ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.

In speaking of a person's faults, pray don't forget your own: Remember those with homes of glass Should seldom throw a stone. If we had nothing else to do Than talk to those who sin, 'Tis better we commence at home And from that point begin.

We have no right to judge a man Until he fairly tried: Should he not be the world's foe? Some men have faults, but they are not the ones we all are so. Perhaps we may, for all we know, Have fifty to their one.

I'll tell you of a better plan— To try your own defects to cure, Ere others fault you tell. And though I sometimes hope to be No worse than some I know, My own short-comings bid me let The faults of others go.
