The shiftless Farmer.
The editor of the Texas "Tablet" thus discourses on what he terms "the shiftless farmer."
"The shiftless farmer has a life-long ambition to gain a reputation for wearing a dirty shirt."

He will alarm the neighborhood by getting up two hours before day, and then sit around and not go to work until after sunrise.

He will ride a week looking for a two dollar hog.

He will complain of hard times, then tears his pants (climbing) over a fence where a gate ought to be.

He will pay three dollars for a bridle and then let the calf chew it to pieces before Sunday.

He gets all his neighbors to help in getting a cow out of the bog, then lets her die for want of attention. She will get in and destroy his crop at a place in his fence that he has been putting off fixing for six months.

He will sprain his back lifting something to show how strong he is.

He will go in his shirt sleeves on a cold day to show how much cold he can stand, and then return home at night and occupy two thirds of the fire-place until bed-time.

He will ridicule the mechanism of the corn planter, and then go out and bruise his thumb nailing a board on a fence.

He will go to town Saturday and come home with fifty cents worth of coffee, a paper of pins and a dollar's worth of chewing tobacco.

He is economical; economy is his forte; he will save ten cents' worth of axle grease and ruin the spindle of a seventy dollar wagon.

He won't subscribe for a newspaper, but will borrow from his friend and forget to return it.

Of course there are no farmers of the above described sort in North Carolina—of course there are not—and we merely publish the above to give our readers an idea of how the shiftless Texas farmer does.

A splendid remedy for the disorders of the stomach is Laxador, the "golden" household remedy. Price only 25 cts. Sold by all druggists.

"It is safe." All those who have the future happiness of their children at stake, should know that Dr. Bull's baby syrup contains nothing that is injurious.

MERIT WINS.
We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. W. H. Furman, Jr. Druggist.

The extra quality of the silk, the 10 per cent discount, the silk brand and 1000 yards of good silk is certainly a wonderful bargain to offer to the public.
