

The Franklin Times

JAMES A. THOMAS, Editor & Prop.

FRIDAY, APRIL - - - 27, 1888.

DEMOCRATIC BY $5,000.

At the State election of Louisiana last week the Democratic Governor was elected by $5,000, in the face of Republican claims that the State was doubtful. Louisiana, it will be remembered, is one of the great sugar producing States, and the Republican candidate for Governor advocated a high tariff on sugar. He is a great sugar producer, but he could not beat it into the hands of the people, who had to buy their sugar, that they could better afford to pay 8 than 7 cents a pound for sugar. The result of the Louisiana election is a good sign that the people are becoming enlightened upon the subject of the tariff, and they see that the only true way to prosperity in this country is a tariff "for revenue only," which means the collection of just enough money to run the government, economically administered, and no more. All this probed ignorance of the tariff, on the part of the Republican leader, is bad. They know too well, that it will not do to let the people know what they mean by a high protective tariff. They know that it means starvation for every poor man and his family, and that it will never do to enlighten the masses upon the subject. If the Mills tariff bill, now being discussed in Congress, becomes a law, it will be but a short time in our judgment, before there will be a better financial feeling in this country. It provides for the reduction of the taxes to the amount of $55,000,000, and it is a Democratic measure. The Republicans, and a few protection Democrats are fighting it to the bitter end, and the people should keep themselves posted upon the proceedings, and see for themselves who their friends are.

EVERY farmer, wage earner, or laborer of any kind should read the article on the first page, taken from the New York Herald. The Herald is the political organ of no party, and what it says cannot be said to be biased. It speaks nothing but words of truth, and what it says is intended to open the eyes of the laborers who have heretofore voted against their own interest. The Republican party will never take off the tariff, as long as it has the support of the monopolists, in whose interest it has legislated since its organization.

CATAWBA, the banner Democratic county of the State, sets an admirable example to its sister counties. As elsewhere reported regular Democratic primary meetings have already been held in every precinct, and from all parts of the county comes news of greater harmony and activity in the Democratic ranks than has ever before been known thus early in a campaign. Let every other county do likewise and Democratic success in the State is assured.—News Observer.

Now, do not for a moment allow yourself, Mr. Observer, to think that Franklin feels snubbed, but any one who did not know better, in reading the above, would judge that Catawba is the only county that has done anything. Perhaps the editor of the Observer failed to learn that such proceedings as are alluded to in Catawba have taken place in Franklin, with just as promising results. As we said, in our report of the Convention held here on the 17th, we have never before seen a more determined set of Democrats than those who composed the convention, and our friends in other sections may look for better news at the winding up of the coming campaign than was sent them two years ago. We truly believe that old Franklin will redeem herself this year, as already we can hear the sounds of victory in the air. Democrats are going to prove by their ballots what they profess to be and are not going to allow any local issue to drive them from their principles. The tax-payers of the county know, that since the war, they have not lost anything by Democratic officials, but on the contrary, every Democratic official has served them honestly and faithfully. Can such be said of all those officials who have been put in by the Republicans? Let the voters, upon whom the responsibility rests, think and realize what they are doing when they elect men to office, and always try to get men who will not only take care of the interest of the people, but who will reflect honor upon those who place them in office.

WHO PAYS THE TAX?

If the farmer and the laboring man will investigate the present tariff they will soon discover how the Republican party are robbing them day by day of their earnings.

Why vote with a party that takes the money from you and places it in the hands of the rich manufacturer? Isn't it time to reform the tarif?

Isn't it time you were looking to your own interests?

Put the following and paste it up at the head of your bed. Let it remind you of the yoke you wear:

When the farmer rises from his bed in the morning, he puts on his common dinner shirt, taxed 92 per cent.; his coat, taxed 57 per cent., and washes his face and hands in a tin bowl, taxed 34 per cent., and dries them on a cheap cotton towel, taxed 45 per cent. He sits down to his humble meal and eats from a plate, taxed 50 per cent.; with a knife and fork taxed 35 per cent.; drinks his coffee with sugar taxed 68 per cent.; seasons his food with salt taxed 64 per cent.; pepper 64 per cent. He looks around at his wife and children, all taxed the same way; and even the sunlight from heaven that pours into his dwelling must come through window glass taxed 50 per cent., and yet he thinks he lives under the free government which Louisiana would give against the leading actor in the editorial fraud of 1876.

THE Durham Tobacco plant gets off the following:

Mr. Argo is afraid somebody will think he didn't know how to get criminals from Canada, and Mr. Busbee is afraid everybody won't think he knew all about it, and some to spare. Therefore they compel a long suffering community to read their complimentary letters to one another. Keep quiet, gentlemen, Cleveland is sure to be elected, anyhow.

THE Wilmington Star says: We have heard of young women marrying men they loved in order to reform them. We do not remember to have heard of a successful experiment in that delicate line. The Brooklyn Eagle has been telling of a pitiable and unfortunate example of this kind, where the failure was complete and the misery deep and lasting. A beautiful, rich, elegant woman was greatly admired and courted by scores. She made a selection. The result is the old, old story—sorrow, disappointment, misery, ruin. Here is the sad sequel, after five years of trial and failure:

AS THE Philadelphia Record says, the Louisiana election has given the Republicans "all the sugar in their" the most vindictive Democrat could have desired. It was, indeed, a sweetener!

SENATOR VANCE's able articles on the tariff, which have been reproduced from the Baltimore Sun, not only, by the "Southerner," but by nearly every paper of note in the South, should be read with care and pains by every one. These afford a complete exposition of the iniquities of the protective system and furnish unanswerable arguments for the aggressive position assumed by the Democracy in forcing this issue to the front in the pending campaign. Senator Vance is true to the faith of the fathers, true to the constitution and true to the people he represents.—Tarboro Southerner.

THE Statesville Landmark says: We spoke, two weeks ago, of the already manifest interest and determination among the Democrats of North Carolina, with reference to the business before them this year. The party is in splendid shape. Reports of the same character come from every direction. Franklin county, for instance, is ordinarily Republican. The Louisburg Times, of last week, says there is a settled purpose among the Democrats to carry it this year—it must be done, they say. The editor of the Times has been chairman of the county executive committee four years, and he says that never, until last Monday week, has there been a full meeting of the committee in the beginning of the campaign. The news from Alexander county is to the same general effect only a little better. The meeting of the committee of that county last Monday week, was the fullest ever held. So all over the State—the interest is deep and widespread. And no antagonisms are being excited—no bad blood is being exhibited. Various candidates for Governor, and their friends are actively at work, but Democrats are not knitting Democrats, as has been the case at this stage of the campaign in times past. Only one Democratic newspaper in the State—and it is one of but small consequence—has attacked any Democratic candidate. The "mole" of the party—as the French would say—is all that could be desired. We received a basket-set in 186, but as a party it has been rancored to us.—Statesville Landmark.

HAPPY Eastern Editor. We spoke, two weeks ago, of the already manifest interest and determination among the Democrats of North Carolina, with reference to the business before them this year. The party is in splendid shape. Reports of the same character come from every direction. Franklin county, for instance, is ordinarily Republican. The Louisburg Times, of last week, says there is a settled purpose among the Democrats to carry it this year—it must be done, they say. The editor of the Times has been chairman of the county executive committee four years, and he says that never, until last Monday week, has there been a full meeting of the committee in the beginning of the campaign. The news from Alexander county is to the same general effect only a little better. The meeting of the committee of that county last Monday week, was the fullest ever held. So all over the State—the interest is deep and widespread. And no antagonisms are being excited—no bad blood is being exhibited. Various candidates for Governor, and their friends are actively at work, but Democrats are not knitting Democrats, as has been the case at this stage of the campaign in times past. Only one Democratic newspaper in the State—and it is one of but small consequence—has attacked any Democratic candidate. The "mole" of the party—as the French would say—is all that could be desired. We received a basket-set in 186, but as a party it has been rancored to us.—Statesville Landmark.

ADVERTISING LOCALS.

THE Raleigh bank boulders, Gross and White have given bond, and are now out of jail. They will be tried in July, and Judge Avery will be the presiding Judge.

ROSCOE CONKLING, one of the few honest Northern Republican politicians, died in New York last week. He has passed from present sight, but not from the memories of men. His name will live long in history.

Put the following and paste it up at the head of your bed. Let it remind you of the yoke you wear:

Now after another the so-called opponents of President Cleveland's renomination have disappeared. The latest of these imaginary foes of the President to put in a denial of Republican rumor is Chairman Barnum, who has just declared that he will go as far as any other man to secure Cleveland's nomination an election.

AS AN exchange says, should John Sherman be made the Republican candidate for the Presidency his party would save the trouble of nominating an Electoral ticket in Louisiana. Not even such a returning Board as he aided and abetted could count out the majority which Louisiana would give against the leading actor in the editorial fraud of 1876.

THE Durham Tobacco plant gets off the following:

Mr. Argo is afraid somebody will think he didn't know how to get criminals from Canada, and Mr. Busbee is afraid everybody won't think he knew all about it, and some to spare. Therefore they compel a long suffering community to read their complimentary letters to one another. Keep quiet, gentlemen, Cleveland is sure to be elected, anyhow.

THE Wilmington Star says: We have heard of young women marrying men they loved in order to reform them. We do not remember to have heard of a successful experiment in that delicate line. The Brooklyn Eagle has been telling of a pitiable and unfortunate example of this kind, where the failure was complete and the misery deep and lasting. A beautiful, rich, elegant woman was greatly admired and courted by scores. She made a selection. The result is the old, old story—sorrow, disappointment, misery, ruin. Here is the sad sequel, after five years of trial and failure:

"A year ago I was riding uptown on a car. The car was crowded and I stood by the front door reading. I heard my name pronounced, and looked down, but did not at first recognize the face, which was faintly smiling at me. It was weirdly pale and wrinkled and care-worn. I looked puzzled for a few moments, and then it dawned on me that it was the wreck of one of the prettiest girls in Brooklyn, I accompanied her as far as the door of her home. It was a tenement house. "I won't invite you in to-day," she said, "my rooms are somewhat disorderly." I said nothing, but I understood. It was painful to see her try to keep up the pretense of being light-hearted, happy and prosperous. A week ago I heard that her husband was in the lunatic asylum and her baby was dead. Now she has gone home to begin life over again. She has married a man to reform him."

AS THE Philadelphia Record says, the Louisiana election has given the Republicans "all the sugar in their" the most vindictive Democrat could have desired. It was, indeed, a sweetener!

SENATOR VANCE's able articles on the tariff, which have been reproduced from the Baltimore Sun, not only, by the "Southerner," but by nearly every paper of note in the South, should be read with care and pains by every one. These afford a complete exposition of the iniquities of the protective system and furnish unanswerable arguments for the aggressive position assumed by the Democracy in forcing this issue to the front in the pending campaign. Senator Vance is true to the faith of the fathers, true to the constitution and true to the people he represents.—Tarboro Southerner.

NOW, do not for a moment allow yourself, Mr. Observer, to think that Franklin feels snubbed, but any one who did not know better, in reading the above, would judge that Catawba is the only county that has done anything. Perhaps the editor of the Observer failed to learn that such proceedings as are alluded to in Catawba have taken place in Franklin, with just as promising results. As we said, in our report of the Convention held here on the 17th, we have never before seen a more determined set of Democrats than those who composed the convention, and our friends in other sections may look for better news at the winding up of the coming campaign than was sent them two years ago. We truly believe that old Franklin will redeem herself this year, as already we can hear the sounds of victory in the air. Democrats are going to prove by their ballots what they profess to be and are not going to allow any local issue to drive them from their principles. The tax-payers of the county know, that since the war, they have not lost anything by Democratic officials, but on the contrary, every Democratic official has served them honestly and faithfully. Can such be said of all those officials who have been put in by the Republicans? Let the voters, upon whom the responsibility rests, think and realize what they are doing when they elect men to office, and always try to get men who will not only take care of the interest of the people, but who will reflect honor upon those who place them in office.

It is getting time for you to put your gun by until next season and start fresh to work on your farm. If your hoes are worn out and have done good service, do not blame them, but get new ones from Julius Lewis & Co., Raleigh, N. C. They always keep the best hoes and other farming implements, and offer them at prices to suit everybody.

Florida Cabbage at Crenshaw Hicks & Allen's.

SAVE YOUR GRASS

AND LABOR,

AS THE UNDERSIGNERS

HAVE DONE.

Having used the "Safety Tether," bought last season, of Mr. Arthur Arrington, Agt., we cheerfully pronounce it to be the best for it.

B. T. BALLARD.

J. T. TIMBERLAKE.

J. K. SPENCER.

E. W. TIMBERLAKE.

Z. T. TERRELL.

TABLES.

Poplar chamber tables from $22.00 to $42.50

Cherry chamber tables $65.00

Ash chamber tables from $35 to $12.50

Walnut " " 35.00 " 60.00

be instead " " 8.00 " 12.50

DINING ROOM.

Walnut extension tables $12.00

Walnut extension tables $16.00

Poplar " " 6.50

wide boards " " 10.00

Walnut " " 20.00

TABLES.

Drop leaf tables $2.75

Walnut centre tables 2.00 to 4.25

Antique oak centre tables 4.50

Cherry center tables 7.00

Round poplar tables 2.00 to 3.25

CHAIRS.

Spring seat chairs $4.50

Common wood ch. " " .60

Gum seat chairs .75

Oak dining chairs 1.50

Rockers 1.00, 1.50, 2.50 and 4.75

BABY CARRIAGES.

Basket carriages, parasol top $6.50

" " " " 9.50

" " " " 10.50

" " " " 11.50

MISCELLANEOUS.

Pan, for roasting chickens, 1.00 feet, $1.00

Spring Slat Bed 2.50

Woven wire m. recesses 4.50

Coil spring mattresses 3.75

wardrobe 10.00, 11.50, 18.50

walnut hall stand 12.00 to 15.50

Bureau 7.00, 8.50, 10.50 and 12.50

bedroom lin. or wire 3.50

Bed Lounger 12.50 to 18.00

walnut jessies 7.00 to 12.00

Upholster. chairs 3.00 to 12.50

Beard stool, from 2.00 to 12.50

Washstand from 1.75 to 12.50

Crib (4 feet long) 6.75

Rocking Crib (30 inches long) 5.00

Cradles 1.50 to 1.75

SEWING MACHINES.

We represent the celebrated Vertical feed Davis Sewing Machine, which for lightness of raining, durability and perfect set of attachments is unrivaled in the market to-day.

E. W. TIMBERLAKE

Admiral of W. R. King.

April 10th 1888.

Administrators' Notice

Having qualified as administrator of

W. R. King, this is to notify all persons holding claims against said estate to present them on or before