

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. King Bros.—Locals. F. N. Egerton—Zeigler Shoes. J. S. Barrow & Son—Two weeks. J. R. Hight—Pasture Your Cows.

TAR DROPS.

—Cotton 91.

—This is good pneumonia weather. Be careful.

—Mr. J. R. Hight has leased the Terrell pasture. See his advertisement.

—W. H. Furman, druggist has just received a supply of that celebrated headache cure—Bradyrotine. Also a new lot of Cuticura Remedies.

—Dear beloved, says an exchange, there is more rejoicing in a printing office over one subscriber who pays up, than over the ninety and nine who do not.

—Mr. T. B. Horton left one day this week for the Baltimore Medical College, where he has been elected to a position in said College. We wish him much success.

—Rev. Dr. Carter, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Raleigh, has been invited to preach the sermon before the graduating class at Wake Forest College in June next.

—Are our people taking the necessary steps to clean up their lots, &c., &c., before the warm weather sets in? And are the town authorities seeing to it that such steps shall be taken?

—A Rocky Mount correspondent of the News-Observer says: Misses Stella and Genevieve Perry of Casine near Louisburg, spent last week in town, the guests of their cousin Dr. Sid. P. Hilliard.

—The Wilson Mirror, Bro. Blount's ever sparkling newspaper, has entered a new volume. The TIMES returns thanks for its kind words, and wishes for the Mirror many more years of usefulness.

—Louisburg's last sensation was caused by the mad antics of a mule suffering from hydrophobia. He was shot.—Progressive Farmer.

Mistake. He was allowed to die, and was thrown in Tar river by the owner.

—Rev. A. G. McManaway, pastor of the Tryon street Baptist Church is to leave on April 2nd for an European tour. He will in all probability be accompanied by another Charlotte pastor, says the Charlotte News.

—Our farmers and business men see that they have mutual interests, and what is intended to injure or tear down one, injures all. Co-operation between the farmers and business men is the key to prosperity of any county, and our people are too intelligent not to see it.—Newton Enterprise.

—An exchange speaks the truth when it says that a man who is disloyal to the town in which he lives, sneers at his prospects and libels its people, should be frowned down by the community. Every town has more or less discontented people who seem to think they should get rich by their wits, and are provoked at any who do prosper as a result of their labor. The world owes no man a living who is not willing to work for it.

—We quote an exchange: Blessed is the man who sitteth not in the seat of the kicker or mingles himself in the congregation of the mossback; but his delight is in new railroads and brick blocks, and in schemes to build up himself and his own town. And he shall be like an evergreen tree planted by the river of waters, his leaf shall not wither in the early fall like the cottonwood, for the Eli of the banner shall get there, but the kicker shall be left to hold the bag.

Broke Jail.

Minga Harris and Wm. Crawford, two negroes broke jail here on Tuesday night. They made an attempt on Monday night to burn the jail, but for the timely arrival of Sheriff Kearney and others, the two prisoners would have sufficed from the smoke. They were removed to an upstairs cell which was called overhead, and on Wednesday night they succeeded in pulling enough of the ceiling down to enable them to get through and reach a small latticed window in the gable end of the building. This being reached they proceeded to let themselves down to the ground, a distance of 25 or 30 feet, and after making several attempts, as signs in the enclosure testified, they broke the lock off the gate, which when opened, let them out and they were as free as birds, so far as the prison was concerned. Harris was put in for larceny, and Crawford was in, under a peace warrant, sued out by his wife.

The young white man, Caldwell, who is in a different cell in the jail, remarked to a reporter yesterday morning that the negroes were a d—n sight smarter than he was.

To the Sunday School Workers of Franklin County.

DEAR BRETHREN:—The Executive Committee of the North Carolina State Sunday School Association made a general call to the workers at large to hold a Convention in each County, naming February 22nd as the time for holding such conventions, for the purpose of organizing the Sunday School workers in each county, and for the further purpose of electing five delegates to the next State Convention to be held in Charlotte, N. C., April 23rd and 24th. Such a Convention has not yet been called in Franklin county, but realizing the need of such an organization, and desiring also that we should be represented in the State Convention, we do hereby appeal to, and earnestly desire all Ministers and Sunday School workers in Franklin county to meet in Louisburg on Friday the 29th inst. for the purpose of permanent organization and election of delegates.

B. CADE, J. J. RENN, J. B. HURLEY.

Democratic Banner.

As our readers remember, during the last campaign the editor of the TIMES proposed to give a Banner to the township in Franklin which should prove itself at the election to be entitled to the same. We intended presenting the same immediately after the result was known, but were unable to do so. The banner which is about completed, will be presented on Tuesday of court week, April 16th, and Harris' township will be the recipient, it having outstripped its sister townships.

Off For the North.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Barrow, Mr. F. N. Egerton and Mrs. A. M. Hall left for the Northern cities on Monday; the two former to lay in the spring stock of goods for Barrow & Son, and the two latter to do the same for Egerton's Emporium of Fashion. They were accompanied by Mrs. Emma G. Spencer, of Fayetteville, who, we learn will open a Racket store in that town.

Baseball.

Already the popular game is being agitated here. A new ground has been selected and laid off in the field in rear of the Colored Baptist church, and in a few days the boys will be at it.

The Hotel Question.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger says:

Of the many improvements made in this State during the last few years, and among the most notable, are the hotels. We mention some, that have either been built new or remodeled and are now first class in every particular, such as Battery Park and Oakland Inn, Asheville, N. C.; Hickory Inn, Orton House, Hotel Albert, Newberns, Tull's Hotel, Kinston; Hotel Farrar, Tarboro; Cleveland Springs; Hotel La Fayette, Fayetteville; Mt. Vernon, Salisbury; Grand Central, Charlotte. These all bid for and receive Northern patronage, which spend their winter months, and strange to say, most of these were built as summer resorts. The question is about to be decided that it pays better to run "winter resorts," in North Carolina than "summer resorts." There is no information of more importance to the traveling public than that of good hotels and just as soon as we have them all over the State, and they become known, we will have all the visitors we want, both winter and summer.

There is food for thought in the above for the people of Louisburg. It is a burning question, and there is no use in trying to stifle it.

A Good Suggestion.

A subscriber to this paper desires us to suggest to those who have dogs, of which they think anything (and every man loves his dog) to confine them until all the mad-dog scare is over. He says that a good many innocent dogs are being killed throughout the country. People take for granted they are mad, because they are roaming about without a master.

Alliance Notes.

EDITOR TIMES:—Please publish the following:

At a recent meeting of the Pughs Alliance, No. 344, a resolution was unanimously passed, endorsing the action of various other Alliances, in regard to Dunn's plows and castings.

W. E. TUCKER, Secretary.

Mr. J. F. Bell, Secretary of the County Alliance, requests us to say that he will be in Louisburg on the last Friday in March, and will be glad to see all Secretaries of sub-alliances who may have any business with him.

Wild Geese.

A large drove of wild geese passed over Louisburg last Sunday night about 9.30 o'clock going north. They kept up quite a noise as they passed over.

Franklin's Representatives.

Franklin's representatives in the last Legislature have returned home after an absence of two months at Raleigh. Mr. Cook arrived last week, but Mr. Clifton did not get to town until one day this week, having stopped at his residence about 8 miles from town. The county should feel proud of the stand these two gentlemen took in the Legislature, as their names are recorded on the right hand side of nearly every question that came up in that body.

—Be sure to read F. N. Egerton's new advertisement in this issue. He is making a big run on Zeigler shoes, and many other valuable makes.

—Don't fail to read the large and attractive advertisement of J. S. Barrow & Son in the TIMES. They say that their spring stock will, when it comes, surpass anything ever before seen in Louisburg.

—Several of our merchants have put up new signs in front of their stores. Now let the citizens catch the fever and have their dwellings painted. It would not cost a great deal, and would add immensely to the looks of the town.
