OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES

It is said that Col. Dockery has left off the discussion of the tariff and has gone to throwing mud. We supposed it would come to this. Men, like water usually find their level.—New Fern Journal.

Poor little Tom—Devereux! How the bold and knightly Kitchin spitted him and roasted him and held him up to the contempt he deserved.—Raleigh News-Observer.

It is the opinion of nine-tenths of the intelligent people who heard Col. Dockery at Mooresville that he exactly fills the description of Hal. Fetterman, who "handled the truth very carefully and d-d sparingly."—Statesville Landmark.

"History repeats itself," and "it bringeth retribution." Immense riches in the hands of a hangy and arrogant few brought about the disruption of the Roman Empire; a corrupt and luxurious class in France drew upon their country all the horrors of the revolution of the latter half of the last century; a despotic and autocratic Russian nobility has compelled the abolition of serfdom, and brought nihilism which cares to lay its unsanctified hand even upon the "Great White Czar." There is a time in the history of all nations when the people prove themselves stronger than their rulers; when with mighty hand they enforce the mandate: "Thus far shalt thou go and no farther!"—Greensboro Patriot.

NO MORE CUTTING TIRES

I desire to say to my many patrons and the public generally that I found it so difficult to please my customers in shrinking tires, that I have purchased a NEW GREEN RIVER UPRIGHT Tire Shrinker, a machine with which I can shrink tires of any thickness, without cutting. Heretofore the great difficulty has been in the fact that the tire would break where it was heated or had been burnt by the blacksmith, and with the machine all this is avoided, time is saved, and our customers much benefited. I only make the tire cherry red, and in cutting a tire, instead of doing as other blacksmiths do, that is cutting it in a thick place, we are enabled by the use of this machine to spot it in the very thinnest place, thereby strengthening it. I invite all to come and give me a trial, and I will guarantee satisfaction in every particular.
