TAR DROPS.

—W. J. Neal & Co's "Pantelins" are the best. Try them.

—Rev. J. B. Hurley occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church last Sunday.

—The farmers of this county have certainly done a great deal of work up to date.

—John Spelman, a veteran newspaper man, died at Raleigh last week, aged 68.

—There are now 28 Farmers Alliances in Franklin county with a membership of 1,300.

—Every farmer in the county should read the article on our first page headed "Peculiar and Profitable."

—The Times is glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Davis back to Louisburg. They have taken rooms at the Eagle Hotel.

—A forest fire, which started on the Dent plantation about two miles from town, burned a large amount of fencing last Wednesday.

—You can get at Furman's drug store 2 HERSHEY CHOCOLATES for 5 cents—and they are first-class as is everything else Furman sells.

—Mr. J. F. Bell, the Secretary and Business Agent of the Farmers Alliance, has moved to town, so as to be of more service to the members.

—Our young friend, Ferrell Parish has accepted a position with W. P. Neal & Co., where he will be pleased to have his friends call and see him.

—Circulars are out announcing that John Williamson will speak in the Court House on next Saturday, to-morrow, upon the negro exodus movement.

—Does your tooth ache? If so, remember that Louisburg has a regular resident dentist—Dr. R. E. King—and that he stands high in his profession.

—The many friends of Mr. R. H. Davis are cordially invited to call and see him at the store of Mr. J. L. Person, where he has accepted a position as salesman.

—We notice among the patents recently issued in North Carolina inventors; that on April 2nd, one was issued to Rev. G. W. Newell, of Mapleville, this county, for improvement in process of preparing cotton seed for planting.

—The fatal question is not dead; but on the other hand, it is a live and living issue with some of our citizens. There is talk of forming a stock company, which the Times heartily endorses. It is a fine thing, gentlemen, and now is the time.

—Court next week. If you owe the Times anything, try to make it convenient to see the editor while in town, and before you leave, endeavor to get his receipt for what is due. If you will try, just a little, we think you will have but little trouble.

—Mr. Linticum, a contractor of Henderson, was in Louisburg this week for the purpose of making estimates for building up the vacant lots in rear of the Court House. It is about settled now, we believe, that the block will be built up before the summer is passed.

—The snow and wind storm was very heavy here last Saturday evening. Had it not melted about as fast as it fell, the snow would have been 4 or 5 inches deep. The wind blew very hard, and did some damage to out-houses and fruit trees. The barn of Mrs. A. W. Person was blown down, and her wagon smashed to pieces.

—As will be seen elsewhere the Farmers Alliance of this county has endorsed the efforts and actions of the Board of Trade of Louisburg in endeavoring to open a tobacco market in Louisburg, and the Alliance also pledges its support to the market. Now, what more could be asked of the tobacco raisers?

—IF YOU ARE SICK CONSULT YOUR PHYSICIAN. IF YOUR TEETH NEED ATTENTION PARKERIZED YOUR DENTIST. SICK OR WELL, SUBSCRIBE TO YOUR LOCAL PAPER. BY SO DOING YOU WILL RENDER UNTO CAESAR THE THINGS THAT ARE CAESAR'S, AND AT THE SAME TIME BUILD UP YOUR TOWN.

—The town of Smithfield, in Johnston county, was visited by a very destructive fire on Sunday last. Almost the entire business portion of the town was destroyed, and the Court house and jail were barely saved. The loss is estimated at over $100,000. We are sorry to see that the Herald office, was among the burned—a total loss. A small portion of the property destroyed was insured.

—The Times would urge upon our authorities the importance of an early enforcement of very strict sanitary measures. It will be too late to remove causes after everybody gets diseased. It should not be necessary for any citizen to be forced to clean up his premises, but nevertheless, there are some people who have to be made to do such things, and it does them no good to be lenient, but on the contrary makes them worse.

—Let a man know that you are inclined to be lenient with him, and nine times in ten he will take advantage of it, and finally get so that he will defy the authorities, law and everything else. In this connection we are afraid that our Mayor is a little too light upon those law-breakers who make it a habit of shooting promiscuously in the corporation. No person who knowingly and willingly breaks a law should be allowed to get off with what is termed "the covey," and the sooner law breakers are made to believe this the better, both for themselves and the public.

—Clean up. —Use lime unsparingly.

—The "whitewash day," suggested by the Times would pay from a sanitary standpoint.

—Don't wait for the authorities to force you to clean up your premises, but do it from a sense of duty you owe to yourself and for the sake of decency.

—Mr. W. H. Mason, administrator, advises in this paper, the sale of personal property at the residence of the late Mrs. Nancy Reid, on April 30th.

—Gov. Fowle has appointed our young townsman, Mr. W. M. Person, as one of the commissioners to represent North Carolina at the New York Centennial April 30th.

—The editor acknowledges the receipt of a complimentary "certificate of membership" in the N. C. Teachers Assembly, sent us by Secretary E. G. Harrell, who is one of the hardest working men connected with the Educational interests in the State. He says:—

—The sixth annual session will be held in our Teacher's Assembly Building, at Morehead City, N. C., June 18th to July 2nd, 1889, and Hon. Z. B. Vance is expected to deliver the opening address. The Atlantic Hotel will furnish board to all members of the Assembly at $1.00 per day during the session.

—Those "growling" articles came in too late this week, but they will appear in our next issue.

—Last week it was snow, blizzard, over-casts. This week, beautiful sunshine, straw hats and linen dusters.

—Our young friend W. S. Udale, representing the North-State Music House, of Raleigh, was in town this week.

—Remember the town election takes place the first Monday in May, and that the registration books, which are now open, will be closed ten days before the election. All new comers, and those who have become of age since the last election will be required to register. Geo. S. Baker is the Registrar. Thos. J. Harris and Calvin Yarboro are the poll-holders.

—Pasture and Cattle. J. R. Hight's pasture, (the Terrell pasture) is now open for the reception of cows, only $1.50 per month. It is one of the best pastures in this section. He wants to buy a few poor cattle, for which he will pay the market price.

—FROM LITTLETON. MR. EDITOR: At the close of a very enjoyable Soiree given by the Eunomian Society of Littleton Female College on Friday evening April the 5th, the President, Mr. S. D. Bagley, announced that after June 1st he would dissolve his relationship as President with Littleton Female College and take charge of the Louisburg Female College. This announcement was received by the people of Littleton with universal regret. Littleton's loss will be Louisburg's gain, for we think our President and his excellent wife will be a valuable acquisition to any town or community, and the people of Louisburg are to be congratulated upon their good fortune in having induced him to locate among them.

—The entertainment referred to was a perfect success. The programme consisting of music, recitations and a "Doll Drill" was well rendered, reflecting credit upon Prof. J. C. Moore, Musical Director, and Miss E. V. Sullivan, teacher of elocution and esthetics.

—After the Soiree the young ladies held a reception which was greatly enjoyed by both old and young.

—The Eunomian Society has invited ex-Governor Jarvis to deliver the Literary address at commencement, which, he says, "on account of the warm personal regard he has for the President of the school," he accepts. Our commencement will be May 28th, 29th and 30th. We will be very glad to have you attend. With best wishes for Louisburg and all her enterprises especially the College.

—Franklin Court. The April term of Franklin Superior Court will convene Monday next, His Honor Judge Connor on the Bench. Up to yesterday the clerk's docket showed the following number of cases: Criminal, 40; civil, 74; Summons, 10. It is a two week's term.
