Education Better Than Wealth.

Channey M. Depew. 12 00

It has been my lot in the peculiar position which I have occupied for over a quarter of a century of counsel and advisor for a great corporation and its creditors, and of the many successful men in business who have surrounded them, to know how men who have been denied in their youth the opportunities for education feel when they Upon Which no Extra Fare is Charged are possessed of fortunes and the world seems at their feet. Then they painfully recognize their weakness, then they understand that there are things which money cannot buy, and that there are gratifications and triumphs which no fortune can secure. The one lament of all those men has been, "Oh, if I had been educated! I would sacrifice all that I have to attain the opportunities of the college; to be able to sustain not only conversation and discussion with ington to Norfolk, and Washington steamthe educated men with whom I come in contact, but competent also to enjoy what I see is a delight to them beyond anything which I know."

Right or Left.

It has been asserted with much authorative emphasis, that inability to sleep on the left side is iudicative of disorder or feebleness of the heart. But here comes somebody who talks thus about sleeping on the left side: "It is the most prolific cause of nightmare, and also of the unpleasant taste in the mouth on arising in the morning. All food enters and leaves follows. the stomach on the right side, and hence sleeping on the left side soon after eating involves a sort of pumping operation which is anything but conducive to sound repose. The action of the heart is at $26.25 from Washington and $23.65 also seriously interfered with and the lungs unduly compressed. the lungs unduly compressed. Hence it is best to cultivate the habit of always sleeping on the right side, although Sandow and other strong men are said to invalid of the 3 00 1 doctors disagree," but our experience is that if you are going on a journey, and secure a compartment in the Pullman Sleeper on the Seaboord Air Line's fast and famous "Atlanta Special," it will not make any difference on which a side you sleep—you will have a side you sleep a side you sleep—you will have a side you sleep a side you sl side you sleep—you will have a good rest—and the run will be made and further information furnished upon application to any Agent of the Seaboard Air Line, or to the undersigned.
