A CONVENTION OF FARMERS PROPOSED. An inter-State convention is called for in Georgia. The States to be invited are North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Mississippi, Alabama, and Tennessee, of course Georgia being also included as it will be the inviting. The object is to discuss the agricultural interests of these States and to try to arrive at some plan by which agriculture may be improved and made more profitable and certain in its results. The movement originates with the Commissioner of Agriculture of Georgia. The place thought of is Atlanta and the time the coming summer. Such a meeting is necessary and might be made a means of great benefit.

OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES. It is evident that the President has not adhered strictly to Democratic principles, and Gov. Vance is one of those men who will say so without fear. He is not with some back-bone and the people of North Carolina know this to be a fact, and some say only that Vance is a cowardly man. The people of the old North State are capable of estimating true worth, and in him they find it. - Washington Gazette.

A NON-COMMITTAL MAN. We have just seen a non-committal man, who was never known to give an unqualified assent to any proposition, however important. An illustration of his character, we will give an instance. In a conversation with him he is designated for the sake of convenience, by the name of White. "A beautiful morning, Mr. White," we remarked on one occasion. "Yes," said he, doubtfully, "but I shouldn't wonder if it rained before night."

THE YOUNG FATHER. "You're holding her upside down," "Well, it doesn't make any difference yet, does it?" "I never saw a man so ignorant." "How do you hold her any way?" "Then the nurse showed him." "I wonder what a father does in the circumstances?" "He ought to talk to the little thing."

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. The best salve for the world for Cuts, Bruises, Swellings, Burns, Scalds, Frost-bites, Corns, Chapped Hands, Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, no matter how long standing. Price 25 cents a box.
