

EAT CROW.

The leaders of the Fusionists must "eat crow" and their followers must take a bite too. In the last campaign it could be heard on all sides, "we are as good Democrats as ever, but we are opposed to rings, caucuses, &c."

WHO IS FRED. DOUGLASS?

A subscriber to the Times wants to know "who is Fred. Douglass?" Well, he is nobody, now. He once was, but is no more.

The Charlotte Observer says that much fuss has been made by the Republican press on account of the President having gone on another hunting expedition on a light-house tender, taking Dr. Reilly, the surgeon of the army, with him.

HAS ADJOURNED.

Just before going to press the Times received a telegram which brought the pleasant information that the "mob" at Raleigh, (for according to the proceedings of the past few days that is what it ought to be called) had adjourned Wednesday night.

BUTLER'S PRIVATE SECRETARY OUGHT TO BE IN THE PENITENTIARY.

News-Observer.

Friday's Charlotte Observer and News-Observer contained a statement that John B. Hussey had taken the oath as private Secretary to Senator Butler.

We had hoped, after his election to the Senate, that Mr. Butler would have some faint desire not to bring odium upon the State, and some ambition to win the respect of honest men and women.

1. Nine years ago this fellow Hussey was a Democrat, and the editor of the Greensboro Patriot. When Cleveland was elected, he applied for a position in Washington, and the Democrats in Congress secured him the position as chief of a division in the Treasury Department.

2. During the campaign of 1892, this same fellow Hussey was sent into this State as a spy by the National Republican Executive Committee.

3. When Mr. Cleveland was inaugurated President, Hussey, by pretending to be a Democrat, wormed himself into the confidence of a Western Democratic Congressman, who was on the point of making Hussey his private secretary.

Do You Believe In Buying Goods

Where you can do the best? that is, buy the best goods, and for less than you can anywhere else? or do you just go right along and buy wherever you happen to be?

Buying goods, like most other things, has come to be an art.

There can be no doubt that some merchants sell goods for less than some others, and in this day of "hustle," and little money, it stands every one in hand to find out where the cheap store is—not the store that sells trashy no account goods, at almost any price, but the reliable store where you can buy what you want, and the best quality for less than you can get the same article anywhere else.

From The Prices Given Below

It will be seen that W. P. NEAL & CO., is the store in Louisburg to buy your goods:

36 inch wool cashmeres in all colors formerly sold for 30 cents only 15 cents per yard. Doubled width wool worsted only 10 cents. Crown suitings all styles only 5 cents. Parasols all the light shades for shirt waist 5 cents. Best quality dress gingham sold elsewhere for 7 cents only 5 cents. Yard wide heavy bleaching soft finish only 5 cents yard. Good brown domestic 3/4". Large variety of Pant cloth 7 cents.

The above is only a few of our many bargains in dry-goods. Remember you will have an entire new stock to select from bought at lower prices than a stock was ever bought before for this market.

We are also headquarters for GROCERIES. Car load flour received every 30 days at $2.75 per barrel. Call to see us.
