

THE FRANKLIN TIMES.

VOL. XXIII.

LOUISBURG, N. C., FRIDAY, JUNE 9, 1893.

NUMBER 14.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

TO PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS.

The Superintendent of Public Schools of Franklin county will be in Louisburg on the second Thursday of February, April, July, September, October and December, and remain for three days, if necessary, for the purpose of examining applicants to teach in the Public Schools of this county. I will also be in Louisburg on Saturday of each week, and all public days, to attend to any business connected with my office.

J. N. HARRIS, Supt.

Professional cards.

- C. M. COOKE & SON, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, LOUISBURG, N. C.
- D. R. J. E. MALONE, Office two doors below Thomas & Aycock's drug store, adjoining Dr. O. L. Ellis.
- D. W. H. NICHOLSON, PRACTICING PHYSICIAN, LOUISBURG, N. C.
- E. W. TIMBERLAKE, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, LOUISBURG, N. C. Office on Nash street.
- F. S. SPRUILL, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, LOUISBURG, N. C. Will attend the courts of Franklin, Vance, Granville, Warren and Wake counties, also the Supreme Court of North Carolina, and the U. S. Circuit and District Courts.
- N. Y. GUILLEY, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, FRANKLIN, N. C. All legal business promptly attended to.
- THOMAS B. WILDER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, LOUISBURG, N. C. Office on Main street, one door below Eagle Hotel.
- W. M. PEARSON, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, LOUISBURG, N. C. Practices in all courts. Office in the Court House.

WHAT IS IT HAS IT DONE? CAN IT DO?

The original and only genuine Compound Oxygen Treatment...
It has been in use for twenty years; thousands of patients have been treated, and over one thousand physicians have used it and recommended it—a very significant fact.
"Compound Oxygen—Its Mode of Action and Results" is the title of a book of 200 pages, published by Drs. Starkey & Paxon, which gives to all inquirers full information as to this remarkable curative agent and a good record of surprising cures in a wide range of chronic cases—many of them after being attended to by other physicians. Will be mailed free to any address on application.
DRS. STARKEY & PAXON, 1529 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa. 120 Sutter Street, San Francisco, Cal. Please mention this paper.

Coffins and Caskets.

We have added to our already complete line of wood and cloth covered Coffins and Caskets

SOLID WALNUT COFFINS AND CASKETS.

METALICS

as nice and fine goods as is carried in any of our cities. Our stock is complete in every line.

Respectfully,

R. R. HARRIS & Co.
Louisburg, N. C.

Bank of Louisburg

Does a General Banking Business. Collections made and returned promptly. Northern Exchange bought and sold.

COUNTY ORDERS CASHED

Interest paid on deposits after three months.
W. P. WEBB, President.

TOWN LAWS.

AT A MEETING OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE TOWN OF LOUISBURG, HELD JUNE 2, 1893, THE FOLLOWING ORDINANCES WERE ADOPTED FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF SAID TOWN.

Ordinance 1. It shall not be lawful for any live stock to run at large within the corporate limits of the town, to be ridden, driven or fed upon the sidewalks, nor hitched to the trees, railings or fences on the sidewalks under penalty of two dollars for each offense.

Ordinance 2. Any person who shall drive or ride a horse or a mule at an unusual speed through the streets of Louisburg (unless in case of necessity) shall be fined five dollars.

Ordinance 3. Any person who shall leave any horse, mule or ox harnessed to any vehicle, on the streets of the town of Louisburg or on the depot yard for the period of five minutes unattended, except when necessary to load or unload carts or wagons, shall be fined one dollar for each offense.

Ordinance 4. No person shall exhibit or show any stud horse or jackass, or put a stud horse or jackass to any mare within the limits of the town under penalty of ten dollars for each offense.

Ordinance 5. Any person who shall leave any cart, wagon or vehicle of any kind upon the streets or sidewalks of the town during the night shall be fined one dollar for each offense.

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to tie and feed any horse, mule or ox on Main street in the town of Louisburg under a penalty of two dollars for each offense.

Ordinance 6. No person shall fight chicken cocks within the limits of the town under a penalty of five dollars for each offense.

Ordinance 7. If any hog, sheep, or pig shall die within the corporate limits of the town with cholera or any other disease, the owner thereof shall burn the carcass or bury the same at least two feet in the ground within six hours after the notice of the death of said animal—and on failure to do so shall be fined five dollars.

Ordinance 8. The owner of any dead carcass or carrion who shall permit the same to remain within the limits of the town for one day after he has notice of its existence shall be fined two dollars, and one dollar additional for every day the same shall remain. If not removed by the owner, the same shall be removed by the town Constable at the expense of the owner, or at the expense of the town if the owner cannot be found.

Ordinance 9. The Commissioners of the town shall have authority to direct the removal of any pig pen, or any other nuisance within the corporate limits of the town, when in their judgment it shall be necessary for the health or comfort or any portion of the inhabitants of the town, and if the owner or occupant of the premises shall fail to remove said pig pen or other nuisance within three days, after having proper written notice, then he or she shall be fined ten dollars, and the Commissioners may have the same removed.

Ordinance 10. Every owner of a house within the limits of the town shall continually have on the premises one ladder of sufficient length to reach the eaves of such house. Any one failing to comply with this ordinance shall be fined five dollars.

Ordinance 11. Sec 1. Whenever the shingles of any house within the corporate limits of the town shall become so decayed as to be dangerous on account of fire, the Board of Commissioners may so declare, and the owner or owners of such house shall be required to recover the same within such time as the Commissioners may think reasonable, under penalty of the sum of ten dollars for neglect to do so.

Sec. 2. Whenever any chimney, stove or stove pipe shall be deemed unsafe or to endanger the safety of any portion of the town it may be so declared by the Town Commissioners and they may condemn and order the removal or the abandonment of the use of the same until it shall be so repaired or reconstructed as to make it safe; and any person who shall use any such chimney, stove or stove pipe after it has been so condemned, shall be subject to a fine of five dollars.

Ordinance 12. The following shall be the fire limits of the town of Louisburg, viz: Within 200 feet of that part of Main street lying between Tar river bridge and the Eagle hotel; within 200 feet of Nash street between Spring street and Hayes & Pinnell's livery stables; within 200 feet of Court street; within 200 feet of Market street, and within said limits no wooden building shall be built, nor any material used in the construction of the outside walls except stone, brick or cement; nor shall any building within said limits be covered or recovered with any wooden material.

Ordinance 13. No person shall pile or have piled any manure, timber, wood, or other obstruction whatever (except temporarily for building purposes, and then 20 feet passage shall be unobstructed) upon the streets, public crossings or sidewalks of the town under penalty of five dollars for each offense.

Ordinance 14. Any person who may have a private crossing or bridge over any ditch or sewer in the streets of the town and shall fail to keep the same open for the passage of water shall be subject to a penalty of one dollar.

Ordinance 15. Any person having firewood cut on the streets of the town will be required to have the chips and trash removed immediately, under a penalty of two dollars.

Ordinance 16. Sec. 1. Any person who shall throw or cause to be thrown any trash, wood or other obstruction into the gutters of the streets of the town shall be liable to a fine of one dollar for each offense.

Sec. 2. No person shall sweep, throw or deposit any garbage or burn, except with the permission of the Mayor, any trash in the streets of the town, under a penalty of one dollar for each offense.

Sec. 3. The occupant of any lot or store house in the town who shall allow any garbage or trash to be swept, thrown or deposited on the streets or in the ditches, shall be subject to a fine of two dollars for each offense.

Sec. 4. The owners or occupants of every store, barroom, restaurant office or other business house within the town of Louisburg shall be and are hereby required to have continually on the premises a box, barrel or other receptacle in which shall be swept thrown or deposited all of the trash or garbage accumulating within their respective places of business; which said boxes, barrels or receptacles shall at least as often as once a week be emptied and hauled off at the expense of the town. All persons failing to comply with this ordinance shall be fined two dollars for each offense.

Ordinance 17. Sec. 1. Any person who shall cause or commit any nuisance around any dwelling or other house within the corporate limits of the town shall forfeit and pay the sum of five dollars for each offense.

Sec. 2. No person living in the town shall allow any nuisance to exist on his or her premises, and any person failing to abate any nuisance on his or her premises when ordered to do so by the Mayor or town policeman shall be subject to a fine of five dollars.

Sec. 4. No person shall make any excrementitious deposits or slaughter any live stock on any of the public grounds of the town under a penalty of two dollars for each offense.

Ordinance 18. Every occupant of a lot in the corporate limits of the town, shall at all times keep his or her lot in a cleanly condition under a penalty of ten dollars for failure so to do.

Ordinance 19. Sec. 1. No person shall indecently expose or exhibit his or her person within the limits of the town under a penalty of one dollar for the first, and for each subsequent offense five dollars.

Sec. 2. No lewd woman or woman of suspicious character shall be on the streets of Louisburg at night after 8 o'clock under a penalty of five dollars for each offense.

Ordinance 20. Sec. 1. Throwing missiles, rolling hoops, playing at ball or any other game on the streets or any of the public squares of the town shall be prohibited under a penalty of one dollar for each and every offense.

Sec. 2. All games of whatever kind on any of the streets or public squares of the town on the Sabbath day shall be prohibited under a penalty of five dollars for each and every offense.

Sec. 3. No person shall play cards or any other game of chance on the streets or public squares of the town under a penalty of ten dollars for each offense.

Ordinance 21. It shall be unlawful for persons to assemble together at any time on any of the streets of the town, so as to obstruct the same, under a penalty of one dollar.

Ordinance 22. No person shall shoot a gun, pistol or any other fire arms unnecessarily, within the limits of the town, or explode or fire off any squib, crackers, fire rockets, beam or girth shooters, or any other fire works in town, under the penalty of ten dollars for each offense.

Ordinance 23. Any person who shall, in the corporate limits of the town, publicly use any obscene or profane language, or be guilty of any disorderly conduct, tending to violate the peace, quiet and good order of the town, shall be subject to a penalty of twenty dollars.

Ordinance 24. Every owner or lessee of any business house in town shall be responsible for any disorderly conduct upon his premises or in his house, and every owner or lessee of any business house in town who shall permit any disorderly conduct in his house or upon his premises without reporting the same on affidavit to the Mayor of the town, shall be subject to a fine of ten dollars.

Ordinance 25. No privy shall be built or placed or allowed to remain within 18 feet of any of the streets of the town under penalty of ten dollars.

Ordinance 26. It shall not be lawful for any bitch to run at large while in heat, within the corporate limits of the town, under penalty of five dollars, to be paid by the owner. If the owner cannot be found it shall be the duty of the constable to kill the bitch.

Ordinance 27. All barber shops in town shall be closed from Saturday night 12 o'clock, until Sunday night at 12 o'clock, and no barber shall carry on his business during that time under a penalty of five dollars.

Ordinance 28. It shall be unlawful for any persons, except Apothecaries and Practicing Physicians (in case of necessity) to sell or offer for sale any article whatever on the Sabbath day, except ice and milk, and articles necessary for burial purposes, within the corporate limits of the town, under a penalty of ten dollars for each offense.

Ordinance 29. All shops or places for the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, shall be closed on each Sabbath in the year from 12 o'clock on Saturday night to 12 o'clock on Sunday night and no person or persons shall, during or between these times, in any licensed liquor saloon, sell or give away any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors except in case of sickness, and then only upon a certificate of a practicing physician, and any one or more persons seen going in or out of a Bar Room between said hours shall be deemed PRIMA FACIE evidence of the guilt of the proprietor of said Bar Room. Any person violating this ordinance shall for the first offense pay a fine of ten dollars, for the second offense a fine of twenty dollars; for the third offense have his license revoked.

Ordinance 30. Any person who interferes in any way with any of the street lamps or lamp posts in the town except those employed for the purpose, upon conviction shall pay a fine of ten dollars for each and every offense.

Ordinance 31. Any person who shall place any combustible material in a position where it could endanger the safety of the town from liability to fire shall be subject to a fine of five dollars.

Ordinance 32. Every person required to list property or polls in the town of Louisburg, shall make out and deliver to the list-taker a statement on oath of all real and personal property, money, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint stock companies, annuities or otherwise, and the value of improvements on real estate since the same was assessed, in his possession or under his control on the 1st day of June, either as owner or holder thereof, or as parent, husband, guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, agent, factor or otherwise.

Ordinance 33. It shall be unlawful for any person to jump on or off the train in the corporate limits, while in motion, under a penalty of five dollars.

Ordinance 34. The town clerk shall be ex-officio sexton to the public graveyard in the town, and all interments therein shall be made by and under the supervision of the commissioners of the town. Order and regularity shall be observed in digging graves and making interments. All persons expecting to make interments therein, shall apply to the Clerk and have marked, a spot of ground marked off and a record thereof made in the book. As a compensation to the clerk for his attention to the duties herein assigned, he shall charge fifty cents. He shall also charge fifty cents for the town and pay the same to the town treasurer, for each spot of ground assigned large enough for a grave, and he may collect the same by warrant if not voluntarily paid. Any person making interment in said graveyard contrary to the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined five dollars to be applied to the improvement of said graveyard.

Ordinance 35. No person shall sell within the corporate limits of the town any tainted food. Any person violating this ordinance shall for each and every offense pay a penalty of ten dollars.

Ordinance 36. Any person who shall use any violent, abusive or insulting language, or toppling gestures toward the Constable, or any officer of the town, while in discharge of his duty, shall be subject to a fine of five dollars.

Ordinance 37. Any person or persons refusing to assist the Constable or any town officer when called upon to assist in making an arrest shall be fined ten dollars.

Ordinance 38. Any person desiring to practice any profession, business or trade, taxed by any ordinance of this town shall, before commencing such profession, business or trade, pay the tax required and obtain a license signed by the Constable and Mayor of the town, to practice such profession, business or trade. Any person engaged in or practicing any profession, business or trade taxed by any ordinance of this town, without having first paid the tax and obtained the license shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be fined fifty dollars.

Ordinance 39. There shall be an annual tax of five dollars for the privilege of carrying on the business of weigher—and any person who shall weigh any produce in the corporate limits of the town for pay or compensation without having paid said tax, shall be fined for each offense one dollar; provided, however, that the provisions of this ordinance shall not apply to the town weigher, elected by the commissioners of the town, nor to the cotton weigher, elected by the commissioners of the county, in respect to the weighing of cotton.

Ordinance 40. Any person who shall sell or offer for sale any prize boxes or patent medicines of any kind within the corporate limits of the town must first obtain and pay a license of five dollars. Said license will entitle him to sell for one year from date. This shall not apply to the regularly licensed merchants of the town.

Ordinance 41. Any person convicted of violating any one of the ordinances of the town who is not able to pay the fine and cost imposed upon him, may be confined at hard labor on the streets of the town until the fine and costs are paid.

Ordinance 42. Every person required to list property or polls in the town of Louisburg, shall make out and deliver to the list-taker a statement on oath of all real and personal property, money, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint stock companies, annuities or otherwise, and the value of improvements on real estate since the same was assessed, in his possession or under his control on the 1st day of June, either as owner or holder thereof, or as parent, husband, guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, agent, factor or otherwise.

Ordinance 43. All taxes for the town of Louisburg (except license taxes) shall be due and collectible on the first day of October in each year and every person failing to pay his taxes by the 1st of December in every year, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and he or she in conviction before the Mayor, shall be liable to the amount of said taxes, provided, however, that said tax shall not be assessed until after the 1st day of October.

Ordinance 44. After conviction and judgment for the violation of any of the ordinances of the town the Mayor is authorized to remit so much of the penalty as in his judgment the circumstances may warrant.

Ordinance 45. The penalties designated in the foregoing ordinances shall be recovered by the Mayor, in the name of the Commissioners of the town of Louisburg.

LICENSES:

On each exhibition, concert or lecture for 25 cents, except the same be given exclusively for religious, charitable or educational purposes, for each performance $5.

On dances, for each performance, $10.

On Peddlers $10 per month.

On all halls or warehouses let or hired for entertainments, $15 per year.

On every company of Gypsies or other persons pretending to tell fortunes, $10 per year.

On itinerant dealers in Lightning rods $5 per year.

On itinerant dealers in stores, ranges, clocks, $10 per year.

On auctioneer or cryer $2 per year.

On each billiard or pool table kept for public use whether in connection with or separate from any place where liquor is sold $10 per year.

On each bowling alley, or other of the like kind, bagatelle tables, or stand or place for any other game or play, with or without a name (unless for private amusement or exercise alone) $5.

On liquor dealers $100 per year.

On every itinerant dentist, medical practitioner, optician, portrait or miniature painter, daguerrean artist, and every person taking or enlarging likenesses of the human face, $3.

J. A. THOMAS, Mayor.
GEO. S. BAKER, Clerk.