TO PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS.

The Superintendent of Public Schools of Franklin county will be in Louisburg on the second Thursday of February, April, July, Sep-tember, October and December, and remain for three days, if necessary. for the purpose of examining appliconts to teach in the Public Schools withis county. I will also be in Ludsburg on Saturday of each x . k, and all public days, to attend to any business connected with my

J. N. HARRIS, Supt.

Professional cards. (M. COORE & SON,

A CFORNEYS-AT-LAW, LOUISBURG, N. C.

Will attend the courts of Nash, Franklin Grand III - Warren and Wake counties, also the Capraide Court of North Caroling, and the U. Caroling and District Courts. IN. J. E. MALONE.

tore, adjoining Dr. O. L. Ellis.

R. W. H. NICHOLSON, PRACTICING PHYSICIAN,

LOUISBURG, N. C. W TIMBERLAKE,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, LOUISB JRG, N. C. Chee on Nash street.

S. SPRUILL,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, LOUISBURG, N. C.

Will attend the courts of Franklin, Vanco Grant'lla. Warren and Wake counties, also the Supreme Court of North Carolina, Prompt attention given to collections, &c. Y. GULLEY.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

FRANKLINDON, N. C. All legal business promptly attended to. MARIOR B. WILDER,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, LOUISBURG, N. C. Other on Main street, one door below Eagle Hat L

M. PERSON. W. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

LOUISBURG, N. C. Practices in all courts. Office in the Court the money had to be paid outright."

NOTICE.

Having qualified as Executor of Wils in Gay, all persons indebted to his esrelice will be pleaded in bar of their re covery. This December 8, 1893. THOS. GAY. Ex'r.

NOTICE.

n a contain mortgage made by C. H. Jackconsists in book 87 at page 216, I will on you by Feb. 5th 1894 offer for sale to the draftying on Louisburg and Warthe road near J. K. Spencer's and condve months. January 5th, 1894. F. G. TERRELL, mortgagee, Those B. Willer, Attorney.

LAND FOR SALE.

Py virtue of authority given by mortrace dead executed by Wm. W. Womoth nd recorded in Book 63, page 408, in the Hee of Register of Deedsfor Franklin coun-House door in Louisburg on Monday Feb;, 5th, 1854, at 12 o'clock, m. for each, the tract of land described in said mortgage, containing one hundred and one acres, situnted in Freeman's township in Franklia just a little." minty on Davis creek adjoining the lands of Mrs. Mary H. King, J. P. Timberlake, domes Jones and others This January

J. P. TIMBERLAKE, mortgagee. NOTICE.

In accordance with a decree of the Suneran court of Franklin county made in the case of P. J. Diment. exr., vs Mrs. E. E. Diment et als, to make real estate assets. the undersigned Commissioner will on Tuesday January 23, 1894 (court week) offer for sale at the Court House door in Louisburg, two tracts of land formerly belonging to P J Diment, deceased, viz. one tract known as res Parrish tract containing 111 acres ad-Illation and others and the other known as the low ground tract containing about 83 heres adjoining the lands of James Bledsoe, b. E. Lancaster and others. Terms of sale, the fourth cash, balance with 8 per cent interest payable December 1st, 1894.

THOS. B. WILDER, Commissioner. The thore sale was postponed until Monday, February 5th, 189 .

NOTICE.

Having qualified as administrator of N. H. Murphy, dec'd., all persons owing his estate are notified to pay the same at once and all persons holding claims against said estate must present them on or before No ven ber 10, 1894, or this notice will be pleed in bar of their recovery, This No-

A. S. TUCKER, Adm'r.

NOTICE.

I'aving this day qualified as administrator on the estate of John W. Ham. all persons owing said estate are requested to settle, and all who have claims against said estate to present them on or before the 1st day of December 1894, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery.

J. T. HAM, Admr, W. M. Person, Attorney. Dec. 1st, 1893.

COPYRIGHTS.

CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT? For a prompt answer and an honest opinion, write to MUNN & CO., who have had nearly fifty years' experience in the patent business. Communications strictly confidential. A Handbook of Information concerning Patents and how to obtain them sent free. Also a catalogue of mechanical and scientific books sent free.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice in the Scientific American, and thus are brought widely before the public without cost to the inventor. This splendid paper, issued weekly, elegantly illustrated, has by far the largest circulation of any scientific work in the world. $3 a year. Sample copies sent free.

Building Edition, monthly, $2.50 a year. Single copies, 2.5 cents. Every number contains beautiful plates, in colors, and photographs of new houses, with plans, enabling builders to show the latest designs and secure contracts. Address MUNN & CO., NEW YORK, 361 BROADWAY.

IMPECUNIOUS LOVERS

THEY BUY ENGAGEMENT AND WED-DING RINGS ON CREDIT.

Contract to Pay on the Installment Pian, and the Fair Sweethearts Never Know About It-An Interesting Talk With a Confidential Clerk.

An engagement ring contracted for on the installment plan is now as comtion a business transaction as the fitting up of a boarding house on the same easy payment plan. There are several New York jewelry firms which do a prosperous business among prospective bridegrooms on the credit system.

One of these is located on a promirings and wedding rings are here sold on credit, the weekly payment being 50 bashful young man asked the chief clerk to show hish some rings suitable to present to a young lady.

"Engagement ring, eh?" said the clerk in a confidential undertone. 'Here you are, sir, the very latest. orty-five dollars-exquisite stoneyment in 10 months. This shell ring sour own design. Any girl would have fits over it. See that dainty spiral thread of gold about the setting? That emphasizes the gem and makes it appear worth more than it is. You can t better yourself, sir. Pay cash and you'll get a discount of $5."

The young man seemed much impressed. He gave the measurement of the little finger of his fair charmer and left his name and references.

In his pocket as he went out he carried a stupendous contract printed in red ink, which stipulated that "in case of nonpayment according to the terms of contract, etc., the ring must be forfeited."

"That's a fair sample," said the clerk in enswer to a question. "That fellow represents a certain element of middle class society. Most of the hardworking young men buy rings for their sweethearts that way. The girls would

Another shy young man was ushered in, and the clerk motioned him to a private room adjoining the main office. There they were closeted for several minutes, and then the clerk emerged to tate are requested to pay the same at seal a contract with the new customer. once, and all persons holding claims The necessity of the private audience a rains the said estate will present them room, it seems, is because financial emon or before December 8, 1834, or this barrassment, coupled with native modesty, prevents lovers in the first stage from divulging the terms upon which they wish to pay for a ring. They prefer to state their case unheard by any one except the head clerk, who, in the course By virtue of the power of sale contained of his business, has cultivated a profound sympathy for the entire race of sweethearts.

"Oh, they tell some pathetic stories," highest to be at the Court House door in said the clerk. "They let me into all har the place whereon said Jackson their secrets gratuitously. One very devoted young lover told me the other Terms, one fourth cash, day that he earned $4 a week, but with interest at 8 per cent. in couldn't get married until he had been raised to $5. When advanced to this position of opulence, he thought he could afford to buy a diamond ring on installments of 50 cents a week.

"But it is in the case of lapses that I hear the most pathetic tales. As a rule our customers are straightforward and honest. As long as a young man has I will sell at public auction at the Court | work we have no difficulty in getting his money. When he loses his position, be usually lets us know, and then if the fellow is honest we ease up on him

> "But what if the girl and the ring disappear simultaneously?" he was asked. 'Oh, the young man always pays up, and if the girl has thrown him over you can bet he never tells any one about it. "There are lots of well to do young men who spend $30 or $40 in a night for pleasure and who do business with us because they prefer to regard jewelry as a luxury and pay for it on time.

"Here, for instance, is a ring made to order for a broker down town," and the clerk held up a diamond ring valned at $250, which had been made to fit the finger of some metropolitan belle who may never know the "terms of the

"I don't know of a single instance where a girl has had to forfeit her ring. In case she had a dishonest man or a sneak for a lover the case would be rather embarrassing. But as a rule the blushing bride elect knows nothing about the installments, for our customers come promptly to the office and pay up every Saturday.

'There are some cases where we have to unbend a trifle, as, for instance, where there has been a death in the family. When a sad faced young fellow steps into my private office and tells me confidentially that he has lost his father and must help pay the funeral expenses, or that he has spent all his available capital in celebrating Thanksgiving or Fourth of July the day before, then he can usually count upon the sympathy of the firm. "Of course we run great risks, but we never sell to anybody without looking up their references.'

The investigation blank, which, when filled, establishes the purchaser's integrity of character, should contain the ate of contract, name of applicant, house address, business occupation, business address, references, time employed in present position, description of engagement or wedding ring and a host of other details.

The form of contract is suitably verbose, and the red tape involved is sufficient to make a young lover feel the responsibility and importance of having creditors.-New York World.

Considerate.

"Why don't you take me with you sometimes of evenings, dear? I get so tired of staying at home alone." "Because I can't afford to dress you | could hear the dear little fellow talk as well as myself. I don't want to be when he gets caught at something and seen around with a woman dressed as tries to make me believe that he didn't you are."-Indianapolis Journal. do it, -Good News.

THE MECCA OF LEISURE.

A Place For Wealthy Prople Who Desire Comfortable Indolence. Washington is rapidly becomi a favorite place of residence for people who have made fortunes elsewhere, and who are devoting the remainder of their lives to having a good time in a quiet way. There is a large colony of such families, and they contribute enormously to the general stock of elegant and comfortable indolence for which the city is noted. Then there are the retired army and navy officers. Their Lame is legion, and Washington is their favorite place to live. You see them in great numbers in the clubs, on the thoroughfares, in society. Nor must nent down town stret. Engagement any other city in this country, size for The piece do resistance, which indeed cents. At this store the other day a zens in all ranks of life, gravitate to about 3 inches square, that lay on top of the Capital City as the pleasantest place.

they know of to pass the autumn of life. The diplomatic corps comprises several hundred more or less idle and fashionable men and women. Literary and scientific men, especially those enjoying incomes and independence from inherited or other sources, are numerous in Washington. Always the city contains thousands of visitors attracted by the peculiar interest which attaches to the seat of government.

Is it any wonder that we have here an ease loving and an ease enjoying population? Are you surprised that Washington laziness has become proverbial throughout the country? Do you marvel that our streets and avenues are rialtoes in which comfortableness, fashion, stantly displayed?

gives an air of elegance to the thorougha floor, are themselves elegant. The The bicycles, numbered literally by thou- nity of his benign master. lack somewhat of action.—Washington

She Wasn't His Wife.

The man got into a street car comfortably filled and crowded into a seat next to a sharp faced woman in the corner. He squeezed her up against the end of the car, took out a newspaper, and shoving it half across her face began to read. She stood it for about five min-

"Excuse me," she said then, "are you a married man?" He dropped his paper and looked at

'Yes," he replied curtly.

"I thought so," she went on. "Ain't your wife a little woman that won't say her soul's her own and lets you impose on her all you want to? I suppose she carries in the coal, builds the fires, gets your slippers, does the marketing, mends your clothes, tends to the children, submits like a lamb when you find fault and is generally an excellent wife, ain't she?"

"Madam"- he began. "Don't say a word," she interrupted. 'I'm not your wife, am I?"

"No, and I'm"--"That's all right. And as I'm not I don't propose to have you sitting down on me and crowding me up in this corner till I can't breathe without wheezing like a steam engine. Why don't you get out and walk?" and the passengers snickered so that he did .- Detroit

Found Them Invaluable. "I suppose typewriters are very common now," said she musingly as she chair after dinner. "Oh, yes," he said, "they're quite a necessity in every line of business." "You have one?" she asked.

"Yes, indeed," he replied as he hastily looked over the evening paper. "I'd feel lost without one." 'Lightens your work, does it?"

out one for the world." "Saves time, too, I suppose?"

hardly notice it." "How much does a good typewriter cost, John?"

"Oh, not much," he said absentmindedly. "You can get a rattling the bride and her family declaring that pretty one for $12 or $15 a week." Before he had time to read the first sentence of the article he had started on ness of the fact that wife was referring to machines, not operators, and that take. - Chicago Post.

Peg Tankards. The pegging or marking of drinking cups was introduced by St. Dunstan'to check the intemperate habits of the times by preventing one man from taking a larger draft than his companions. But the device proved the means of increasing the evil it was intended to remedy, for, refining upon St. Dunstan's plan, the most absternious were required to drink precisely to a peg or pin, whether they could soberly take such a a person is much elated, we will say, He is in a merry pin," and "He is a peg too low," when he is not in good spirits. On the same principle we talk of "taking a man down a peg" when we would check forwardness. -Sala's Journal.

An Active Mind. Fond Mother-My boy has a very active mind, don't you think? Teacher-Assuredly. I wish you

GENERAL LEE'S CHRISTMAS FARE.

There Were Cabbage and Bacon, but the Bacon Was Only Borrowed. As the fortune of war has favored his larder, through some skillful foraging of Ephraim, a negro, who was his faithful cook, bodyservant and waiterthree gentlemen in one-General Lee invited several officers to dine with him on Christmas day, 1864. The lucky recipients of the timely invitation were five in number, all officers of distinction, among them Generals Longstreet, Gordon and Kershaw. They were all on time when the dinner was called. It was served on a rough pine table, without a cover, in General Lee's weather leaten tent. It consisted of boiled cabthe widows be overlooked. There are bage, and eight or ten boiled sweet pomore widows in Washington than in tatoes and a dish of rice cooked dry. size. The widows of public men, of the knightly guests found it hard to army and navy officers, of private citi- resist, was a small bit of fat bacon, the large cabbage. Now, bacon was as rare in the Confederate camp at that time as are roses on the northern hilltops in December. You can imagine, therefore, the self restraint exercised by each guest as they declined in turn a slice of the delectable meat proffered by their host, who held the carving knife and fork ready to cut and help.

It was observed that when the general, after helping to the cabbage, said to the guest whose plate Ephraim held out, "Allow me to help you to a slice of the bacon?" the devoted old servitor's hand trembled greatly. In fact, he seemed to be in a state of decided fright. The high military rank of the guests would not account for his trepidation, for he daily served near a massuperficiality, even insincerity, are con- ter who outranked them all. There was no splendor lett in the tracery of The street life of Washington is al- faded gold-lace on their battle stained ways interesting. The good dressing uniforms to dazzlo his eyes and cause them to roll about and glance from bafares, which, with their famous shade | con to guest, and from guest to bacon, trees and pavements smooth and clean as as each answered the half question with the words, "No, thank you, general." number of noted men and beautiful | The discomposure of the serving man women to be seen in any given walk or was all the more striking from its condrive adds to the charm of the scene. trast with the serene, self poised dig-never get any engagement ring at all if sands, add the spice of rapidity and Dinner over, the general and his whirl to a picture that might otherwise guests retired from the tent, but as they passed out General Lee turned and said in a low tone, "Ephraim, we have another cabbage, have we not?"

The answer was, "Yes, sah, Mass Bob. We's got anndder cabbage, sah." "Then, Ephraim," said the general, "save the piece of bacon to cook with that cabbage."

The prompt and decisive reply, "No, sah, Maes Bob, I can't do dat! I jis borrow dat piece of bacon for seasonin from a friend ober dar in Richmon, and I done gib up my parole ob bonor dat I'll gib him back dat same bacon what

The general, who could not be a party to any man's violation of his parole of , honor, consented at once to the return of the bacon that had so successfully run the gantlet of six hungry diners. He must have reflected, too, on the extremity of his fortunes that led to the borrowing of a part of his Christmas dinner on the hard condition that it should be returned untouched. - His New Year's dinner was still more meager, I judge, from what he indicated to General Grant next day. A flag of truce had been sent into the Confederate lines with an inquiry regarding a Union officer who had been wounded and taken prisoner, and the officer who bore it, after stating its object, said, "General Lee, I am directed by General Grant to give you his compliments and to say that he is thoroughly informed as to all your movements, and even knows what you had for dinner yesterday." General Lee took the pleasantry in good part and answered, "Please, captain, present my compliments to General Grant and say that I must doubt settled back in her favorite rocking the correctness of his information, for I know him to be a humane man, and if he had known what I had for my dinner he would have sent me a part of his own."-Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Bridal Bouquet. A German horticultural journal is responsible for this story about a bridal "Lightens it? Why, it makes it an bouquet: A certain schoolteacher in absolute pleasure. I wouldn't be with- the town of Konitz had ordered a bouquet for his wedding day, stipulating that it should not cost more than 4 "It makes it pass so rapdily that you marks ($1), but not designating what kind of flowers should be selected. It was in the autumn, when hothouse flowers were few and dear, so the florist composed it of white dahliss, but these flowers were unfit for the purpose the schoolteacher returned the bouquet to its maker and refused to pay for it. he was suddenly jarred into conscious- The florist then sued him, but the position of the schoolmaster was sustained in court, in accordance with the somehow he had made a serious mis- testimony of experts in matters of taste whom he had called in and who echoed the opinion of the bride. A similar result followed upon an appeal to a higher court, despite the that frequently paid his respects to the testimony of experts now summoned by the florist, and the florist was ordered to 800 marks.

A Furious Artesian Well. A furious artesian well was struck in Chamberlain, S. D., a few months ago. tion was a woman of gigantic propor- Look out for the sign of the At first, it sent out 3,000 gallons of wa- tions. Approaching him, she announced ter in a minute, but later the flow more in tones like thunder. "Within the year quantity of liquor or not. To the use than doubled. Water is forced through of such cups may be traced the origin | the pipe so vigorously that the solid of many of our popular phrases. When eight inch stream is thrown over 14 feet into the air. The famous well at St. Augustine, Fla., is the only well in the country which approaches this in force and quantity of flow .- New York Led-

She Went. Principal of Young Ladies' Seminary -No, Misa Dodge, I cannot allow you to drive with Mr. Nassau this afternoon. You know our rules are that no young lady shall drive with a man unless she is engaged to him. Miss Dodge-I know, but I hope to be engaged before we get back. - Princeton Tiger.

UNCLE SAM'S WINE CELLAR.

He Doesn't Drink, but He Has Lots of Ra: e Wines on Hand.

ghostly silence pervades the place. It is like the silence of the tomb. The outside world seems already centuries away. The air is cool and soothing, and three flaring gas jets cast an intricate combination of shadows upon the massive masonry of the arches, says a writer in the Boston Herald, in describing the wine vaults under the Boston custom bouse. After hundreds of years, when Boston is only a hole in the ground like the ancient cities in the Mediterranean. some archæologist will dig down through the accumulated dust of centuries and find those hewn arches standing as they stand now. And yet the whole substantial structure is like the foolish man's house, founded upon the sand and mud of Boston harbor. Three thousand tall pine trees stripped of their limbs, were driven down close together in the black coze to form a foundation for the building. These piles would last but a few short years in the outer air, but sunk in the harbor mud they are believed to be as indestructible as the earth itself.

was upon the water front, and even now the cellar is below high water mark, yet there is no drier cellar on Beacon | a cool place to become firm. Fry hill. The builders seemed to have been | in deep fat to a good brown. the builders of pyramids and catacombs reincarnate, and the work was done to stand after the builders themselves were long forgotten. Upon the heads of the piles, in the form of a Maltese cross, was laid a capping of granite in hydraulic cement. Around it were built the massive walls of solid granite 6 feet thick, which were to be a protection against heat and cold, fire the eggs very light, but do not and water and all the elements. Within these walls rose the puzzling scheme of sturdy pillars and arches which made the cellar a maze of low roofed cham- whisk the eggs in quickly and bers, niches, crypts and passages.

When the visitor enters the basement and storehouse, which is on the street up two minutes, when the eggs level, he feels instinctively conscious of will become thick and custard with the sellerif and the rest of the mages This floor, within the surrounding row like. Add the salt as you rethe huge pile of granite over his head. of offices, is used for the storage of move from the fire. Serve in a of offices, is used for the storage of champagne and bottled wines. The beated covered dish, either alone HARVERS VERKLY piled in regular tiers as high as the ceiling, and under the main entrance they This receipe makes enough for the sector and the in are packed in solidly. There are usually three persons. between 3,000 and 4,000 cases, or over 40,000 bottles, which if popped all at once would make the granite dome tremble and might drown the attendants in a foaming flood.

When a consignment of rum, which means anything from champagne to brandy, is landed from a foreign vessel, the government orders it to be sent to flour, and 2 of corn meal. With the custom house cellar. If no owner appears to claim it, it is kept for a year and then is sold at auction to pay the duties and warehousing charges.

If the owner appears, he can pay the duties and withdraw his liquor for immediate consumption, or he can give stored in the government vaults until he wishes to withdraw it. The government charges him storages according to him to take it away by degrees as be needs it, paying duty only on the amount withdrawn.

Very often an importation of wine and spirits may change bands several times while it lies in bond deep under the granite dome. In such cases it is sold in bond, and the owner, instead of the importer, pays the duties and makes the final entry of the merchandise.

An Explanation From Disraeli. Mr. Justin McCarthy, discoursing on the house of commons, related a capital story of Disraeli. It was during the Russo-Turkish war, and while relations were very strained between England and the czar a member was indiscreet enough to put a question to Disraeli, who was then prime minister, as to the policy of the government in the event of the emperor of Russia doing a certain Members shuddered as Disraeli, with a most funereal face, slowly advanced to the table. The question, he declared. in a slow, measured voice, was one of such perilous moment that the honorable member acted most unwisely in putting it on the paper, yet it was a question of such importance that the only course now open to the government was to accept the inevitable and boldly answer. "If," declared Disraeli, the emperor takes this step, all I can say is—and I am speaking after a prolonged consultation with my colleagues -the government will then give the policy they are to pursue their very best consideration. '- Westminster Gazette.

Cromwell and the Specter.

The stories of the "White Lady" that periodically visits the German royal family and of the "Little Red Man" great Napoleon, are tolerably well known, especially that of the former. to pay the costs of the suit, amounting | But few perhaps are familiar with the story of Cromwell's "Giant Specter." It appeared to him one night when he was wide awake and quietly resting on and will be glad to have his patrons his couch. In appearance the appariyou, my son, will be recognized as the greatest man in Britain."-St. Louis Re-

La Grippe.

During the prevalence of the Grippe the past seasons it was a noticeable fact New Discovery, not only had a speedy rethat those who depended upon Dr. King's some after effects of the malady. This remedy seems to have a peculiar power in effecting rapid cures, not only in cases of La Grippe, but in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs, and has cured cases of door below Jones & Cooper's new buildasthma and hay fever of long standing.

Try it and be convinced. It won't disappoint. Free trial bottles at Aycocke & EDWARD PORTIS.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.-Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

LITTLE HELPS.

of cold boiled hominy; I egg beat- sive, but there are men who wi! en light; pinch of salt; teaspoon- endeavor to get round it .- Philful of sugar; a little milk. Beat adelphia Ledger. the egg tate the bominy, mash it free from lumps. Add milk cautiously until the hominy is as soft as neuralgia and rheumatism is unque as it can be handled. Stir in the salt and sugar and form the mix-When it was built, the custom house | ture into croquetts with floured until it has become a household dearbands. Set aside for an hour in equipped without it.

> A "FOOL" FOR BREAKFAST eggs; 1 pint sweet milk; 2 desect spoonsfull of sugar; & teaspoon. spoonsfuli of sugar; \(\frac{1}{2}\) teaspoon- leading formula America to its aptendial ful of salt. Put the milk, with tributors in the army of reserve the sugar in it on to sould. Best specialises it irons in the highest order the sugar in it on to scald. Beat separate the whites and volks. When the milk is almost boiling, stir half a minute. Let it boil sprint Mast another forms by the up two minutes, when the eggs hences falor softhedally pier and its distribution of the daily pier and distribution of the daily pier and daily p or on slices of bittered toast HARRESTON NO PROFILE of the best buck wheat flour allow the transfer of the transfer was y large tablespoonfuls of good the year of the best lets bin as warm water mix this into a very receipt of $100 cm.

Stiff batter and set it in a warm Modey Order or Draft, to av. d chance of the place to rise. Mix it up about nine o'clock at night. Next Butters Harren & Brothers, New York. morning mix half of a level teabonds for the duties and keep his stock spoonful of soda in a cupful of fresh milk, and stir it into the batter, thinning it sufficiently to the capacity of packages and allows use. This quantity will make cakes enough for four persons breakfast.

> BREAKFAST MUFFINS .- One pint of flour; a pinch of salt, fresh milk enough to mix a thin batter. Three eggs beaten light and added to the batter just before baking. Grease well three sets of "gem" pans, fill with the batter and set them in a very hot stove. In fifteen minutes they abould be done, and if properly made, as light as possible. No lard must manren's nature 4 cm be put in them .- Southern Culti-

To Build Up

Your System and restore

Your Strength Invigorate Your Liver and

Purify Your Blood Strengthen Your Nerves and Give An Appetite Take that excellent Medicine

P. P. P. [Prickly Ash Poke Root and Po tassium.]

REMOVED. Jacob Evans, the celebrated Boot and Shoe Maker of Louisburg, has moved his shop to the house on Main street, recently occupied by Ferril Parrish, send in any work desired in his line. THE BIG BOOT.

CHANKLINTON HOTEL E. M. WARD, Prop'r.

Good accommodations. pulite servants, and the best fare the market affords. Good Livery in connection with hote !

The average waist of woman, a woman's journal asserts, has it cre used from 19 inches to 24 inch a HOMINY CROQUETTS .- Two cups within five years. It looks el -

> The greatest cure for pains of all kinds, whether preceeding from on a and burns, or from other ailments such tionably Salvation Oil. This popular and effective remedy has continually gained in the confidence of the people eratum. No dwelling is completely > > 1894.

HARPER'S WEEKLY ILLUSTRATED.

in fittin the most papel ratory writers from the to day on the hopert drawings the for most artists it estrate its special

HARPER'S PERIODICALS

BUCKWHEAT CAKES .- To 1 pin' gir will the Number of the best of the time

Newspipers as not to op this advert - mint without the express order of Hanras a 1894. HARPER'S MAGAZINE. ILLUSTRATED.

Harper's Magazine for 1894 will maintain the character that has made it the favorite Phasitrated periodical for the home. Among the irsted periodical for the home. Among the results of onterprises undertaken by the pullshers, there will appear during the year warn roly illustrated papers on India by Bow e Lord Weeks, on the Japanese Fensous by Alfred Parson's, on Germany, by Poultney Bislow, on Paris by Bi hard Harding Davis on Mexico by Producte Remington, Amount the other notable features of the year will movels by George on Maurier and Charle Dutley Warner, the personal reminiscent of W. D. Howells, and eight about stories of Western fronties life by Owen Wister. Fig. 5 Western fronties life by Owen Wister Floratories will also be contributed by Brain ... Matthews, Richard Harling Davis, Mrry Wilkins, Ruch M. Enry Stuart, Miss Lauren Alma Tadema, George A. Hitchard, Queer of de Beaurepaire, Thomas Nelson Page and et h ers. Articles on topics of current inter a will be contributed by distinguished speci. in

HARPER'S PERIODICALS. HARPER'S WEEKLY..... Postage free to all subscribers in time

United States, Canada and Mexico. The volumes of the Weekly bgirs with the numbers for June and December of each year. When no time is specific a subscriptions will begin with the unen' . r current at the time of receipt of order. Bound volumes of Harper's Werkle for three years back, in nest cloth hind a will be sent by muil, post-paid for $3 ! per volume. (loth cases, for binding, icents each-by mail, post-paid. Remissances should be made by to office money order or draft, to at-

Newspapers are not to copy this air lisement without the express order Harper & Brothers HARPER & BROTHERS, New York chance of loss.

CAUTION-If a dealer offers W.) Douglas those at a reduced price, or at: he has them without name simped on bottom, put him down as a fraud.

W. L. DOUGLAD 83 SHOE THE WORLD

W. L. DOUGLAS Shoes are stylish, eary 72ting, and give better entiafaction at the pricevertised thin any other make. Try one past to be tecoviered. The stamping of W. L. Loug I name and price on the bottom, which guirant, a their value, saves thousands of dollars analy?
to those who wear them. Drafers who park is able of W. L. Dougker Shoes gain custom which helps to increase the rales on their full?
of mods. They can offeed to sell at a less year your focusion of the dealer advertised by Catalogue free moon application. Addersing W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockers. M. S.

JONES & COOPER. LOUISBURG, M. C.