build the electric and water systems of the town. The company agrees in its contract to bring its lines to Dunn and assume control of the system within ninety days.

The largest vote ever recorded in Dunn was cast for the ratification. Out of a total registration of 649 there were 578 votes cast for the sale of the plant. Practically every woman qualified voter participated in the election. The Woman's Club played a big part in the election. Sixteen of its members divided the town into sixteen districts and went to work. They did not stop until every woman who could be induced to vote had cast her ballot.

The election ends a fight waged for more than two years to improve the electric service of Dunn through inducing one of the larger public service corporations to take over the plant. Fortunately, however, a proposal made by the Cumberland Power and Light Company, now defunct, was not accepted.

The Carolina Company will extend its lines from Benson to Dunn completing the first link of a great trunk line that is, it is stated, to extend deep into South Carolina.

"3 WISE FOOLS" IS COMING HERE

Big Attraction Coming to LaFayette December 29; Others May Come Also

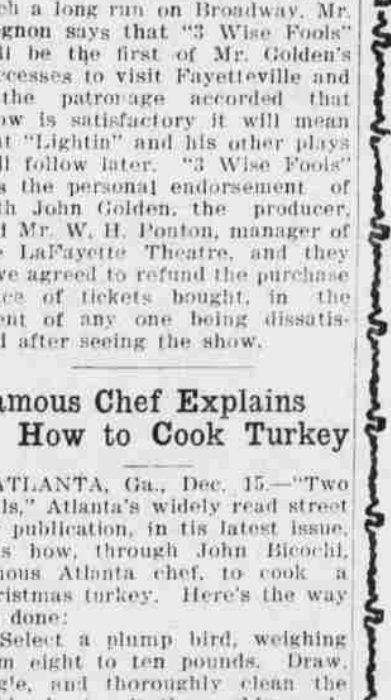

George H. Dennon, representing "3 Wise Fools," which is booked for an engagement at the LaFayette Theatre on Thursday night, Dec. 29, was a caller at the Observer office today. He was very enthusiastic about his play, which is being sent to Fayetteville by John Golden, who is also the producer of the play "Lightin'," which made such a long run on Broadway. Mr. Dennon says that "3 Wise Fools" will be the first of Mr. Golden's successes to visit Fayetteville and if the patronage accorded that show is satisfactory it will mean that "Lightin'" and his other plays will follow later. "3 Wise Fools" has the personal endorsement of both John Golden, the producer, and Mr. W. H. Pouton, manager of the LaFayette Theatre, and they have agreed to refund the purchase price of tickets bought, in the event of any one being dissatisfied after seeing the show.

Famous Chef Explains How to Cook Turkey

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 15.—"Two Bells," Atlanta's widely read street car publication, in its latest issue, tells how, through John Bicchil, famous Atlanta chef, to cook a Christmas turkey. Here's the way it's done:

"Select a plump bird, weighing from eight to ten pounds. Draw, single, and thoroughly clean the inside, having it thoroughly washed, then dried. Stuff with a mixture of white bread, soaked and squeezed dry, seasoned with herbs, melted butter, yolk of eggs, chestnuts and two chopped onions. Truss the bird with the legs well in body. Season with pepper and salt. Place the bird breast down in open baking dish and add sufficient water to make the gravy. Place several slips of bacon on

Extreme Sleeve

You've seen them coming, gradually, taking on a little more fullness and a little more fullness until in this Poiret model we have with us a sleeve of some proportions. It comes, of course, with the other fancies we are borrowing from European patterns.

Buys Leather Business

Mrs. Norman de R. Whitehouse, New York society woman and suffragist, has bought the controlling interest in a leather products company in New York. Friends expected she would make artistic things. She answered, "My interest is centered on usefulness and upon the problems of making and distributing."

Freight Steamer Hits Rocks Today

CHATHAM, Mass., Dec. 15.—The freight steamer Schodack, bound from Boston to New York after finishing a voyage from Pacific ports, struck on Storm Horse shoal in a snow squall early today.

She was apparently hard aground when sighted by the Montomoy Point coast guards who went out to her. Seas were rough. There were about thirty men aboard.

NEGRO FARMERS AROUND DUNN TO BATTLE WEEVIL

Dunn District Negro Farmers Will Soon Begin Active Fight Against Boll Weevil

(Special to The Observer) DUNN, Dec. 15.—That great and often neglected army of negro farmers who constitute a large part of the tenantry and no small part of the land owners of the Dunn district are soon to begin active preparation for the reception of the boll weevil when he makes his appearance in their fields. Under the leadership of James W. Vines, principal of the Harnett County Training School here, a graduate of Tuskegee Institute and a disciple of Booker T. Washington, they will start their training here next month when Professor Vines inaugurates a ten-day course in diversified farming methods.

Professor Vines is a native of Alabama and has first hand knowledge of boll weevil methods. Since he came here last summer he has been preaching to his followers in an effort to arouse them to action against the pest. Through the fine work he has done in the negro community he has won the respect, admiration and confidence of his people and of those white people who are interested in negro progress.

With two weeks notice before last fall's session of the Harnett County Fair he was instrumental in staging here a negro department that won the commendation of all visitors. Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt, who spoke here during the fair, was especially impressed by the negro exhibits.

The Dunn district is watching Professor Vines' activities with much interest and many white planters are going to him for advice concerning diversified farming.

French Deputies Approve Budget

PARIS, Dec. 15.—(By Associated Press.)—After a session lasting two hours, the Chamber of Deputies at 7:45 this morning voted approval of the new budget providing for the expenditure of 25,000,000,000 francs and receipts of 24,827,000,000 francs. The government originally demanded 24,932,000,000 francs in receipts and the finance committee had proposed 24,953,000,000 francs.

DRASTIC ACTION MAY FOLLOW LAST HAZING EPISODE

Hoodlums Lie in Wait

"Ralph Patterson, age 17, of Fayetteville, has roomed since entering college with W. L. Ray, station agent here for a dozen years, the house being off the campus. Since the night of November 8th, when he was attacked as he started home, Patterson says he has not been out of his room at night after supper. He boards at the Hodnett house on the campus.

"With William Powell, another freshman, Patterson had started to breakfast. As he passed the gymnasium, five masked men ran out of the door. Two of them had red handkerchiefs tied over their faces and wore old clothes, while the other three had donned pillow cases and bed sheets for a disguise. Within the gymnasium were three others also masked in pillow slips. "Patterson attempted to run, but was captured and carried into the gymnasium, tied down to a bench, and his hair then cut. The solution of his hair then cut. The solution of who interested in negro progress, nitrate of silver poured on his head ran down his face, but fortunately none got into his eyes or otherwise. He might have been blind tonight.

"For those who have never had that won the commendation of all hazing methods it may be amiss to say that nitrate of silver in a weak condition is not harmful, but when of the thickness used this morning, it turns the skin black and the skin peels off. Patterson will carry the marks of his branding for several months."

SOUTHERN PINE MEN HOLD SPECIAL MEET

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 15.—Reduction of Railroad freight rates on southern pine, measures to meet the expected demand for lumber next spring and proposed national and state forestry legislation were under discussion at a special meeting here today of Southern Yellow Pine Manufacturers, called by the Southern Pine Association.
