Stall Abiar THE FRANKLIN TIN

JAS. A. THOMAS, Editor and Proprietor.

GEO. S. BAKER.

BAPTIST.

G. F. SMITH, Pastor,

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

METHODIST.

Sunday School at 9:30 A. M.

treaching at 11 A. M., and

Frayer meeting Wednesday

Sunday School at 9:30 A. M.

VOL. XXVIII

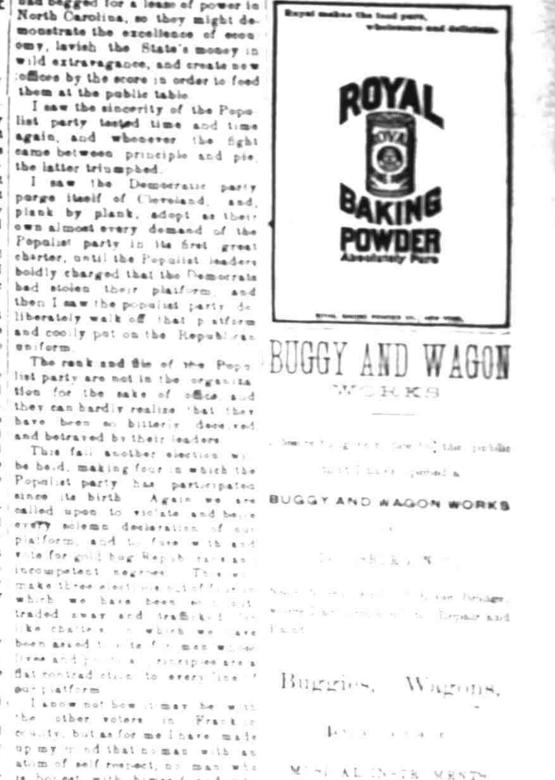

every Sanday.

THE COUNTY, THE STATE, THE UNION.

LOUISBURG, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1898.

SUBSCRIPTION : $1.00 Per Year, Strictly is Advance.

NUMBER 33.

and the best of graduation

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL. THE LOST ORDERLY.

Stearns. THOS. B. WILDER, Supt. Preaching at 11 A. M., and 8 P. M.

Lord?"

very soudary. l'rayer in eting Thursday night. FORREST SMITH. Pastor.

Professional cards

 $[\mathbf{D}]^{\mathrm{s}} \cong [\mathbf{P}, \mathbf{B}]^{\mathrm{B}} \mathbf{T}_{\mathrm{r}}$ PRACTICING PHYSICIAN. Louisburg, N. C. in the Ford Building, corner Main ..... Nish streets. Up stairs-front. B. B. MASSENBURG, ATTORNEY AT LAW.

LOUISBURG, N. C.

Will practice in all the Courts of the State Office in Court House.

C. M. COOKE & SON, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, LOUISBURG, N. C. Whit attend the courts of Nash, Franklin, Granville, Warren and Wake counties, also the supreme Court of North Carolinp, and the U. Circuit and District Courts. DE ES. FOSTER. DR. J. E. MALONE. DRS. FUSTER & MALONE. PRACTICING PHYSICIANS & SURGEONS. Louisburg, N. C. other over Aycocke Drug Company. W. H. LIPPITT, M. D.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. FRANKLINTON, N. C.

DR. W. U. NICHOLSON. FRACTICING PHYSICIAN. LOUISBURG, N. C.

SPRUILL & RUFFIN. ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, LOUISBURG, N. C. will attend the courts of Franklin, Vance, Grauchie, Warren and Wake counties, also the suprome Court of North Carolina, Prompt in given to collections, &c. THOS. B. WILDER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, LOUISBURG, N. C. office on Main street, over Jones & Cooper's T W. BICKETT. ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW. LOUISBURG N. C. Prompt and painstaking attention given to every matter intrusted to his hands. Refers to thief Justice Shepherd, Hon. John Manning, Hon. Robt, W. Winston, Hon. J. C. Baxion, Press, First National Bank of Win-ston of Manager First National Bank of Win-ston of Manager Chas, E. Taylor, Pres. Wake For-est Conger, Hon, E. W. Timberlake. 29). W. M. PERSON, ATTORNEY AT-LAW, LOUISBURG, N. C. Practices in all courts. Office in Nes Bauldary. W H YARBOROUGH, JR. ATTORNEY AT LAW, LOUISBURG, N. C. Other on second floor of .Neal building Main Street. All head business intrusted to him vill receive prompt and careful attention. DR. D. T. SMITHWICK. DENTIST, LOUISBURG, N.C.

LESSON II, FOURTH QUARTER, INTER-It was not yet noon, but the running NATIONAL SERIES, OCT. 9. Text of the Lesson, II Chron. xvii, 1-10. over. The troop had scattered after Memory Verses, 3-6-Golden Text, Prov. them with a great deal of threatening iii, 6-Commentary by the Rev. D. M.

was no part of Captain Pillogg's orders A powerful influence was exerted, 1. "And Jehosaphat, his son, reigned in his stead and strengthened himself against sire was merely to impress "the fear of finence than which none greater was proved themselves to be the enemies of God, and to stand with God means to stand against His enemies (Jas. iv, 4). their fold. Besides, after the morning's How great the contrast in chapter xviii, amusement, the hot sun made rest wel-, where we see Jehosaphat joining affinity with Ahab, the king of Israel, and thus some.

necessitating the rebuke of the Lord in "Sound the recall," said Pillogg to chapter xix, 2, "Shouldest thou help the ungodly and love them that hate the To be for God at all times and under all circumstances is a rare thing and is seen perfectly only in the Lord Jeflask and cigar case. sus Christ.

The bugle sang brightly over the 2. "And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah." Every king was plain; and as its clear command filled king for the Lord (II Chron. ix, 8), and the distant hollows and rang from his strength was to be in the Lord and not bluff to bluff the distant shouting and in horses and chariots (Deut. xvii, 16). firing gradually ceased. While the cap-When we put our trust in things visible, we are apt to cease to see and rely upon God (Jer. xvii, 5). This is a constant temptation and a snare. The Lord is often proving us as He did Philip, and we, like Philip, venture to suggest to Him how it might be done, but all the while He Himself knows what He will do (John vi, 5-7). When we obediently and trustfully, column of fours, formed company front under God's guidance, make ordinary provision, all is well. The difficulty is swiftly and halted.

"Call the roll," said Captain Pillogg. when we cease to see God. remounting, and the first sergeant. 3. "And the Lord was with Jehosaphat. This is the secret of all blessing. The Lord was with Joseph (Gen xxxix, 2, 3, 21, 23). The Lord was with David (II Sam. v, 10). His comfort to Moses, Joshua, Gidman critically as he answered. "Here." | little boy? Because it's not your fault con and Jeremiah was the assurance that He was with them (Ex. iii, 12; Josh. i. 5; Judg. vi, 16; Jer. i, 8). So when the Lord Jesus sent His followers into all the was missing. The captain, who had led blue and pretty like mine. world the greatest encouragement He the fight in the beginning of the affair, could give them was His assurance: "All power is given unto Me in heaven and on earth. Go ye, therefore, and, lo, I am with Indians bowled over, who had mostly you alway, even unto the end of the age" been carried off by their comrades. The (Math. xxviii, 18-20). 4. "He sought to the Lord God of his saluted. father and walked in His commandments." It is written of Zacharias and Elizabeth that they were both righteous "Anybody know anything about him? before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blame-Anybody see him drop?"

less (Luke i, 6). God had said to Israel that if they would obey His voice and keep His covenant, they would be a peculiar treasure unto Him above all people (Ex. xix, 5), and in Titus ii, 14 (R. V.), it i.; written that He gave Himself for us to edeem us from all iniquity and purify unto Himself a people for His own possession, zealous of good works. 5. "Therefore the Lord stablished the kingdom in his hand." Joshua was told that if he would observe to do according to all the law, his way would be prosperous and he would have good success (Joshua 1, 7, 8). In II Chron. xx, 20, Jehoshaphat is heard saying to the people, "Believe in the Lord your God, so shall ye be established," and in Isa. vii, 9, is the contrast, "If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established." In God and in His word is the only establishment, for all else shall be shaken. Wherefore we receiving a king dom which cannot be shaken let us have grace whereby we may serve God acceptcursing troopers. Tommy's right arm she was 9 and the Weasel about 10. ably with reverence and godly fear, for desperately embraced a wriggling bunour God is a consuming fire (Heb. xii, 28 dle of dirty shirt and red brown skin, 6. "And his heart was lifted up in the ways of the Lord." The margin says that succession of howls and snarling lamenhe was encouraged in the ways of the tations. The troopers leaned forward Lord; those who seek to walk in the way of the Lord shall not lack encouragement to continue therein. There will be many ble of sardonic laughter. a handful dropped for us on purpose to lead us in His way (Ruth ii, 16). They ed and peered disgustedly at the bundle. that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with winga as eagles (Isa. xl, 31). The way of the Lord was so attractive and enjoyable that pedition, "a prisoner, sir." the way of the world and the devil became "Oh, h-1" cried Pillogg, and the distasteful and the high places and groves troopers roared. "Let the papoose go. | fright, white and sobbing. were taken away. We cannot walk with Are you a dry nurse, sir?" God unless we humble ourselves so to do "No, sir," said Tommy, very red and and make up our minds to be agreed with sealous in his care of the Indian. Nevertheless, a 7-year-old redskin is a trouly earnest eyes. blesome anomaly in the garrison, where "And when I come back you'll be my rderly just the same ; promise, ' the women of laundress' row looked on "Just the same," said the Weasel.

fight which had disturbed the solitude him as they might upon the direct of the Buttes since early morning was spawn of the devil, hailing their own offspring from him when the Weasel would have shared their games. Had and intentionally wild firing, but it been sent back to the reservation. they had their way the boy would have to unduly slay or even harass. His de- however, in the Weasel's behalf, an in-God and Washington" upon the deluded felt in Fort S. Miss Toonie Adair, littribe and drive them back like sheep to the 6-year-old daughter of the colonel, who had been christened Judith (a hame to which she never answered), to the horror of all the laundresses took a fancy to the Weasel, and at once adopted him as her own special protege. his senior trumpeter, and at once threw What Toonie said, when she said it himself from his horse, lay at full from the colonel's knee with her arm length on the grass and produced his round his neck, invariably was accepttd as a post order, and the Weasel's position was assured.

"You're a dreadful wicked little say age," said Toonie, seated on the colonel's porch, with the Weasel squatting in front of her, his big, black eyes solemply staring into the depths of her tain puffed his cigar at ease, and the big blue ones. "Ain't you sorry God trumpeter stood holding the horses be- borhed you a savage? Do you like blue side him, the roar of the first sergeant eyes? My eyes are blue, and they're forming the troop came to their ears, very pretty. When you know how to and in a few minutes, with much snort- speak English, you must tell me I have ing of excited horses and clatter of pretty blue eyes. Everybody does-evsteel, the men came galloping back in erybody I like. You've black eves Black eyes is savage. Did you ever scale anybody? If you were to scalp me, my father would kill you-he would, with a pistol and sword, because he says my drawing a paper from his blue shirt hair is the prettiest in the world. You've pocket, faced the men and rattled off black hair. It's not pretty, it's savage the names, while the officer eved each Ain't you glad I'm taking care of you,

There were some casualties. One man you was borned an Injun, and if you're was badly hurt by a shot in the side; good I'll make you a Constiant, and others were scratched, but one alone then p'raps God will make your eyes "Papa!" she cried in the first enthuthought consolingly of the number of siasm of her liking for the little savage

"Now I'm a real, real colonel, just like you. I'm going to have an orderly first sergeant swung his horse about and | And, please, papa, may be have a uni form

"Never," maid the Weasel, with md-

YOUNGSVILLE, N. C., But when she came back she was no September 5th, 1898, longer Toonie, the child. She was Miss TO THE VOTERS OF FRANKLIN COUNTY

Adair, no further opposed to being Six years ago I left the Democalled Judith-indeed preferring it to the loving pet name of her babyhood, cratic party and became a member which, she said, was silly. The Indian was back on the plains, very tall and straight, in neat garments of civilization. He had passed through the school with much honor and was now to act as a missionary among his own people. The colonel was amusedly proud of him, as of a fife dog of his own breed ing. He sent for him on the night of Judith Adair's arrival. "Here's your old orderly, my dear, She looked up from the chair where she was reading some letters-looked at him with a smile of curiosity.

Well, I never, papa!' she sai! Helooks quite civilized. I am glad to hur, you get on so well," she added. with a nod to the Weasel, and resumed her reading. The Indian went out silently, nor ooked so tall and straight and happily xpectant as when he entered He had ridden in from the mission en miles from the post, where he was juartered. The moon was up when he | indifferent greeting. The clouds that dominant old parties cast flickering, hasty shadows on the having been a Populist. When I every solemn declaration of our fallen on his life never litted. Before him, as he rode, stretched the shimmer ing, shallow river, darkly fringed by had seemed to him so short a time, un a heartless plutocrary

lized, would have remembered

HONEST POPULISTS COMING HOME bad begged for a lease of power in North Carolina, so they might de-list party tasked time and time of the newly organized Populist again, and whonever the fight party. My purpose in doing this came between principle and pie. was pure and patriotic. I be- the latter triumphed. lieved that it represented the best I saw the Democratic party platform which any political party plank by plank, adopt as their had everpromulgated. I believed own almost every domand of the that in it was the hope of deliver Populist party in its first great ance from the domination of Wall charter, until the Populist leaders street and organized capital. I boldly charged that the Democrats believed that the Democratic had stolen their plaiform, and party under Cleveland's adminis then I saw the populist party de tration, was unsafe, and that it liberately walk off that patform was fostering the brood of truste and coolly put on the Republican and combines that had grown up uniform.

under Republican regime. I saw The rank and flie of the Popul that slowly and surely the single list party are not in the organizagold standard was being fastened tion for the sake of office, and upon the country, and that De they can bardly realize that they mocracy, under Cleveland, was have been so billerin decered permitting this work of ruin and and betraved by their leaders robbery to proceed. To my mind. This fail another election w Populism was a protest against the be held, making four in which the silently left the post after that chilling. iniquity and ring rule of both the Populist party has participated scurried low between earth and meen | 1 have no apologies to make for called upon to violate and beive uneven plain, but the shadow that had joined the party it was, in my plaiform, and to five with and judgment, full time to call a balt sole for gold bug Hepub tars as in our national affairs, and to incompetent negroes. The su these low bushes whence the ratiosnake change in our ever increasing make three shell on this in had darted-so short a time age. It for dency towards the despotism of which we have been so t out fil tonight. Now he realized that an I was born and bred a liemo, like chaites, n which we are liner trailed away and trafficard ago had passed. Perhaps it had never crat, and inherited a bostil 'r for been asked to te for man willion happened; it was a dream. It must have and a repugnance to Republican lives and provide stream streams and provide streams and teen a dream, or the chill young lady tism. For the teachings and tenets dat contrad clice to every line f in the parlor he had left, who had told term. For the teachings and tensts dat contrad of him so carelessly he was guite civit of that party I have neither sym. guit justform pathy nor toleration. He frends I anow not how simmar he with He was civilized. For years he had "oward centralization, and take the other voters in Frank in "One man missing, sir," he reported The laundresses and all others ill disc lived with white people. He harely re cord of correction in State and evaluate, but as for me i have made "One man missing, sir," he reported The laundresses and all others in dis-"the second trumpeter, Thomas Cox." posed toward the little Indian had now membered the baby days of tepres and nation, have deepened my enmity up my in ad that no man with an no word to say. Toonie's orderly te- squaws and pence and hews and at toward it, till there is not one doe atom of self respect, no man what came a feature of Fort S. Where the rows, she had civilized him she and trine that it holds in harmony is honest with himse f and who A trooper replied that Tommy was riding hard mouthed Rip and in the pursuit appeared to have all he could do to hold the horse in. The trooper ing if not disciplinarian, and kept him pity to him, because they had never others in the State because it was leaders any longer opined that Rip, being half crazy at the in his place-on her sudden dashes. been blossed by friendship with her. growing, under Cleveland, more I have off the Populate parts best of times, had gone mad with ex- pony back, into the surrounding country when his teachers had wondered at his and more like the Republican exactly as I joined it for the same set with towering ambition and his intense in party. Its financial policy was of principle 1 solemnly appear dustry. His horse, unhindered, feli to exactly similar to the financial to all good honest while merwalking leisurely. The Indian's head policy of John Sherman, and when, all the men who ove their homes dropped. Swiftly there came to him a conviction of the wrong done him. Over all those great plains there were two peoples, two great families-the white silver its death blow, I joined to all who desire to relike trailer and the rod. Each member of these had with the political party that was and political adventurers, t his brother, his father, close ties of born of this incident. I did not abandon it as 1 i 1. For a bout kinship. In all the breadth of the land unite with Populists to fight the ern white man the Lemmeral he stock utterly alone and spart. He Democrats only, but the slogan of party is the great, the only justic was civilized—half and half, neither our party was to do battle to all now. It holds within it the on i one thing nor the other. He had turned away from his brothers at the beck of not stand on our platform and as possibility of relief from the dis JEWERY, JEWELRY away from his brothers at the beck of not stand on our platform and es graceful conditions that now make and succeeded. He had been held up as poure our views. The Republican the name of our State a very ach a shining light, an example of what party, the author of all our life and a by word. To three whet might be done with one of his mos. Was our arch enemy in the conflict lowed me out of the party of [ - ] There it stopped. He had dreamed of I made the campaign in Frank- and world for me. I have runs a being a white among the whites, whose lin county, in 1892, you will re sense of deep gratitude, and r. Watches, Clocks and creed had been dinned in his cars-"all member, as the nominee of the their sakes I now appeal to them her he had obeyed as a child, studied carried the burden of the whole our country, it promises a as a boy, labored at college. To please ticket, with the profound conviction manhood tion that I was right, and I be. Well, I never! He looks quite civi lieve now that, in its origin and lized. I am glad to hear you are getting first existence, the Populist party STRUE N . . Sept Stb. 1900 Was right.

monstrate the excellence of econ omy, lavish the State's money in wild extravagance, and create now offices by the score in order to feed them at the public table. I saw the sincerity of the Popo-set of principles and had the best parge itself of Cieveiand, and, lias administered and teeth extracted without pain. DR. R. E. KING. DENTIST, LOUISBURG, N. C. OFFICE OVER AYCOCKE DRUG COMPANY. With an experience of twenty-five years the un-to-date lines of the profession.

Office in Ford's Building, 2nd floor.

HOTELS. HOTEL WOODARD. W. C. WOODAED, Prop., Rocky Mount, N. C.

live only unto Him.

Free Bus meets all trains." Carras $2 per day.

FRANKLINTON HOTEL FRANKLINTON, N. C.

SAM'L MERRILL, Prp'r. Good accomodation for the traveling Good Livery Attached. heaven.' OSBORN HOUSE,

C. D. OSBORN, Proprietor, Oxford, N. C.

anxions. "But he's such a little devil, Him (Mic. vi, 8; Amos iii, 3). 7. "Also in the third year of his reign he sent to his princes to teach in the cities of Judah." What a suggestive foreshadow bring him along. Oh, ah, oh!"

ing of the time when "A king shall reign The wriggling Indian child in righteousness and princes shall rule in judgment, and the work of righteousness shall be peace, and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance forever' (Isa. xxxii, 1, 17). There cannot be anything more important than that men should know the Lord and His ways, and tain was smiling. when kings and princes take up this as government has given $50,000,000 for defense, for the purchase or manufacture of warships or war material, but was it ever hastily explained. heard that any government over gave even "Rip got a bit the best of me, $1,000,000 to make known the living God? jerked out, "an ran wild. We lost 8. "And with them Levites and priests." The priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth, for he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts (Mal. ii, 7). Their calling is simply set forth in II Chron. xxix, 11, in he turned an fired on me. So I fired these words, "My sons, be not now negligent, for the Lord hath chosen you to stand before Him to serve Him and that ye should minister unto Him and burn in- the son-dropped him, sir, deader than cense." Priests, prophets and kings were stuffing. This here kid howled; I guess to recognize God alone as their Master and the bullet grazed him. An-an I got

"You killed the father, eh? How did their mission, the kingdom will either have come or be very near. Just now our troop?

9. "And they taught in Judah and had the kid; he fought like a wildcat, an the book of the law of the Lord with them the bites-jing, can't he bite!" and went about throughout all the cities "If you'd taken the rifle it would of Judah and taught the people." There

Word of God. It is all "true from the be- drawled. "What do you want to do ginning" and "forever settled in heaven" with him?" (Ps. exix, 89, 160). We are to receive it "He can't walk, sir," Tommy promeekly, hold it fast, rightly divide it and tested, "an I was kinder sorry for him. hold it forth, for it is an engrafted word, He's so durned cute when he wrastles a faithful word, a word of truth and a an bites an-an he'd die if I lef' him word of life (Jas. i. 21; Titus i. 9; II Tim. there all night." ii, 15; Phil, ii, 16). If all ministers and The captain turned away.

teachers taught only the Word of God and honored it as the Word of God, how much "When these beggars have come to their senses again," he said, "they'll more would be accomplished for God! But when these who profess to be its friends send for him. You can bring him along dishonor and even set aside many portions if you'll guarantee to nurse him. 'Tenof it what shall we say? "Just this, "Fortion! Right forward, fours right, ever. O Lord, thy word is settled in march !"

In this manner the Weasel was 10. "And the fear of the Lord fell upon brought to Fort S. and introduced to all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah." There was no war. the mysteries of civilization. His fa- but healthful life of the western plains Other nations brought presents and trib-ute, and Jehosaphat waxed great exceed-claimed him, and Tommy Cox, the decided to send Weasel away at the ingly (verses 11, 12). The remaining verses bugler, became, despite of the men's same time to one of these great instituof the chapter tell that his army was frequent jests, a father, tutor and friend tions which are maintained for the ben-1 160,000, but the very next chapter tells citement and borne Tommy Cox "into | and about the post. For him-when the the next county." The captain had just | big black eyes softened, it was at Tranordered the sergeant to detail a corporal nie's voice; when he bent to study his and men to look up the missing when | lesson it was at Toonie's behest; when from the direction of the Indians' flight he returned, as he did several times. there came a mad batter of hoofs and a after running away in search of savage shout. Up charged the missing bugler, freedom, it was to stand meekly and a smooth faced lad, with saber rattling mournfully before Toome's tearful rewildly against his side, his bugle pound- | buke. For Tommy Cox he had a regard ing his back and his bridle hand, though varied by sudden outbursts of passionate touching the rein, evidently powerless disobedience; to Toonie his devotion to control his foaming, wild eyed horse, | was always unbrokenly simple and dogwho dashed pellmell into the troop and like in its faithfulness. Sometimes the came to a standstill only when it had officers joked the little maid on her or jammed itself between two bruised and | derly, but never after the year in which She had dashed away on one of her willful trips of exploration, followed at and from this bundle came a hideous a gallop by the Weasel. It was glaring summer time, and by the river far from the post grew big red plums in succuon their horses' necks to look, and at lent profusion, cool and juncy. To feast once there ran from right to left a rum- on these at leisure the girl dismounted, and the Weasel tied the ponies to a "What is that, sir?" the captain ask- tree. He was not yet finished with this office, Toonie plunging at once in the "Please, sir," said Tommy, a year in bushes, when the boy was startled by a the service and glorying in his first ex- terrible cry. He quickly made the ponies fast and darted to the child's aid She sat upon the ground in tearful

"The snake! The snake!" she cried. "A great big rattlesnake-it bit me." She clutched her ankle and moaned. an he's hurt, an I-I'm afraid I've The little Indian did not hesitate; he killed his father, so I-I thought I'd did not lose his head. At some time in his life with his own people he must had have witnessed some such scenes, for writhed about until it got Tommy's now he acted with decision and knowlhand between its teeth and was now edge in a case where a white boy would biting like a rat. When the next man have been helpless. He tare the low in ranks overcame his laughter suffi- shoe and little stocking away, and ciently to release the bugler, the cap- there, already, was the swelling redness of the serpent's bite. He owned a knife, the gift of a brotherly trooper, and this it happen you did not keep up with the he whipped out. No doubt his black eyes gleamed strangely with excite-

Tommy, eager to excuse himself, and ment, for Toonie was overcome with hot at the laughter of the grizzled troop, new terror at sight of them and of the sharp and shining blade.

In spite of her screams the grinly silent Weasel seized the leg and delibersight of the other fellows, sir, an over ately and firmly cut into the flesh there the horse bolted up a cooly, round the wound until a portion was There was an Injun without a pony, an hacked out. To the cut he applied his this kid on his back, running ahead, an lips and sucked vigorously. Toonie's shricks and howls filled the air, but the back with my revolver, an (Tommy | boy uttered never a word, only stopping grinned with modest pride) I dropped now and then to peer into his mistress blue and frightened eves anxionsly. These did not dim, her right did not lessen, and the Weasel sucked away Rip in hand an dismounted an took with conditionce. At last he took her handkerchief and bound up the wound, dragged her to her pony and helped her mount. She was a wonderfully strong is nothing on earth so heavenly as the have been more sensible," Pillogg and healthful young person and did not whimper nor faint, only howled in a sturdy and wholesome way. The Wessel rode by her side at a tearing gallop back to the post and straight to the hospital. The doctor applied his remedies, but they were not needed, for the rude promptitude of the Indian's action had drawn the poison. Toonie bore an ugly scar afterward and betrayed an awed respect for and a little fear of her orderly for a long time, but the doctor was enthusiastic, and the colonel let it be understood that the Weagel was henceforth his own particular charge.

In the passage of time it became nec essary for the girl to desert the wild efit of the nation's wards. Thus it c on so well." she had said He would not go back to the post norto the mission. He cared nothing for their good will if he was not to be one our platform was the reformation. I shall not vote the Popp. et of them What then?

Wensel stopped him and gave him some tell ve in it now. money and made a bargain, and the old round him was wrapped a gaudy blan in alarm at the increasing host of making a mistake is to correct the

He had chosen his family, his peo- neath our banner. In the de sible ple, an ug whom he would be an equal at least. He had retrograded, lapsed into savagery. One of the chief delights army was the promise of sweeping of his castern teachers when showing reform off their star pupil to congressmen and Suddenly in North Carolina quiring philanthropists had been to seemingly without cause, certainly essly savage tribes on the plains-a to both the old parties, begin a tribe which was constantly restless, an system of trading and trafficking addicted to sun dances, ghost dances, in political honor and principle. raiding and other symptoms of incura- more degraded and more diegust. sometimes goes could of the pression hie Indian fever. Just at this time they ing than has ever before disgraced pers for a light advertising were disturbed unusually by the promit any political organization in the Recently we can the Auto nence among them of a certain young world.

His heart was sore. He had been little deerskin pouch fastened to his which they were being fed. neck, lay a picture-the photograph Toonie had given him when she went away to school, her heart young and tender to the devoted boy who had sayed her life. He tore it out as he rode

He galioped furiously onward, in and without platform or party. of sand and across rocky ridges. In driven the great buffalo herds, sending and bonored with Populist hallots for the Portsmouth bias. The received of our fluances, especially the free Fusion licket this year but = At a crossing of trails he met an old and unlimited coinage of silver at rote the Democratic ticket. My ndian freighter going to the post to the ratio of 16 to 1. I believed in reason for this is short and s mp e sell watermelons to the soldiers. The that doctrine then. I implicitly I am a white man Let all Port lists who desire to rote from pro-

The central and main plank in Entropy F THE TIME

For two years the Populists ciple and for white supremary ac ! freighter went on his way with a good suit of clothes from the east, and the party met my views and fulfilled honest government, have the ma Weasel dashed into the darkness, where my highest deas. I saw the whole hood to acknowledge the rerror of a weaser dashed into the daraness, where hid far, far away the Indian reservation ountry shaken, as by a storm with cleaving the Democratic party at i tion; and on his legs and feet were the growing strength of this young return to it. fringed and beaded moccasins, and giant. Both the old parties looked. The next best thing to zere-

those who arrayed themselves be, one that is made as som as not to to to to to built as broas iwell upon the fact that the lad belong without excuse, I saw this party. Anows How to Ad ed to one of the most unruly and hope which boasted a purity unknow: Mr. T. 7. Anderson, general passegeragent of the Seaboard Artics buck who aspired to leadership and was inciting his comrades to all manner of principles which I held, and more cred the sen al rairoader, rows vehement in their utterance than cred the gen al rai roader, r to w ca merely an interesting plaything for I had ever been, vote for gold his way through the mirround of merely an interesting playtning tor bugs, and barter their party's crowd, laws doctor. The person structs CITESTESTE THAT Ho was rejected of his own people. No honor away with no thought of fell back and the well appointed plus He was left him. On his breast, in a anything save the pie counter at can found himself in tront of his pa I saw them deliberately abandon lient. His manner was somewhat A Fire in the source a war their platform, disavow their prin- beroic, for after ploching and grant ciples, units on equal terms with ing the man, he took something from their life long enemies-the Re his pocket hand stuck " on the man a ed her life. He tore it out as he rode and rent it to shreds and threw them publicans and leave the few of us forehead, jamming his hat over d who value our political integrity.

out of the shadows, over low stretches | I saw corrupt and incompetent "The effect of that plaster w . he i m men, whose every political thought, ply magical. Take of his had in a deep ravine hewed out ages ago by gla-cial snows. Here had old time Indians put into office by Populist vetes well." With these words, he statistic

Jewelry

CHEAP FOR CASH

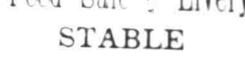

2 1 2 1 Alino

1 2 3 3

REPAIRING.

D. P. LYNCH

wik Part Feed Sale 2 Livery

HAYES & FULLER, Promietors

LOUISBURG N. C.

Hotel, at North a, Na., he observed a spinola TEAMN AND

SOUTE DELVERS

We always anop good horese fo sa.e, al very reasonable krep it from the air," he said adding Delcos.

front of him was a rising thuff, whose idea and purpose, was at utter va- iew minutes and he will be completely FARMERS AND MERCHANTS BANK

nveling Public Solicited. Good Sample Boom. Statest Horst TO STORES AND COURT HOUSE	you buy Putnam Fadeless Dyes, and it takes less time to dye and makes less muss and for the same price, 10 cents per package. Sold by A. C. Privette & Co., Pilot, N. C.	fies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at Aycocke Drug Co.'s drug store. 50 cents per bottle.	of all blood and skin diseases. $1.00 per large bottle. For sale by druggists.	throat, chest and lungs. Call at above drug store and get a bottle. Berular size for 50 cents and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded,	even the poor insane in the State Asylum. I saw the Populist party that	He who accepts God as authority
W. J. NORWOOD, Proprietor. Patronage of Commercial Tourists and	You get more for your money, get faster colors and brighter colors when	have good looks, "Electric Bitters" is a good Alterative Tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, puri-	above diseases, but of all manner of ail- ments arising from impare blood. It is	that is preming such a furror all over the country by its many startling cures, It absolutely ourse asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness and all affections of the	I saw the beginning of a reign of dehanchery that did not space	The more we learn today the easier will we learn tomorrow.	WILLIAR BALLET. President. A. B. HAWRING, Fine President. W. J. BYRELT, Challer.
	It is certainly poor land that can't hold its sown.	are affected, you have a pinched look. Secure good health, and you will surely	will, for a one cent stamp, send you a	covery for consumption, coughs and	State in 1869, and an infamous	It is well to krep trying-this is what life is given us for.	mentarity
NORWOOD HOUSE	Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer-it to bitter nau- seating tonics. Price 50 cents.	liver is inactive, you have a billious look, if your stomach is disordered you	("B. B. B.") If, you doubt it. eall or and to the Company whose advertise-	test of everything in their line for their	its votes relied on to elect to of fice the same crowd of vandals and	The proper time to do anything is when it should be done.	Hober to ioan on approval of
Good accommodations. Good fare: Po	and Malaria, It is simply from and	deep, depending chartery on a hearthay	Cures Kidney and Bladder Troubles. Thousands of such cases have been	and enterprising than Aycocke Drug	I saw the populist party taken by its leaders and delivered, like a flock of sheep in the open market,	board Air Line." Charlotte Observer	TETION OF DEPOSITORS. Deposits Solected on Interest, or
J P Massenburg Propr HENDERSON, N. C.	No Cure-No Pay.	How to Look Good.		An Enterprising Druggist.	required by their leaders to bring about this result.	large type, "Go South yis the Sea	DOLLARS, ALL OF WHICH IS HELD FOR THE PRO-
Good accommodations for the traveling public. MASSENBURG HOTEL.	of his downfall. Uzzlah was marvelously helped till he was strong, but his strength was his weakness and the cause of his fall (II Chron. xxvi, 15, 16). Our only strength is in the Lord. Be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might.	to retain great freshness of sonl and simplicity of heart. The fact that he had shot the little savage's father and made an orphan of the Weasel weighed upon his conscience, and he was very	the orderly. Toonie gave him her pho- tograph with tears. "You're never, never to forget me,"	full till multi with	elevated to positions of trust and profit, appointed to administer the educational and financial mat- ters and affairs of white institu- tione, and the votes of Populists	After several minu es ihr man s hat was remo ed. With surprise the	DARENTS OVER ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND