LOUISBURG, N. C. OCTOBER 12 1888,

ere is a generation of voters win North Carolina who can scarcely appreciate the immense debt of gratitude the people of the State owe to the Democratic party for its manly stand during the days of reconstruction. And they cannot appreciate it because they were too young to understand the las of those days. For the benefit of all such we beg leave to recall a few facts of indisputable record :

For the first three years of exisforce was relied upon to accomplish its ends, coupled with insult of the grossest character. It was in 1868, that the women of the State were insulted by the advice given in an editorial in the Radical Raleigh Standard to Radical canvassers to they heremaked the when their husbands were not about. It was in 1868 in a public address issued by Radical members of the Legislature, in their character as legislators, that the white people were threatened openly with starvation and destruction of their homes from the vengeance of and-

been done. It was in 1869 that the radical Governor claimed the power to suspend att laws at his own pleasure. It was in 1869 the bill was passed empowering the Governor practically to declare martial law in every county in North Carolina. It was under this bill and in this year that the Holden-Kirk war was carried on, and the Radical Governor asked the radical Congress to authorize the Radical President to suspend the writ of HEBEAS COR-PUS, so that men might be arrested and tried before military tribunals and shot, and it was in the same year that the Radical Governor declared that if he was personally menaced, certain leading Democrats and Conservatives who might be named, will be instantly put to

It is bad enough to go hence leaving loved ones to battle with the world at any time, but in days like those he thought was simply horribleso horrible that doubtless it withheld many an arm from righteous vengeance, when no other consider-tion under the sun could have tayed it. We ask you to consider for a moment only and answer the question soberly and truthfully. It is not a question ernment in North Usrolina? Do you not owe it to them that regro equality social and otherwise, was not forced upon yes? Especially let the young women of to-day shink of the insults to their mothers twenty years ago. Betithem think of the terror those mothers must have suffered under threats to burn and murder, that they themselves were happily too young to understand and appreciate. Let the young men remember the Kirk war and how the best citizens were strested and thrown intel prison uniter mertial law and saved from being tried by drum-head court court martial and shot at the stake only by the interference of Judge Brooks. God bless him ! Suppose, in a word, the Radical pary had been able to carry out all of its hellish purposes in those days, what would have been your condition to-

From all these evils the Democratic party, at the personal peril of its members, saved the State. Does the State owe it no gratitude?

Mr. Harrison Aniong His Friends.

Hon. Don. Cameron, of Pennsylvama, a life-long Republican and a U.S. Senator by right of Inheritance as it seems, is not much of a Harrison man. The Philadelphia Times gives the following conversation between him and an Indiana Democrat, dansam

"Well, do you people intend to et that creature Harrison party In--"The Indiana statesman was rather surprised, but said: I think not. I am of the opinion that Indiana is safe for Cleveland. "Well, said Senator Cameron, earnestly, you must watch our people closely, for they intend to repeat the 1880 factics upon you. But for Haaven's sake, if only as an act of charity, don't let that creature Harrison be sent to the White House.

"Charity? What do you mean?" asked the Indianian, wonderingly "I mean he would be so confoundedly lovely, answered astute Simon's son emphatically, 'that it would be a crime to send him there. No self-respecting man who was associated with Farrison in the United States Senate would go pear him in the event of his election. L certainly would never call apon party then as now, that it was violent, lawless, maligant, insulting and vengeful, it stands convicted out of its own mouth.

Let no white man, especially let no white woman, fail to read the following extracts from the infamous record made by the Radical party in the days that tried white men's souls and made white women's cleeks pale with terror. Great heavens: as we look back to those days we wonder how North of the stands of even wounded, it is already desired the stand or even wounded, it is already desired. If this is the way they treated their allies and supporters of the South what can be said of the treatment their political enemies have received at their hands during the time they had entire control of all the departments of our State government.

If "the entire country" ought to re-fuse to put the Republicans in power again on account of their former treatment of the South, how much more opposed to them the White m n of the South should be those white men who fived through the days of reconstruction who remember how they were handled, persecuted, insulted and plundered of the little that remained to them after four thousand millions of dillars of their property had been swept away as the result of the war.
