PAY UP.

The time has now come when almost every man in the county has some money and editor of THE TIMES hopes that his delinquent subscribers will come in and pay their indebtedness. Remember that the price of the paper is only $1.50 per year. WHEN PAID IN ADVANCE.

TAR DROPS

—Cotton 9¾.

—The cold wave has struck this section.

—A farmers' meeting will be held at Piney Grove next Monday night.

—Lost, strayed, stolen or absconded—our Franklinton correspondent.

—The whole family can afford to witness the "wreck" at the Court house to-night.

—Egerton, Terrell & Ford—a combination of push, energy, vim, brain and capital.

—The young people had a pleasant Hop at the Eagle Hotel on Thursday night, the 24th.

—Two new stoves have been placed in the Baptist church by Crenshaw, Hicks, & Allen.

—Mrs. J. S. Barrow is attending the Methodist Conference at Fayetteville, this week.

—You will miss lots of fun if you fail to attend the entertainment to-night (Friday) at the Court house.

—Married—In Raleigh, on the 24th by Rev. W. C. Norman, Mr. W. E. McDowell to Miss Helen Thomas.

—Louisburg now has one of the best photographers in the State. Our people should give him a liberal patronage. LOWEST PRICES.

—Lawrence Riddersh shot and killed another white man, Jno. C. Ray, in Granville county, one day last week. All about a woman, as usual.

—The proceeds of the entertainment at the Court house are for a charitable purpose, and we predict that there will be a large crowd.

—Regular meeting of county commissioners next Monday, upon which day the various county officers are required to renew their official bonds.

—It is "home talent" that performs to-night at the Court house, and the performance promises to be first class. Don't fail to be there. Only 35 and 25 cents.

—Our friends throughout the county will do us a favor to send us any item of news from their section. We want to publish the news of the county especially.

—If those who owe for the TIMES will pay between now and Christmas, we will start the new year with a address—otherwise we will have to wear our "old clothes" a while longer.

—A firm in town has just received 100 kegs of nails and the head man says that there is nothing like advertising, and the TIMES is the paper to reach the people of Franklin. He is certainly correct.

—Rev W. G. Norman who has a host of friends and admirers in this section, ended his four years as pastor of Raleigh Edenton street Methodist church last Sunday. His congregation presented him with a fine gold watch and his wife with a silver pitcher.

—As previously announced services were held in the Methodist church on Thanksgiving day. All the stores except drug stores and bars were closed, and the town presented quite a Sunday appearance. A collection was taken at the Methodist church for the Oxford orphans, which amounted to $25.

—We were shown by Mr. Jere Perry one day last week, a very fine specimen of marl, found on the old Abner Layton plantation in this county. Finer specimens than the one shown us have been picked up on this plantation, and no doubt beds of this valuable fertilizer are right here in Franklin county.

—A large number of people did not read the notice headed "wanted" in this paper correctly. A young man was applying for a situation, and about two hundred understood it to mean that some firm wanted a salesman. We answer through the paper as coin postage stamps will not hold out to answer by mail. And still some folks say that advertising does not pay.

—If the few growlers who are continually crying hard times, and asserting (without knowing any more about it than Solomon) that the world is growing worse, would join in with those who are making earnest efforts to improve the short time left in this life, it would be more pleasant, and when they leave this country, they would not be so soon forgotten as they will be if their future actions continue as their past have been.

—Married—In this county a few days ago, Mr. Thos. Hedgepeth aged 66, to Mrs. Jane Hicks, aged 52. It is said that it is the fourth marriage of the groom and the third of the bride; total 7.

A Strong Combination

As will be seen from their announcement elsewhere in this paper, Messrs. F. N. Egerton, Z. T. Terrell and Geo. W. Ford have formed a copartnership, under the firm name of Egerton, Terrell & Ford, for the purpose of conducting a regular supply business in Louisburg. The county might be searched through, and a stronger team could not be found. Separately each one of them is numbered among the strong men of the county, and possesses every qualification of a first-class business man, and now that they have consolidated all of these qualifications, together with large capital, the public will find in them a firm fully able to supply everything in their line, in abundance. Already preparations are being made for a large provision warehouse 40 x 80, which will be erected alongside the railroad near the depot. The building will be two stores and contain every convenience necessary for loading and unloading. Read what they have to say to the people of the county in their announcement.

The Times Wants to See.

Men stick to their promises—especially wood subscribers.

Everybody prosperous, happy and contented.

Back-biters bite the dust, instead of their neighbors.

A big crowd at the entertainment at the Court house to-night.

Rev. A. McCullen.

This Reverend gentleman, who has filled the pastorate of the Methodist Church in Louisburg for the past two years left on Monday last for Conference which is in session this week at Fayetteville. He has very acceptably filled his charge here, and we have yet to hear of a single member or friend of his church, who opposes his return to this station, and we believe that Conference in its wisdom will return him. His excellent wife left on Thursday to attend Conference.

Died.

At her residence in this county, a few days since, Mrs. J. A. Mann, widow of Dr. Thos. Mann, deceased. Her age was about 45.

Mr. Penner W. Young, a very energetic and promising young man died at his home in this county on the 24th, aged 26 years.

Tin Wedding.

The tenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Egerton, of Louisburg, was celebrated at their residence on Wednesday night of last week, on which occasion they were the recipients of many useful and appropriate presents from their numerous friends. The illuminations in front of the residence were "perfectly beautiful" and the fireworks, balloons &c., displayed added much to the enjoyment of the large number of ladies and gentlemen present. Not the least of the enjoyments of the evening was the supper, one of the most elegant repasts it has been our pleasure to behold in some time. We hazard the assertion that many Thanksgiving dinners were allowed to go by default the following day, by some of the guests of this delightful and pleasant occasion. The evening was very pleasantly passed by all, and will long be remembered by those participating as one of unusual enjoyment.

Returned.

Mr. E. M. Hale and family, who went from Louisburg something over a year ago, we are glad to learn, return. They will occupy the new cottage residence recently erected by Mr. H. Carlile.

Marriage Licenses.

During the month of November marriage licenses were issued to the following in this county:

WHITES.

Joseph Pearce and Mary Faison; J. J. Peirce and Hattie Winston; Thos. Hedgepeth and Jane Hicks; H. C. Duke and Eliza Winston; Alexander Mitchell and Jane Champion; R. A. White and Drusilla Kearney; B. B. Gardner and Rachel Wheeler; Jas. C. Hinkle and Minnie M. Fuller.

COLORED.

Abram Cash and Frances Powell; Wm. Clinton to Lydia Levister; H. C. Rogers and G. H. Smith; J. Malone and Georgeana Strother; F. P. Thorpe and Hattie Eaton; L. A. Fuller and Mittie Portis; Jas. Thomas and Georgiana Perry; Dick Perry and B. Person; John Taylor and Cherry Williams; Shad. Fuller and Mollie Perry; Duncan Kersey and Penina Mills.

—Dr. J. B. Clifton has just returned from the Northern markets where he says he bought the nicest lot of Xmas and holiday goods ever before bought in Louisburg. Everybody cordially invited to call and examine—the ladies especially. His clever and polite clerk, Mr. T. B. Horton will take pleasure in showing you the many nice presents he has. Be sure to give him a call, and secure a nice present before they are picked over.

—New North Carolina rice, large, fat mackerel and a new lot of hams just received at Crenshaw, Hicks & Allen's.

NEW FIRM.

at the very SMALLEST LIVING PROFIT and we earnestly beg all parties in need of Supplies not to buy from anybody before they have seen us. We think we can make it pay you to give us a call. We are now building a large ware house at the d-pot, and we intend to throw life into our business. We think we have plenty of Vim, Energy, Pluck, Brain and money to back us to do it. The above combination will not interfere with the general store of F. N. Egerton. Be sure to

GIVE US A CALL

and don't buy from friends simply because they are friends. What you want now is to save the Dollar, they are your best friends and we think we are in a position to save you money. Give us a trial and we will prove it. Respectfully,

EGERTON, TERRELL & FORD
