Sensationalism in Religion.

Henry Drummond tells this beautiful story which is now going the rounds of the religious press:

Two Americans who were crossing the Atlantic Ocean, met in the cabin on Sunday night to sing hymns. As they sang the last hymn "Jesus, Lover of my Soul," one of them heard a rich and exceedingly beautiful voice behind him. He looked around, and although he did not know the face he thought that he knew the voice, so when the music ceased, he turned and asked the man if he had not been in the civil war. The man replied that he had been a Confederate soldier.

"Were you at such a place on such a night?" asked the first.

"Yes," he replied, "and a curious thing happened that night which this hymn recalled to my mind. I was posted on sentry duty near the edge of a wood. It was a dark night and very cold, and I was a little frightened because the enemy were supposed to be very near. About midnight, when everything was very still and I was feeling homesick and miserable and weary, I thought I would comfort myself by praying and singing a hymn. I remember singing this hymn,—

"All my trust on Thee is stayed,
All my help from Thee I bring,
Cover my defenseless head
With the shadow of Thy wing."
After singing that, a strange force came down upon me, and through the long night I felt no more fear.

"Now," said the other, "listen to my story. I was a Union soldier and was in the wood that night with a party of scouts. I saw you standing although I did not see your face. My men had their rifles focused upon you waiting for the word to fire, but when you sang out—

"Cover my defenseless head
With the shadow of thy wing,"
I said, "Boys, lower your rifles, we will go home."
Heaven.

A place where all the scattered friendships, loves, joys and true delights of earth are purged, purified and intensified without one shadow of future diminution or dissolution hanging over it—but with the same certainty of continual increase and duration—constituting thus a habitation of perfect joy and endless bliss, with greatly enlarged capacities and opportunities for progressive happiness and with new fountains of enjoyment ever opening amid elysian fields of progressive being and delight; where the rich harmonies of music are ever welling up from the deep fountains of the redeemed and perfectly happy souls tuned in sweetest accord; where, in the limitless dome, the song of redemption mingles and commingles in one eternal hymn of joy and praise to Him who, with his presence and love, pervades and crowns it all.—Christian Commonwealth.

The Chatham Record Asks:

"How much 'relief' has been given the taxpayers of North Carolina by the so-called 'reformers'?"

"How many useless offices have been abolished?"

"How many fees and salaries of officers have been reduced?"

"How much have they reduced the public expenses?"

"How much have they reduced taxes?"

Let every voter take these questions and answer them according to his own knowledge and belief. The number of offices has not only been increased, but are largely filled by men who are not nearly so competent as those they displaced. Taxes have been raised, and a law passed permitting the imprisonment of citizens who cannot pay their taxes. There have been more scandals connected with the management of the penitentiary than have ever been found in any other institution in the State's history.

The administration has not only been incompetent, but in many cases, venal.—Charlotte News.

Original Observations.

The swindle factories are always running on fool time. To be alone is a million-fold better than to be in bad company.

Most men are bad because they have not been taught to be good.

The successful man is the one who is always pursued by a pack of snapping dogs.

Ten grains of common sense are worth more for practical purposes than ten bushels of book learning.

Some men are born lucky, some work themselves into fortune, and some die as they live—no account to anybody.

A woman has more worry and trouble over getting one dress made to suit her than a man has over all his clothes in a lifetime.

He who brings a feeling of joy to the heart of a sad being, performs an act that will count much in his favor in the final summing up.

No matter how good a thing is now, there is always some old patriarch who has a recollection of something a great deal better.

There would be a hot time in every old town if the newspapers would give all the facts they know—tell the truth and nothing but the truth.

Nature is the only true and universal school for all humanity. Her curriculum is as broad as the earth, and her pupils graduate with broad-gauge diplomas.

There may be a pleasure in showing up the faults of others, but we should remember that others are getting even with us by doing the same with our faults.

IN OLD VIRGINIA.
Cook dat possum sweet,
And make dat simmon beer;
Lord, I'm happy now,
Fer Christmas is mos' here.
Wouldn't Spank Him.

Motor.

Father, what does a printer live on? Live on? The same as other folks of course why do you ask Johnny?

Because you said you hadn't paid anything for your paper and the printer still sends it to you.

Wife, spank that boy.
I shan't do it.
Why not?
Because there is no reason to.

No reason? Yes there is. Spank him I tell you and put him to bed.

I shan't do any such thing. What in the world do you want him spanked for?

He is so smart.
Well, that comes of your marrying me.
What do you mean?
I mean just this, that boy is smarter than his father, and you cannot deny it. He knows enough to see that no man, printer or no printer, can live on nothing; and I should think you would be ashamed of yourself not to know as much.

A Tennessee lady, Mrs. J. W. Towle, of Philadelphia, Tenn., has been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for her baby, who is subject to croup, and says of it: "I find it just as good as you claim it to be. Since I've had your Cough Remedy, my baby has been threatened with croup ever so many times, but I would give him a dose of the Remedy and it prevented his having it every time." Hundreds of mothers say the same. Sold by W. G. Thomas, druggist, Louisville, N. C.

Senator Pritchard has recommended Duncan for collector of the eastern district and Chas. A. Cook for district attorney. This has caused a row between Congressman Skinner and the Senator, Skinner having recommended Mr. Cobb and Mr. Bernard, respectively, for these positions. As Pritchard's recommendation goes his men will be appointed.

Gay Penitentiary Birds.

The penitentiary rascals are having a delectable time now. They come into town and lounge about, they have their wives to come and stay with them and they hunt the 'possum and coon, and perhaps have fiddling and dancing to make life sweet and gracious to them. If this thing continues longer negroes all about will be breaking into the penitentiary to be fed and to be gay. What a time this is for the honest burden bearers of North Carolina.

ONE OF TWO WAYS.

The bladder was created for one purpose, namely, a receptacle for the urine, and as such it is not liable to any form of disease except by one or two ways. The first way is from imperfect action of the kidneys. The second way is from careless local treatment of other diseases.

Unhealthy urine from unhealthy kidneys is the chief cause of bladder troubles. So the womb, like the bladder, was created for one purpose, and if not doctored too much is not liable to weakness or disease, except in rare cases. It is situated back of and very close to the bladder, therefore any pain, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or womb trouble of some sort. The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided. To find out correctly, set your urine aside for twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates kidney or bladder trouble. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy is soon realized. If you need a medicine you should have the best. At druggists fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail. Mention THE FRANKLIN TIMES and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. ## Time and tide wait for no woman—don't even hesitate.

From the Lome Star State comes the following letter, written by W. F. Gann, editor of the Mt. Vernon, (Tenn.) Herald: "I have used Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhea remedy in my family for the past year, and find it the best remedy for cholera and diarrhea that I have ever tried. Its effects are instantaneous and satisfactory, and I cheerfully recommend it, especially for cramp colic and diarrhea. Indeed, we shall try and keep a bottle of it on our medicine shelf as long as we keep house." For sale by W. G. Thomas, Druggist, Louisville, N. C.
