oman's Health and Home Journal. The nobility of life is work. We live in a working world. The idle and the lazy man does not count in the plan of campaign. "My father worked bitherto, and I work." Let that text be enough. Let your daily wisdom of life be in making good use of the opportunities given you. We live in a real and solid and truthful world In such a world only truth, in the long run, can hope to prosper Therefore avoid lies, mere show and sham and hollow superficiality of all kinds, which is at best a printed lie. Let whatever you are, and whatever you do, grow out of a firm root of truth and strong soil of reality. Never forget Paul's sentence: "Love is the fulfilling of the law." That is the steam of the social machine. Do one thing well, "be a whole man," as Chancellor Thurlow said, clean work and leave no tags." Allow no delays while you are at s thing. Quarrelsome People.

Some people are born with quarrelsome tendencies, but by far the greater number of those who spend their time in petty contentions have a quarrelsome disposition thrust upon them in childhood. Take, for example, a family in which there is a habit of bickering over trifles. One person announces at breakfast that uncle Robert and aunt Amanda are coming to call to-day after their drive from the farm and their visit at consin Sne's. Another instantly declares that the two relatives have no intention whatever of calling at consin Sue's, and a third says they are coming to morrow and not to-day.

The matter in dispute could be easily settled by a reference to the letter which gave the information, but nobody thinks of this, and the bousebold is agitated and upset by an undignified and absurd squabble, to no purpose whatever.

Worse still, the home atmosphere is disturbed, and the children learn to be cross and contraprone to learn the worst rather possible occasion.

It is a good rule in home life to avoid all arguments which tend to irritate or wound. Blessings on the memory of a saint of ninety years who once said to me, I being a girl of fifteen at the time: "Dear child, never insist on the isn't worth while. You can keep about a trifle .- Baltimore Advo-
