LESSON XII, THIRD QUARTER, INTER-NATIONAL SERIES, SEPT. 18.

Text of the Lesson, II Kings xvii, 9-18. Memory Verses, 13, 14-Golden Text, I Chron. xxviii, 9-Commentary by the Rev. D. M. Stearns.

9. "And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against the Lord their God." For 250 years God had borne with the continued and increasing sin of these ten tribes who persisted in following in the steps of their first king, Jeroboam, of whom it is written so often that he made Israel to sin. During these years they had 19 kings, but not one who feared God. In Deut. iv, 25-27, they had warning as to what would come upon them if they sinned against God, but in spite of all warnings and entreaties they persisted in their sins. With such words as Ps. cxxxix, 1-12, before them how deceived by satan they were to think that God could not see in secret! 10. "And they set them up images and groves in every high hill, and under every green tree." Even Solomon did this, and Judah after Solomon's death (I Kings xi, 7, 8; xiv, 22, 23), but Israel exceeded. See the plain and express command forbidding these things in Deut. xii, 9-4, and xvi, 21, 22, with the added words in xii, 82, What thing soever I command you, observe to do it; thou shall not add thereto nor diminish from it," and the warning in Deut. viii, 19, "If thou do at all forget the Lord thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them and worship them, I testify against you this day, that ye shall surely perish." 11. "And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the Lord carried away before them.' In the days of Samuel they insisted upon having a king that they might be like other nations (I Sam. viii, 19-22), thus rejecting the Lord who was their King and turning their backs upon Him who loved them and had done all things for them. They sacrificed unto their net and burned incense unto their drag (Heb. i, 10), thinking that their blessings came through them instead of from God.

12. "For they served idols, whereof the Lord had said unto them, Ye shall not do this thing." See Ex. xx, 3-5; Lev. xxvi, 1 and consider how the devil stirs people to go directly against God even as when God said, "In the day thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die," and the devil said, "Ye shall not surely die" (Gen. ii, 17; iii, 4). One is our Master, even Christ, and fellow who succeeds. we should be able to say, "Whose I am, and whom I serve" (Math. xxiii, 8, 10; Acts xxvii, 23), for we cannot serve God and Mammon but notwithstanding that we are assured that the friendship of the world is enmity with God and that we persistently as Israel served idols. 13. "Yet the Lord testified against Israel and against Judah by all the prophets and by all the seers, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways." Consider Isa. i, 18; Jer. iii. 19; xxv. 5; Ezek. xviii, 81; xxxiii, 11 Hos. xiv, 1, and compare with II Pet. iii 9; John III, 16, and see how from the day that God sought Adam and Eve in their hiding place in Eden until the story of Rev. ix, 20, 21, how He is ever seeking to have His wandering ones return to Him. He even puts the words in their mouth which they shall say when they return to Him (Hos. xiv. 2). In the story of the prodigal in Luke xv He teaches us how the wanderer is loved and sought for by God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit.

14. "Notwithstanding they would not hear." In Isa. xxx, 15, He ories, "In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and confidence shall be your strength, and ye would not." In Math. xxiii, 37, He says, "How often would I, and ye would not." In Ps. lxxxi, 18, 11, He says, "Oh, that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways, but my people would not hearken to plishments might have turned his work yet. Let the miserable pie my voice and Israel would none of me.' He ever longs to save and bless, but has to cry, "Ye will not come unto me." He came unto His own and His own received Him not; He was in the world and the world was made by Him, and the world knew Him not: He only asks us to have faith in Him, to yield to Him, trust Him and follow Him. Why will we not? 15. "They followed vanity and became vain and went after the heathen that were round about them." In Jer. x, 8, 15, speaking of idols and their worship, the Spirit, through the prophet, says, "The stock is a doctrine of vanities; graven and molten images are vanity and the work of errors." The same chapter says that the Lord is the true God, the living God and people have forsaken Him, the fountain of living waters, and have hewn them out cisterns that can hold no water. The dice one afternoon and said: "Be whole book of Ecclesiastes teaches that all under the sun is vanity, but in the Song of Solomon we learn of Him who is altogether lovely, who alone can satisfy the

16. "They left all the commandments of the Lord their God and made them molten people, that other nations seeing God in and through them might turn from the folly of idolatry to the God of Israel, the only living and true God. But when Israel turns away from the true God to worship the idols of the heathen what can the heathen conclude but that the God of Israel is not as good as their gods? Thus Israel dishonored their God. 17. "They sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke Him to anger." In I Kings xxi, 20, 25, Elijah said to Ahab, "Thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the Lord." See also Isa. 1, 1; lii, 3. There are two bidders for our souls-God and the devil. The latter offers us the pleasures of sin for a season, but tries to hide from us the awful hereafter or to tell us that there is no future torment; but see Math. xxv, 41; Luke xvi, 23: Rev. xiv, 9-11. God offers peace and joy now through His redemption and eternal glory hereafter, but how many, like Israel, prefer the service of satan and the pleasures of sin and believe the devil's lie about the hereafter! 18. "Therefore the Lord was very angry with Israel and removed them out of His sight. There was none left but the tribe of Judah only." The very next verse says that Judah also kept not the commandments of the Lord. Yet God spared them a little longer. In the last lesson of the next quarter we shall hear of their captivity also. But as truly as prophecy was fulfilled in the punishment of Israel (verse phecy be fulfilled in their future restoration (Jer. xxxii, 41; Amos a inch I make it $150. I'll just ix, 14, 15), when Israel shall blossom and bud and fill the face of the earth with fruit (Isa. xxvii, 6).
