

FRANKLIN COUNTY DAY.

Mr. Jno. T. Patrick, Secretary of the Southern Inter-States Exposition, which takes place at Raleigh this fall, writes to the editor of the Times that those in charge of the Exposition desire to make October 17th "Franklin County Day," and asks the editor "to take special charge of this feature of the Exposition, so that the county may be fully represented and shown to the very best advantage."

This all sounds mighty pretty, but as Franklin has taken no steps in the matter, the Times is not prepared to say whether a special day is desirable or not.

Winston is making great preparations to entertain the editors when their Association meets there in August. This writer hopes "to be there."

Mr. J. L. Ramsey, former associate editor of the Progressive Farmer, has again assumed said position. Col. Polk is editor-in-chief. Ramsey says that he has brought his "yaller shoes" with him, and that he can "swallow the sub-treasury."

REPUBLICAN state conventions have been held in two states this year—Ohio and Iowa—and both declared unequivocally and enthusiastically for protective tariff and the McKinley bill, which monstrosity is doing more to prevent the farmers of the country from enjoying the fruits of their labor than everything else combined, in our opinion.

The following taken from the News-Observer are our sentiments:

It is our understanding that those who may oppose the sub-treasury bill are in no sense unfriendly to legislation that will give the people relief from pecuniary depression. There is no difference of opinion among our people as to the end to be attained, but the best and most effective means to be employed very naturally give rise to divergent views. Let them be careful and not allow such opposing views to become so dogmatic that reason will not be able to intervene and reconcile all seeming conflicts. Our government was first organized upon the spirit of compromise, and had this great conservative principle failed to have asserted itself, the government would never have been organized at all. In the councils of the Democratic party there will be no deaf ear to counsel in favor of a fair and liberal spirit of conciliation, and he who writes or speaks otherwise does so without authority.

In a reported interview Hon. W. C. Oates, of Alabama, denies that he ever said "that the Democracy must beat the Alliance out of existence," or that he ever used any expression susceptible of such a construction. Mr. Oates says that, instead of being opposed to the Alliance, he favors all the demands of the order, except the sub-treasury and land loan bills, and the government ownership of railroads. This is Senator George's position, and, as the Senator has been called a new convert to the faith, such of our contemporaries as have been abusing Congressman Oates upon hearsay and exparte statements may feel it incumbent to do him the justice of publishing his denial.—News-Observer.

So far, nothing has been done in the counties of Nash and Edgecombe towards providing for a suitable exhibit at the Southern Exposition. We have one of the best counties in the world. Is it well for us to hide our light under a bushel? Modesty is a very good thing in its own place, but excessive modesty will not do either for a person or a community, and to tell the truth, it is hinted very broadly, that it is not modesty at all, which keeps us in the rear ranks of that grand procession which is moving on to prosperity, all over the South, but absolute want of enterprise. But it is never too late to mend, and we trust that even, if it has been heretofore, our people will now put their shoulders to the wheel and go ahead with such vim and spirit, that this cannot be said of us again, and that at the grand Exposition at Raleigh where the whole South will show her choicest products, this section will not be put to shame.—Argonaut.

The above will also apply to Franklin.

"If you don't like the sub-treasury bill give us something better." This is what we now hear and read. Do those who thus state their case or their demands, ever expect to get anything better from the Republican party except the continuance in force of the laws which have depressed labor by withholding its just rights and denying its just demands? Do the people expect that the Republican party will repeal the high tariff laws, declare in favor of the free coinage of silver, or enact any legislation directly or indirectly on a line with the objects and aims of the Alliance? Don't everybody know that the Republican party has always, and does now, oppose every political and economic principle the Alliance would make a part of the legislation of the country? Where then is something better to come from. It will come from the Democratic party as soon as it can get control of the government. And if the people really want reform, if they prefer reform to the elevation of a few demagogues to office, let them continue to rally around the Democratic standard, and when victory is achieved the remedial reforms needed will quickly follow.—News-Observer.

To Limit Cotton Production. The low price of cotton is causing great dissatisfaction among the planters of South Carolina, and they are talking about limiting the production by a decrease of acreage, in plowing up one-fourth of the present crop, and by various other devices. The Farmers' Alliance, of Marlboro county in that state has adopted the following resolutions:

That we pledge ourselves to plant ten acres of cotton to the horse in 1892; provided we can get the co-operation of all the cotton states, so as to decrease the production of cotton, and so obtain the due reward for our labor.

Second, That we request the state alliance to call for a convention of the cotton growers of the south, irrespective of class or color, to meet not later than December 1st next, to consider the same.

Mr. G. L. Aycocke's Request. EDITOR TIMES:—In a late issue of your valuable paper Mr. G. L. Aycocke asks me to give the reasons why I think the passage of the sub-treasury bill would be disastrous to the country. My friend must excuse me. I am now nothing but a private citizen, and my opinion on this question can have no special value for any one. I have no taste for the sort of controversy which the publication of my views would probably start. Thanking my friend for his good opinion, I am

THE WAGES OF SIN IS DEATH

BUT THIS TIME IT FALLS ON AN INNOCENT MAN.

LINCOLNTON, N. C. July 12.—A sanguinary tragedy occurred one mile from Lincolnton yesterday. Sam Motz was killed instantly, Bob Michael was wounded in the arm and leg and Charley Motz was wounded severely.

The trouble originated some three weeks ago, when Miss Maggie Motz, a handsome young woman of Lincolnton, was delivered of a child. The unfortunate infant happily died.

Miss Motz had been for sometime a singer in the meetings of Evangelist Fife, and the uncharitable at once charged the preacher with the paternity of the child. This was insinuated publicly, but the character of the Evangelist was saved by the declaration of the young woman, while lying on her sick bed, that the preacher was innocent, and that a young man named Bob Michael was the guilty one.

Michael occupies a good position in Lincolnton society and is the son of a wealthy and influential man of the county, a prominent member of the Presbyterian church.

It is said that the father of Miss Motz sent word to Bob Michael a few days ago that he must marry Miss Motz. This he refused to do, and it is further stated that in this refusal he has the endorsement of his father. It is further said that he bitterly denied the paternity of Miss Motz's child.

However that may be, it so happened that Bob Michael and Sam Motz, the latter a cousin of the unfortunate girl and a son of Caleb Motz, yesterday started out in a buggy for a trip to the country. They had gone a mile from town when they were fired upon suddenly by three men who were concealed in the woods as they approached. These men proved to be Charley, John and Caldwell Motz, brothers of the unfortunate Maggie Motz, a country belle and the sweet singer of Mr. Fife's evangelistic meetings.

The men were around with shot guns loaded with buck shot, and Sam Motz, their cousin, fell dead, shot through the heart. Michael was wounded in the arm and foot, but through a strange fatality escaped deadly wounds. He drew a revolver, which, it is said, he has been carrying since the demand was made upon him to marry Miss Motz, and answered the fire of the Motz brothers. His shot inflicted a wound upon Charley Motz. He was shot in the breast and from his condition it is thought he will die.

The Motz boys, it is said claim that their cousin, Sam Motz, was a victim of a shot from Michael's pistol and not from their guns. This story, however, is not believed by the citizens of Lincolnton. Sentiment in Lincolnton is very much in favor of Michael and opposed to the Motz brothers. Seven shots were fired in the melee. The brothers were arrested and the trial is now in progress.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
