Ve Vant Orders.
I picked up the following the other day, which I think is quite amusing. It is supposed to be a letter sent out by a Chicago house to one of its drummers: ADD FLEETING.
Chicago, Nov. 25, 1896.
Mr. Einstein, Columbus, O.— Dear Sir: Ve haf received your letter von de 18th, mit exbense agount und roundlist. Vat ve vant is orders. Ve have blenty maps in New York von which to make our roundlists, also big families to make exbenses. Mr. Einstein, ve fant in your exbense agount $2.50 for billiards. Blease don't buy any more billiards for us. Vat ve vant is orders. Also, ve do see $7.50 for a horse unt buggy. Vere is de horse unt vat did you do mit de buggy? De rest von your agount is nix als schleebers.
Vy is it you don't ride more by day times?
Ve sent you to-day by fraide, two boxes zegars, one costed $1.40 de oder 90c. You can schmoke de dollar fordy box: gif de orders, to your gustomer. Ve sendet you also sambles of an negtie, vot costed us $7.00 a gross. Sell dem for $7.25 a dozen. If you can't get $7.25 dake $2.25 Dey is a novelty as ve haf dem for two years unt ain't sold none. Vat ve vant is orders.
My brudder Louie says you shoud stop in Hamilton, O. His gousin Max Blum lifs dere. Louie says vat you shoud sell Blum is a good bill. Dry on him dese neg-tives. Sell him mostly for cash.
Dell him ve vant orders. Also Louie says vat you can leave Columbus at 11:30 in de night unt get by Hamilton at 3:25 in de morning. Louie says do dis unt you, von't need no schleebers. You schpout to much for schleebers.
Vat ve vant is orders.
Don't date any more bills ahead, as de days is longer in summer as in winter. Louie says don't show Max Blum, his gousin, any of de good sellers. Unt remember Mr.
Einstein vit us eder von do 'business or you don't do noding at all.
Vat ve vant is orders. Yours truly, MOSES GUGGENHEIMER & BRO., JOBBERS.

EDUCATION.
Work in Abundance for All Our Educational Institutions.
From Gov. Carr's Message.
The people, I repeat, are the State. The University and the other schools, which for convenience we call State schools, belong to the people and to the people alone. Every citizen whether he be church member or not, is a part owner of each of these schools; and as such, is interested in them. It then becomes a question as to whether the people, the whole people or a majority of them are willing to be taxed to keep up their schools. You are the chosen representatives of the people—the whole people, and they must speak through you. It is for me to recommend and you to act. If you supply the means, the people's University, and their other schools, will continue to prosper, to benefit and to bless the whole people. If you withhold the means the schools will languish and the whole people will be hurt thereby.
I therefore urge you not to lessen by one dollar the people's support to the University and their other schools. I am sure the present appropriations are barely sufficient to enable them to do the work that lies before them. If you make any change in these appropriations I beg that you will increase them.
To the end that their work and usefulness may be increased. If any tickings, jealousy, or animosities have sprung up between those engaged in teaching or in managing the State schools, and those engaged in like work in the denominational schools, it is to be deplored; and I sincerely trust the cause, if any exists, will speedily be removed and that all of these institutions of learning will find it agreeable to work in harmony and in a christian spirit, to form a holy alliance for the unity and enlightenment of our people for the uplifting of humanity and for the education of the sons and daughters of North Carolina. There should be no antagonisms between these institutions.
There is work in abundance for them all to do and the success of one does not depend upon the failure of another.

Household Hints.
Drudge the top of a cake with flour before icing, and the icing will not run.
Boiled ham, tongue or beef should be cooled in the water in which it was boiled, as this makes it moist and tender.
Copper gauze is more durable for the window and screen doors used in seaside cottages than the ordinary wire netting.
To keep onions white after boiling do not cook too long, nor in an iron pot. Cooled in agate-iron or in porcelain-lined tattle and removed as soon as boiled they will be white and good to look at.
When grease is spilled on the kitchen floor or table, pour cold water over it instantly. By so doing it will harden, instead of sinking into the pores of the wood, and then can be easily removed.
Very serious illness may often be traced to sleeping in a damp bed. To test it lay between the sheets a hand mirror. If it is at all blurred or misty, take off the sheets and sleep between the blankets.
Dr. Willing says: "A simple remedy for a cold in the head is the juice of a ripe lemon. This is squeezed into the hand and sniffed well up the nose. Two or three applications may be necessary."

Pay a Taxor Marry.
New York Tribune.
A queer law has been introduced by the legislators of Argentine Republic. It went into effect January 1, and reads in part as follows:
"Young celibates of either sex who shall, without legitimate motive, reject the addresses of him or her who may aspire to his or her hand, and who continue contumaciously unmarried, shall pay the sum of 500 piastres for the benefit of the young person, man or woman, who has been refused." Another clause reads: "That every male from the age of twenty to eighty shall pay a tax till he marries, and shall pay it once in every month."
Republican Policies.
Asheville Citizen.
If there is any one thing that is more excruciatingly tiresome than another in these bank breaking and anti-mill opening days, it is to have New York papers that used all their influence to elect Republicans last fall objecting so loudly to the appointment of Republicans to office in that State, and denouncing so vehemently the incoming national administration for its determination to carry out Republican policies as to high tariff and the fostering of trusts.
The Republican party stood for these things before the election, and they are pledged to them now and the so-called Democrats who voted for them should at least have the decency to keep their mouths shut.
Gold braid and gold and silver threads are a telling feature of dress decoration this season, and boleros and entire waists are made of a cloth of gold. Military braid is employed for belts, with a gold clasp in rocco designs. Gold effects in any form are much sought after.

The Tramp.
The tramp is a product of modern civilization—the quintessence of idleness and indolence—a living, moving example of the drone in the hive of humanity. A tramp is constitutionally lazy and does not endeavor to better his condition. He consumes, but does not produce. He lives and moves and has his being; but it is at the expense of some one else.
We will admit that the tramp has one advantage over the industrious. Think of the romance of a nomadic life, and the luxury of a fragrant bed in sweet new-mown hay, with plenty of fresh air.
Then, too, think of living with no thought of bills to pay, and no looking out for to-morrow. These may be advantages, but they are dangerous thoughts for young men. They are, as it were, the primer lessons in tramping. This don't-care-a-dime-independent spirit is one to avoid. Every man is a worker in some sphere of life, and if he does not produce something, or earn something, he is consuming the earnings of others. If he will not work of his own volition, he should be made to work. Prosperous communities are fast adopting this plan.—Ex.
Noiseless Passenger Cars.

Notice!

of Sidney H. Jones, deceased. All persons interested to sell estate will make immediate payment and those having claims against the estate will present the same to me on or before the 11th day of December 1897, or this notice will be closed in bar of their necessary. This Dec. 9 1897.

ordinary wire netting.
ing do not cook too long, nor in
be white and good to look at.
moved.
Very serious illness may often
blankets.
Dr. Willing says: "A simple
sary."

Household Hints.
Drudge the top of a cake with
will not run.
it moist and tender.
ordinary wire netting.
