SANCTIFICATION OR HOLINESS.

Messenger, says.

What Kingsbury, of the Wilmington Within the last three years a great deal has appeared in the religious papers on the question of sanctification or holiness: It has been frequently discussed in the Southern pulpit, and it has not been confirmed to one denomination. Earnest ministers seeking after truth have long taught this Biblical doctrine. Some time ago we copied in these columns a precious extract from a book by the late Bishop Thorald of the Established church of England. Evangelical teachers in all the churches recognize the doctrine variously called as strictly a New Testament | Christ"—that is a new "creation" doctrine. The fact is it is full of it, and ramifies the grand scheme Creed. of human redemption. There is a difference of view as to when a man becomes holy and how to become holy. But there is no dispute as to the fact of the doctrine lems that confront the authorities farm somewhere feeding pigs or warment and and the absolute necessity of boli- in cities and towns, as well as the building fires at four in the mornness in order to be numbered at Judges of our courts, is that of the ing, or he is selling trash on a last among the sacrimental host of youthful criminal-what punish- train, or working in a machine is a machine in machine is a machine in machine is a machine in machine is a machine in machine is a ma God's elect.
