

Never too Late to Learn
Socrates, at an extremely advanced age learned to play on musical instruments.

Cato, at eighty years of age learned to speak the Greek language.

Plutarch, when between seventy and eighty commenced the study of Latin.

Boecio was thirty-five years of age when he commenced his studies in light literature, yet he became one of the greatest masters of the Italian, dialect, Dante and Petrarca being the other two.

Sir Henry Hallam neglected the sciences in his youth, but commenced the study of them between fifty and sixty years of age. After this he became a learned antiquarian and lawyer.

Doctor Johnson applied himself to the Dutch language but a few years before his death.

Ludovico Moenaldeseo, at the great age of 115, wrote the memoirs of his own times.

Ogilby, the translator of Homer and Virgil was unacquainted with the Latin and Greek until he was past fifty.

Franklin did not fully commence his philosophical pursuits until he had reached his fiftieth year.

Dryden, in his sixty-eight years commenced the translation of the Iliad, his most pleasing production.

What is this Disease that is Coming Upon Us?

Like a thief at night it steals upon us unawares. The patients have pains about the chest and sides, and sometimes in the back. They feel dull and sleepy; the mouth has a bad taste, especially in the morning. A sort of sticky slime collects about the teeth. The appetite is poor. There is a feeling like a heavy load on the stomach; sometimes a faint, all gone sensation at the pit of the stomach which food does not satisfy. The eyes are, shrunken, the hands and feet become cold and clammy. After a while a rough sets in, at first dry, but after a few months it is attended with a greenish-colored excretion. The patient feels tired all the while, and sleep does not seem to afford any relief. At a time he becomes nervous, irritable and gloomy, and has evil forebodings. There is a giddiness, a sort of whirling sensation in the head when rising up suddenly. The bowels become costive; the skin is dry and hot at times; the blood becomes thick and stagnant; the whites of the eyes become tinged with yellow; the urine is scanty and high colored, depositing a sediment after standing. There is frequently a putting up of the food, sometimes with a sour taste and sometimes with a sweetish odor. One is frequently attended with palpitation of the heart; the vision becomes impaired with spots before the eyes; there is a feeling of great prostration and weakness. All of these symptoms are in turn present. It is thought that nearly one-third of our population has this disease in some of its varied forms.

It has been found that physicians have mistaken the cause of this disease. Some have treated it for a liver complaint, others for kidney disease, etc., but none of these kinds of treatment have been attended with success; for it is really constipation and dyspepsia. It is also found that Shaker Extract of Roots or Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup, when properly prepared will remove this disease in all its stages. Care must be taken, however, to secure the genuine article.

IT WILL SELL BETTER THAN COTTON.
Mr. John C. Hemphill, of Chulafirmee, Cleburn Co., Ala. writes: "My wife has been so much benefited by Shaker Extract of Roots or Seigel's Syrup that she says she would rather be without part of her food than without the medicine. It has done her more good than the doctors and all other medicines put together. I would ride twenty miles to get it into the hands of any sufferer if he can get it in no other way. I believe it will soon sell in this State better than cotton."

TESTIMONY FROM TEXAS.
Mrs. S. E. Barton, of Varner, Ripley Co., Mo., writes that she had been long afflicted with dyspepsia and disease of the stomach organs, and was cured by Shaker Extract of Roots.

Rev. J. J. McGuire, merchant of the same place, who sold Mrs. Barton the medicine, says he has sold it for four years and never knew it to fail.

HE WAS ALMOST DEAD
and was so low, when dyspepsia that there was not a physician to be found who could do anything with me. I had muttering of the heart and swimming of the head. One day I read your pamphlet called "The Shaker's Secret," which described my disease better than I could myself. I tried the Shaker Extract of Roots and kept on with it until to-day I rejoice in good health.

1887. HARPERS YOUNG PEOPLE

An Illustrated Weekly.
Harper's Young People has been called "the model of what a periodical for young people ought to be," and the justice of this commendation is amply sustained by the large circulation it has attained both at home and in Great Britain. This success has been reached by methods that must commend themselves to the judgment of parents, no less than to the taste of children—namely, by an earnest and well sustained effort to provide the best and most instructive reading for young people at a low price.

The illustrations are copious and of a conspicuously high standard of excellence. An epitome of everything that is attractive and desirable in juvenile literature.—Boston Courier.

A weekly feast of good things to the boys and girls of every family which it visits.—Brooklyn Union.
It is wonderful in the wealth of pictures, information and interest.—Christian Advocate, N. Y.

1887. Harper's Bazar.

ILLUSTRATED.
Harper's Bazar combines the capabilities of the most successful and the most useful family reading. Its stories, poems, and essays are by the best writers, and its humorous sketches are unsurpassed. Its papers on social etiquette, decorative art, house-keeping in all its branches, cookery, etc., make it indispensable in every household. Its fashion plates and pattern sheets supplement the enable ladies to save many times the cost of subscription by being their own dressmakers. No a like is admitted to its columns that could shock the most fastidious taste.

NOTICE.
By virtue of authority vested in me by a decree from the Superior Court of Franklin county in a cause therein pending entitled "M. L. Perry Guardian, et al vs W. H. Yarbrough et al" we will on Monday the 7th day of November 1887 sell for cash to the highest bidder, at public auction at the Court House door in the town of Louisburg, Franklin county N. C. the following real estate to-wit:
One tract or parcel of land situated in said county of Franklin, adjoining the lands of R. F. Yarbrough, east of the estate of N. B. Massenburg, Thos. Huff and others, containing three hundred and fifty acres, also another tract of land situated in said county on the waters of Tar River and Carpenter's Creek, known as the Carpenter's tract, containing four hundred and fifty acres, also one lot of land situated in the town of Louisburg, east of and fronting on the Court House square on the corner of the streets running North and East of the Court House, and extending back to the line of E. L. Stegall on the East and the hotel lot on the south, containing one-half of an acre.

All of the above land is described in a mortgage duly executed by R. F. Yarbrough and W. H. Yarbrough to M. L. Perry Guardian and duly recorded in the Register's Office in Franklin County Book 41, Page 5 & 6; to which said mortgage reference is hereby made.

READ IT

We wish to say through the columns of the TIMES that we feel very thankful indeed to the people of Louisburg and vicinity for the LIBERAL share of patronage given us during the past year, and we hope by giving them the advantage of every bargain secured by, not only merita continuance of the same but to largely increase our trade. We are continually on the lookout for just such bargains as our SAMPLE SHOES offer last fall, and if successful in finding any, the public will be given the benefit of all, regardless of temptations to make double profits. We are now receiving a Full Stock of goods, which include fresh stock of FANCY GROCERIES and 1 1/2 CENTS BIE which we sell as cheap as the cheapest. We intend to make our goods as good as a goods furnishing house, so it will be to the advantage of all in need of such goods to examine our prices at least. In DISY GOODS we have good calico at 5 cents, 2 spools thread for 5 cents and many other high bargains, in SHOES, our offers are simply immense. The regular $3.00 shoes we sell for $2.50, a $4.00 shoe for $3.00, Pr. BOOTS for $2.50, &c., &c. Our HATS are just too cheap for anything. Just think of a fine stiff hat for $1.50. You will find our prices quoted in the TIME every week, look for them and keep yourself posted. Come to see us when you come to town; we want to price goods to you, whether you buy or not.
