The North Carolina Press Association will meet at Morehead on the 1st of July, and we are glad to state that the Association this year will be composed of none but newspaper men. According to the Constitution of the Association no one is eligible to membership except in the field of journalism.

This is right and proper, and therefore the Association will not be able to make up its quota of society immediately after the war.

The parades himself before honest and decent people, and asks their support.

A REPUBLICAN WITHDRAWS FROM THAT PARTY.

The following card which appeared in the Franklin Dispatch explains itself, and we can assure every white man who has had respect for his race that he ought to read and ponder what Mr. Holt of Davidson writes.

A CARD.

BOONE, N. C., JUNE 4, 1888.

I send you Raleigh as a delegate from Watauga County to the Republican State Convention which met on the 23rd day of May. When I left Watauga County I was convinced that the present system of county government ought to be changed, and that the day of judgment brought against the Republican party was originated by demagogues for political purposes. After attending that convention I was completely changed in my opinion for I saw with my own eyes negroes toiling their way among the white delegates, acting appropriately, and making themselves unduly prominent in the transaction of business. They took complete control of the convention at times, and frequently it was impossible for a white man to get the floor or to obtain a respectful hearing. There were two negro secretaries of the convention, and during a portion of its sitting I heard a negro presiding officer. Two delegates of the four to Chicago were negroes. Altogether, there was too much negro in the delegation to suit me, and although I have been a Republican, I am a white man and believe in white men ruling North Carolina.

I fully appreciate for the first time, what the people of the East have to contend with in fighting against negro rule and negro influence, and my ideas of country government have altogether changed. I am in favor of the present system of county government.

No person not a member shall address the club without invitation or permission from the President or chairman of the meeting.

The death of Fredrick William, Emperor of Germany, occurred on last Friday, after a brief illness of a few months. All Germany is in deep mourning.

The Davidson Dispatch, in its last issue, contained the following among its comments upon the recent Democratic State Convention:

"The nomination of Col. Thos. M. Holt for Lieutenant governor gives great satisfaction in the county, though not a citizen of Davidson; he owns and operates one of the largest farms in the country, and sincerely feels closely identified with the interests of the farming population. For years he has been among the foremost of the progressive agriculturists of the state, and has done his full share to encourage the development of our banking industry. As a manufacturer he is best known; and as such, he possesses the confidence of all in his employment, and is respected by all who know him. Instead of being a protectionist, as the unenlightened might suppose, he is a firm believer in tariff reform; and is willing to stand on his platform to insure his election."

A brother of the noted manufacturer of Chancery M. D. Dugay, the President of the Republican ticket, it may as well be stated now, as at any time that if my brother had once been nominated, defeat awaits their candidate. We do not believe that the American people will tolerate the rule of Government from the strong, honest hand of the man who says that "public office is a public trust, and that it is the duty of every man to discharge it faithfully." We do not believe that the people of the country that they will pass the House of Representatives, if it does not already do so, to give the same antislavery vote to the House of Representatives as they did to the Senate.

Our own belief is that the bill will pass the House of Representatives by a large majority, and we expect to see the House of Representatives and the Senate vote alike.

NORTH CAROLINA CLAIMS THURMAN.

A gentle man who resided in this city from 1850 to 1865, bears the name of Allen G. Thurman, who was nominated by the Democratic Convention at St. Louis Thursday for Vice-Presidency. He says that on the day that Cleveland was nominated Wednesday, the state legislator reached "Eldorado" that Thurman had been nominated also, and subsequently, of course, he did.
