

MY GOD ABERNATHY.

We know you'd come—He repudiates the Third Party.

[Special Cor. State Chronicle.]
At the earnest solicitation of many friends, and after mature and prayerful reflection, I beg to withdraw my name as candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction on the Prohibition ticket. In the lengthening shadows of evening, nearing my "three score years and ten," the esteem of my friends is more than ever dear to me. Thus, I am sure I would lose in a measure by my candidacy, while I am now convinced that evil would result thereby, both to Prohibition and my friends and fellow citizens in the State. I think my friends in North Carolina will testify that during my life I have never hesitated to follow where duty pointed the way. The nomination came under the guise of duty and I accepted. I now plainly see that this present Third Party movement will not only imperil the white man's supremacy in the South, but it will damage the cause of prohibition almost incalculably. Since the war, when I voted at all, my ballot has always been cast in favor of Democracy, and as I am now, and always have been, in full sympathy with that party on every question, except that of License, if, as it is plainly to be seen, one of the old political parties must triumph in the contest, I shall not allow myself to be used as an instrumentality in putting my friends in North Carolina under the dominion of negro rule. Hence, I hereby decline the candidacy and withdraw from the Third Party, and earnestly recommend my life long friend and brother, Maj. S. M. Finger, who is a Christian gentleman, a Prohibitionist and a scholar, to all my Prohibition brethren in the State.

In the present situation, I earnestly advise the withdrawal of the Prohibition ticket in North Carolina, and the support of Democracy in the present contest. We cannot afford to impose negro supremacy upon our fellow citizens.

In a few years (next year, if you please), I earnestly beg all good men of all parties, to unite with me, outside of politics, in putting this infamy of all infamies, the liquor traffic, out of our State.

I am now an old man. Most of my life lies in the past; how it has been consecrated to humanity, the people know. And in this fight against the arch enemy of earth and heaven, though my sword be powerless as Priam's, it shall strike for God and the Right.

Yours truly,
R. L. ABERNETHY.

Dockery and the Alliance.

The Farmers' Alliance is in session.

Dockery is in Raleigh. These two items appeared in a Raleigh daily this week. Do they, standing thus near together mean anything? Have they any significance?

Yes; they signify that Dockery who belongs to the Alliance, is endeavoring to get the Alliance men support him for Governor? Will he succeed?

Yes; when the farmers turn fools and vote for their greatest enemies—advocates of a Protective tariff.

A leading member of the Alliance said to the Chronicle: "Some Democrats seem afraid the Alliance men will defeat Fowle. They are very foolish. I came to the Democratic Convention an enthusiastic Alexander man, as did many others. By that very act I pledged my sacred honor to see all the efforts in my power to secure the election of the nominee of the Convention. It is an insult to the farmers to say now that they will be untrue to their duty. They will labor for Fowle equally as hard as for Alexander, because their honor, and their interest as well, are involved in the struggle."

Another Alliance man said: "There are those who, if Fowle is defeated, will put the blame on the Alliance. For that reason, if no other, the Alliance men are going to see to it that he is elected. Personally I wanted Alexander, but I shall work harder for Fowle to avoid the suspicion of sulking."—Chronicle.
