

In the death of Rev. Dr. Robey which occurred at Goldsboro on Sunday last, the Methodists of the State lost one of their ablest divines.

The new Superintendent (Dr. W. H. Wood, of Scotland Neck) of the Insane Asylum, is said to be by those who know him "the right man in the right place."

JOHN L. SULLIVAN, the prize fighter, has written a letter to the New York Sun, announcing his willingness to enter political life, and will become a candidate for Congress from Boston.

EX-PRESIDENT Jefferson Davis says he will certainly attend the Fayetteville Centennial in November, if his strength is sufficient. Thousands of North Carolinians will be there to greet him.

THERE is a Democratic colored league in Pennsylvania. They think the Republican party is not fully recognizing the colored voters of that State in distributing offices. They also advise the negroes in the South to ally themselves with the people of their section of the country, with whom their interests should be identical, rather than stir up strife by adhering to the Republican party. Good advice, but "singing psalms to a deaf horse" would be as profitable.—EX.

APT. S. B. ALEXANDER, president of the North Carolina Farmers' Alliance, announces that the jute trust has offered the Alliance that if they will go back to the use of late bagging it will be paid in cents on time, and that the jute trust will pay the farmers $2 more per ton for all of their cotton seed that is offered at any of the cotton seed-oil mills. The Charlotte Chronicle regards this as proof positive that the jute gentlemen are in bad straits, and thinks it ought to be sufficient to encourage the farmers in their decision to stick to cotton bagging.

THE National Democrat is a new paper at Washington City. It will be considered the party organ, inasmuch as it is endorsed by ex-President Cleveland, Senator Vance and other prominent Democratic leaders. It is edited by Mr. Edmund Hudson, who is pleasantly recalled as the former editor of the Washington Sunday Capital. He is a thoroughly equipped business man, a writer of timely force and a scholar of rounded parts. Under his management the National Democrat will become a potent factor towards the success of the Democratic party in coming contests.

HERE is a sample, from a Washington correspondent of the New York Sun, of the items that go out from Washington about Republican sentiment in the South: "Col. R. E. Young, one of the best known Republicans of the Tar Heel State, is at the National. He says that the Republicans of the South are not boiling over with enthusiasm for Mr. Harrison. The Republicans of North Carolina, he reports, are disorganized, and outside influences have controlled nearly all the appointments. 'It's my opinion' said he, 'that North Carolina will fail to return a Republican Congressman next time because of the treatment received from the Administration.'

THE Raleigh News-Observer speaks in high terms of Dr. Wood, of Halifax county, who has been elected Superintendent of the Raleigh Insane Asylum to succeed Dr. Grissom. He is an eminent physician in whose election those who know him best say the Institution and the people are to be congratulated. It also speaks in complimentary terms of Mr. W. S. Chadwick, who has been elected to the Presidency of the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad. He is a successful business man, doing a merchandising business at Beaufort. He served for four years as one of the directors under the administration of Mr. Bryan, and is forty-one years of age.

Mr. Wood tells us, of Mr. Chadwick we know nothing, but we would have been glad to have seen Mr. Bryan re-appointed. But it is all over now, and all the talking that could be talked by us would not change it.

THE RE-UNION. The 12th day of September 1889, in Louisburg, will be long remembered by those whose pleasure it was to attend the Re-union of the old veterans on that day. Every preparation necessary for the successful carrying out of the programme had been made by Messrs. C. M. Cooke, J. E. Malone and F. S. Spruill, the committee appointed for that purpose. (And we deem it proper to state here that no committee ever worked harder for the success of any occasion, than these gentlemen and their assistants—especially the ladies, who always do their part.) Early Thursday morning the town began to fill up with people, and by 10 o'clock the streets were lined. At the ringing of the Court House bell the old veterans formed in front of the Court House, and headed by the Louisburg Cornet Band, at the command "Forward March," the long column marched up Main street to the large Academy grove, where stands for the speakers, the Band and others had been erected. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. J. B. Holley, at the conclusion of which Mr. F. S. Spruill came forward, and after expressing regret that Hon. J. J. Davis, the orator of the day, was detained from being present, on account of sickness, he, in a very neat and appropriate speech introduced Hon. T. C. Fuller.

The Times' reporter, who was kindly obliged to report upon the occasion, was highly entertained by the address of Col. Fuller, and thinking that a large number of our readers would be delighted to read it we decided to publish it in full. It will be found on the first page of this paper. Col. Fuller was followed by the Hon. Geo. W. Sanderlin, and as he always does, made a good and very entertaining speech. This wound up the proceedings in the grove, and Hon. C. M. Cooke came forward and read a letter from Mrs. J. J. Davis, explaining for Judge Davis his regret that he was not able to be present, with assurance of his sympathy and best wishes.

The veterans then passed unanimously the following: RESOLVED, that we deeply regret that Judge Davis cannot be with us today; we sympathize with him in his sickness, and we assure him of our prayerful interest for his early recovery. The Veterans then formed a line of march, and moved down Main street to the Star Warehouse, where a sumptuous dinner lay in wait for them. The dinner was served at 1 o'clock, and not having all the guests seated, by request, give us the following account of what took place there.

The first toast.—"The cause for which we fought," was not responded to, on account of the absence of Col. W. F. Green.

The second toast.—"North Carolina troops at the battle of Gettysburg," was responded to by Col. W. H. S. Burgwyn. The speaker was evidently well up on the statistics of that battle, for he handled his subject in a masterly and interesting style. He gave North Carolina troops their due meed of praise and placed them in the proper light in which they should be viewed, and where the true historian will place them. Col. Burgwyn is truly the old veteran's friend. We admire his enthusiasm and applaud his deep interest.

The third toast.—"The confederate privateer," was responded to by W. Montgomery, of Warrenton. The speaker, after paying old Bute, New Warren and Franklin counties, a high compliment, proceeded in an earnest manner to show that the true spirit of daring and gallantry that characterized the confederate soldier on land was as freely exhibited on the waters, and that many and many a confederate soldier found a watery grave as bravely and nobly as any who enriched the lauds of Virginia with their patriotic blood.

The fourth toast.—"Gen. R. E. Lee," was drunk in loving and reverent silence with bowed heads and tear spotted eyes. During this interval profound silence reigned throughout the entire hall and was very affecting. It was owing to the unavoidable absence of Gov. T. J. Jarvis that this toast was not responded to.

The fifth toast.—"Stonewall Jackson," was responded to by Rev. G. W. Sanderlin. He sang a high and well deserved tribute to the soldierly qualities of the immortal Jackson, the speaker showed with great esteem and confidence in the old North Carolina troops. Mr. Sanderlin was better qualified to do this on account of his close connection with Gen. Jackson during the war. The narration of incidents in Gen. Jackson's career by the speaker was very edifying and interesting indeed.

The sixth toast.—"The women of the Confederacy," was responded to by Prof. S. D. Bagley of the Louisburg Female College by reciting a beautiful and touching poem.

The seventh toast.—"Jefferson Davis," was responded to by F. S. Spruill, Esq., in an animated, soul-stirring speech, which brought down round after round of applause from the audience, showing what a warm place that grand old man occupies in the hearts of the people of Franklin county. Mr. Spruill was warm and eloquent in his remarks. Not only did Mr. Spruill tell us of the patriotism, suffering and martyrdom of our beloved Ex-President of the confederacy, but his speech reflected great and lasting credit upon himself.

The eighth toast.—"Our confederate dead," was responded to by Col. T. C. Fuller in his well known eloquent style and which brought tears to the eyes of many, yet while our hearts were made to feel sad at the absence of our brave and noble comrades, we were made to feel proud of the example of heroism and devotion to principle which our loving and dead confederate soldiers gave us and our children.

responded to on account of the absence of W. H. P. Jenkins, Esq. At this juncture of the proceedings Col. Fuller arose and said he wished to propose a toast: "The soldiers of Franklin county" and he would call upon the Hon. C. M. Cooke to respond. Mr. Cooke arose amid the shouts of the entire audience and made one of the best and happiest impromptu speeches of his life—eloquent, affecting and true. At the close of Mr. Cooke's speech the order was given to break ranks and the veterans convened in the Court House to transact some business. Thus ended a glorious and much enjoyed day.

NOTES.—Although the crowd was very large—some putting it at 3,000, and others at 2,500, while others stretched it to 4,000—it was one of the soberest we have seen in some time. Not a single street was made during the entire day. The music by the Cornet Band, Dr. R. E. King, Leader, never played better, nor did the music ever sound sweeter. Commander-in-Chief Malone acted his part well, as did the other officers. Chief Marshal Z. O. Davis also filled his office to the satisfaction of all. Among other very appropriate things in the warehouse where the dinner took place, were three large pictures of the "Lost Cause," Jefferson Davis standing by a large lion; Gen. R. E. Lee, and Hon. J. J. Davis.

Candies, bananas, apples, also apple tooth chewing gum at King Bros.

STATE PRESS. We are pleased to see this from the Governor, for while we are a great admirer of the Governor, yet we could not approve of a fight on Senator Vance's side by any man in the State. We are pleased to know that he is frank to admit that he could not rival Mr. Vance. Washington Progress.

In this age of inventive genius—of novelty and originality—the man with quick perception, originality of conception, and practical ideas, which can be utilized, is the man who will reach the goal of success for which humanity is continuously striving, while his fellows are panting far in the rear.—Durham Globe.

It is said that the approaching State Fair promises to be one of unusual interest. We call upon the farmers and mechanics of the State to rally round it to yourselves and your children to do what you can to advance the agricultural and mechanical interests of your own native State.—Durham Recorder.

Candies, bananas, apples, also apple tooth chewing gum at King Bros.

NOTICE. Having this day qualified as Administrator of Thos. Gorton, deceased, I hereby notify all persons owing the estate to come forward and settle, and all persons holding claims against the estate will present them for payment on or before Sept. 23, 1889, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. DATED AT LOUISBURG, N. C., Sept. 20, '89. DAVID G. FOSTER, Adm.

STRAYED OR WAS STOLEN. From the subscriber on the 28th day of August, one red heifer with some white about the belly and the switch of the tail, and a small white streak around the head above the switch. Three years old, giving about two gallons of milk daily when the weather is good. Was in Aug. order. Marked a crop and under all in each ear. Any information as to her whereabouts will be thankfully received and liberally rewarded; as if stolen ten dollars will be paid for the arrest and conviction of the thief by Dr. O. L. ELLIS, Louisburg, N. C. Sept. 20, 1889.

NOTICE. Having qualified as administratrix of J. R. Hall, deceased, I hereby notify all persons owing said estate to come forward and settle at once, and all persons holding claims against the same will present them for payment on or before September 12th, 1889, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. Sept. 12, 1889. MARY J. HALL, Administratrix.

FIRST-CLASS RESTAURANT. Having opened a first-class Restaurant in Louisburg, I am prepared to serve meals at all hours. Can furnish a few persons lodging at night. My table is served with chickens, mutton, beef and everything the market affords. Always call in when you are hungry, and you shall have satisfaction. Respectfully, BENEY HAWKINS.

NOTICE. Having qualified as executor of Nathan May, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons owing said estate to come forward and settle at once, and all persons holding claims against the same will present them for payment on or before September 12th, 1889, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. This Sept. 12, 1889. C. R. MAY, Executor.

HIGHT, THE JEWELER OF HENDERSON, NORTH CAROLINA, is having a trying time now. He is trying to please everybody and is succeeding finely. He gives special attention to FINE WATCH-WORK and refers to any man in Henderson. Hight carries a complete stock of optical goods, and can furnish glasses that will give prompt and sure relief in nearly all cases of weak and impaired vision. Whenever you need spectacles and eye glasses be sure to call at Hight's, sign of the big watch, opposite the railroad depot.

You Will Find —AT— RODGERSON'S BAR.

ON THE CORNER, a full line of best Wines, Liquors, Cigars and Tobacco.

Remember—I WILL NOT BE DECEIVED. If you want a pleasant drink of the "good old" always call at B. H. RODGERSON'S.

W. H. EDWARDS —DENTIST— WAKE FOREST, N. C. After September 1st, 1889, can be found regularly in his office at the Hotel in Franklinton, N. C., on Thursday of each week.

NOTICE. By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court, made at April term 1889, in the case entitled Geo. S. Baker, Administrator, vs. Mrs. Mary Murphy plaintiff, vs. Mrs. Mary Leona, defendant, on Monday, the 7th day of September 1889, I shall sell at the court house door in the town of Louisburg, at public auction to the highest bidder, for one-third of the price cash, balance on a credit of twelve months with interest at 8 per cent from day of sale, a tract of land, on Mill Stone branch, in Sandy creek township, and known as the land on which Mrs. Mary Leona formerly resided. More particularly described in Record Book "B" page 147, C. S. C. office, Franklin county. GEO. S. BAKER, Commissioner. August 24, 1889.

Notice. Mr. William G. Perry has again taken position in my bar and will be glad to have his friends call and see him. Remember that all brands of whiskies can be had at my Bar AT THE VERY LOWEST PRICES. B. H. RODGERSON.

Too Many Goods. TOO LITTLE MONEY. Hint to the bargain seekers is sufficient. GREEN & YARBORO.

H. Waitt & Co. STILL LEADS ALL OTHERS IN THEIR LINE. EVERYTHING FIXED UP IN APPLE PIE ORDER. AND PRICES AS LOW AS ANY FIRST-CLASS SALOON. GOOD ORDER KEPT IN POOL ROOM. CALL IN.

JOEL H. HARRIS & COMPANY —HAVE OPENED— A CASH STORE In the Carlisle Building. And are daily receiving a stock of goods that shall please every one in quality and price. We have little or no expense, and sell entirely FOR CASH, and expect to sell lower than any one else can afford to. Everything kept in a first class store will be kept constantly on hand, and in the hands of those who wish to save money, we cordially invite inspection and comparison. But to those who wish to throw away their money, why all we have to say is just keep on trading with the credit concern, who has been grinding you down for all these years with their big profits. Come to see us and we will prove what we say to be true. Respectfully, JOEL H. HARRIS & Co. Louisburg, N. C., September 2nd 1889.

LOUISBURG FEMALE COLLEGE. LOUISBURG, N. C. PROFESSOR OF MUSIC —AND— FULL CORPS OF TEACHERS. THE NEXT ANNUAL SESSION WILL BEGIN— WEDNESDAY Sept. 4th, 1889. Collegiate course, with Board, Washing, Fuel and Lights, $71.00 per session of twenty weeks. With Music and one language added, full Collegiate course, with Board, etc., $91.00. Art, Education, Stenography, Telegraphy, etc., taught at reasonable rates. Location Healthy. Water Cool and Pure. Farm product will be taken for tuition, if previously agreed upon. For further particulars, address S. D. BAGLEY, A. M., President. Louisburg, N. C.

F. N. EGERTON. HOT, DULL, RAINY, AND EVERYBODY YOU MEET HAS A LONG FACE EXCEPT THOSE WHO GO TO F. N. EGERTON'S Emporium of Fashion NO DULL TIMES THERE. NO LONG FACES. BUSINESS ALWAYS GOOD. The goods at Egerton's are ALWAYS so well bought that as a general thing, they can sell MUCH LOWER than the average and then make a good profit. We always take an inventory in August, to see how we are getting on and we will put, during this month, a great many things ON THE JOB COUNTER. AT ASTONISHINGLY LOW PRICES. We will offer the following goods LOWER than you ever dreamed of. Remnants of CALICO; LAWNS; WORSTEDS; PANT-GOODS; HANDKERCHIEFS; HOSIERY; FLANNELS; SHOES; SLIPPERS; LADIES HATS; GENT'S HATS; UMBRELLAS; PARASOLS; FANS. —A NUMEROUS LINE OF— NCTIONS, TINS, &c. Come and we will sell you some bargains that will make you feel better than you have for a long time. Very Respectfully, F. N. EGERTON.