NUMBER 44.

VOL. XXVIII

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

Sunday School at 9:30 A. M.

Louisburg, N. C.

ATTORNEY AT LAW.

LOUISBURG, N. C.

Will practice in all the Courts of the Sta-

every Sanday.

P. S. P. BURT,

B. B. MASSENBURG,

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL. A LUCULLUS DINNER.

Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. LESSON XIII, FOURTH QUARTER, IN-GEO. S. BAKER, Supt. Preaching at 11 A. M., and 8 P. M. TERNATIONAL SERIES, DEC. 25. every Sunday. Prayer meeting Wednesday night. G. F. Smith, Pastor.

Text of the Lesson, Heb. i, 1-9-Memory Verses, 1, 2 - Golden Text, Luke ii, 11. Commentary Prepared by the Rev. D. M. THOS. B. WILDER, Supt. [Copyright, 1898, by D. M. Stearns.]

Preaching at 11 A. M., and 8 P. M. Prayer m eting Thursday night. FORREST SMITH. Pastor. which probably many will prefer.

Professional cards, fathers by the prophets." We have in previous lessons been considering how God by the prophets entreated the people to turn again to Him that He might bless them, PRACTICING PHYSICIAN, and since the time when in the garden of Eden He sought Adam with the question "Where art thou?" He has been ever seeking to win man back to Himself. He does Office in the Ford Building, corner Main and Nash streets. Up stairs—front. this in different ways, as it is written in Hos. xii, 10, "I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions and used similitudes by the ministry of the prophets." Job xxxiii, 29, 30, in the light of the previous part of the chapter, tells how in many ways He does this. The great thing to be remembered is that whatever or whoever may be the instrumentality it is God Himself that is doing it.

Him He was numbered with transgressors,

and they made His grave with the wicked.

8. "Who, being the brightness of His glory and the express image of His person, and upholding all things by the word of

His power, when He had by Himself

purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high." God was in Christ. He was God manifest in the Christ in us. He, by the sacrifice of Himself, put away forever the sins of all who receive Him. He has made provision for the salvation of all, but those only who come receive the benefit. How can they

4. "Being made so much better than the angels, as He hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they."

tion, but to any of them God never said.

"Sit on my right hand until I make thine enemies thy footstool" (verses 13, 14).

to the angels, taking upon Him our na ture that He might in due time lift us up

5. "For unto which of the angels said day have I begotten thee?" And, again, "I will be to Him a Father and He shall be to me a Son." The first quotation here refers to His resurrection from the dead

being heir to the throne of David (II Sam.

vii, 14). No angel can ever sit on David's throne, nor can an angel ever possess a mortal body made immortal. The word

"better" is one of the key words of this epistle, and in chapters i and ii the central thought seems to be "better than angels,"

while in the following chapters it is bet-that is set before us, "looking unto Jesus"

and ten thousand times ten thousand stood

4. which is full of God's care of His crea-the Lord, ye His angels, that excel in hearkening unto the voice of His word,"

and in the last verse of our lesson chapter

we learn that they all minister unto the heirs of salvation. They ministered unto our Lord, who for a little time made Himself lower than they. They minister unto us, who are for the present inferior to them, but when He shall appear we shall be like Him, in immortal resurrection

throne, O God, is forever and ever; a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Thy kingdom." This verse and the next are from the forty-fifth psalm, which tells of the King and His marriage, and is also told in Math. xxv and Rev. xix as preceding the kingdom. Notice that the Son is called God, confirming what we have already said in this lesson. He is now on the Father's throne at His right hand, but

He will come to His own throne in due time, and then it shall be seen that God

(Rev. iii, 21; Math. xxv, 81; Phil. ii, 9).

whom the world takes no cognizance and who seems to be very little known even by those who bear His name, yet in whose hand is the breath of every living thing, shall yet be acknowledged as King of sented to bear ours and to be made sin for

How to be Beautiful.

To be beautiful you must have pure blood and good health. To do so, purify the blood and build up the health with the best tonic and blood puriffer of us that we might share His glory.

Kings and Lord of Lords.

Co., Atlanta, Ga.

For sale by druggists.

United States each year.

as sons of God in the resurrection.

to His position (chapter 11, 5-18).

Office in Court House. us by His Son, whom He hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also He made the worlds." The Son Himself referred to this when in Math. xxi, 37, in the parable of the vineyard. He speaks of the Fa-ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, ther as last of all sending to them His son, saying, "They will reverence my Son." LOUISBUBG, N. C. Whi attend the courts of Nash, Franklin, Granville, Warren and Wake counties, also the Supreme Court of North Caroling, and the U. Suircuit and District Courts. But instead of reverencing Him they took own, and His own received Him not. His | hear so much about at school?" own people would not have Him and His own possessions found no room for Him, just as at His birth there was no room for Him in the inn, and when they crucifled

DR. E. S. FOSTER. DES. FOSTER & MALONE. PRACTICING PHYSICIANS & SUBGEONS, Louisburg, N. C. Office over Aycocke Drug Company. SPRUILL & RUFFIN.

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, LOUISBURG, M. C. Will attend the courts of Franklin, Vance, Granville, Warren and Wake counties, also the Supreme Court of North Carolina. Prompt attention given to collections. &c.

THOS. B. WILDER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, LOUISBURG, N. C. Main street, over Jones & Cooper's

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW.

Prompt and painstaking attention given to every matter intrusted to his hands. Refers to Chief Justice Shepherd, Hon. John Manning, Hon. Robt. W. Winston, Hon. J. C. Buxton, Pres. First National Bank of Win-Buxton, Pres. First National Bank of ston, Glenn & Manly, Winston, Peoples Bank of Monroe, Chas. E. Taylor, Pres. Wake For-est College, Hon. E. W. Timberlake. Office in Court House, opposite Sheriff's.

ATTORNEY AT-LAW, LOUISBURG, M. C.

Practices in all courts. Office in Neal W. H YARBOBOUGH, JR.

ATTORNEY AT LAW, Office on second floor of Neal building

All legal business intrusted to him will receive prompt and careful attention.

DR. D. T. SMITHWICK, DENTIST, LOUISBURG, N. C.

Office in Ford's Building, 2nd floor. again," and evidently refers to His second Gas administered and teeth extracted coming in power and glory, and this is the without pain. sense of Ps. xlvii, from which the quotation is made, for it speaks of His reign and His judgment of His enemies and His DR. R. E. KING, kingdom. It is written in Dan. vii, 10,

DENTIST, LOUISBURG, N. C.

OFFICE OVER AYCOCKE DRUG COMPANY.

With an experience of twenty-five years is a sufficient guarantee of my work in all the up-to-date lines of the profession.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WOODARD, W. C. WOODARD, Prop., Bocky Mount, N. C. Free Bus meets all trains, Batas $2 per day.

FRANKLINTON HOTEL

FRANKLINTON, N. C.

SAM'L MERRILL, Prp'r.

Good accomodation for the traveling public.

Good Livery Attached.

OSBORN HOUSE,

C. D. OSBORN, Proprietor, Oxford, N. C.

gladness above thy fellows." He is righteousness, and the end of the law for righttraveling public. eousness to every one that believeth (II Cor. v, 21; Rom, x, 4; Jer. xxiii, 6; xxxiii, 16). Although He hated iniquity, He con-

MASSENBURG HOTEL J P Massenburg Propr HENDERSON, N. C.

and secommodations. Good fare ite and attentive servant

NORWOOD HOUSE

Warrenton,

W. J. NORWOOD, Proprietor.

Patrouage of Commercial Tourists and raveling Public Solicited. Good Sample Room.

SHARROF HOTEL TO STORES AND COURT HOUSE

THE COUNTY, THE STATE, THE UNION.

LOUISBURG, N. C., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1898.

A Curious Legend of the Kings o DNE FEAST THAT ASTOUNDED TWO OF HIS FRIENDS.

Pompey and Cicero Tried to Catch the Famous Gormand In a Trap. but the Roman Spendthrift Fairly Outwitted Them.

"Bright Sides of History" is the title given the choice of a Christmas lesson St. Nicholas. In a story form, introducing modern boys and girls, the author 1. "God, who at sundry times and in di- recounts some of the most am using epivers manners spake in times past unto the | sodes in history. The following is one | of his stories:

"Lucullus was very fond of fine dinners-more so than was good for him in his later years. In early life he was one of the greatest of Roman generals, and at middle age he had kingdoms at his feet. But, like many public men of that period, he was pursued by envious enemies, and instead of making a stand against them be gave up all his glory and devoted himself to idle luxury. Although he was enormously rich, he amazed his friends by the amount of money he spent in feasting them. No matter at what hour a visitor called a costly banquet was always ready to be served. People who were intimate with 2 "Hath in these last days spoken unto him often tried to catch him unprepared, but no one ever succeeded. The most artful trap of all was set by Pompey and Cicero, but Lucullus was too sharp even for these able men."

"Do you mean," asked Harry, his eyes round with astonishment, "do you Him and slew Him. He came unto His mean the great Pompey and Cicero we

"The very same. Those were the men. Did you think that Pompey was always fighting battles, and that Cicero did nothing but speak pieces in the senate? Oh, no. They used to vary those occupations by strolling about the forum on pleasant afternoons, and one day they met Lucullus, strolling like themselves, and laid a plan to take him by surprise. They said they had a particular favor to ask. He promised to do anything in his power, and then they flesh (II Cor. v, 19; I Tim. iii, 16), but proposed to dine with him that very the glory that was in Him was generally day, on condition that he should make concealed. It was veiled by His mortal body (Heb. x, 20), yet on the Mount of no preparations and give no instruc-Transfiguration it shone forth and was tions, but let them share the ordinary witnessed by the favored three (II Pet. i, meal intended for himself.

17; John 1, 14). The phrase "express" "Lucullus had not expected this. image" is just the word "character" in Though he was extravagant enough, this also, suspecting that he might conto any one besides themselves, but just hard. The angels are ministering spirits sent ramble around until dinner time and forth to minister unto the heirs of salvathen take them directly to his dwelling. Here he made a stand. He protested. reasonably enough, that they demanded too much. He had left home without He made Himself for a little while inferior even saying that he should go back there to dine. At least his friends must allow him to announce that he would return at the customary hour. Other-He at any time, Thou art my Son, this

"They saw no harm in this, and, after consulting together, agreed that he could send that one short message (Ps. ii, 7; Acts xiii, 33); the second to His a stranger to do the errand, and must speak to him in their hearing, so that they could guard against any suspicious words or private signals. - Lucullus pretended to be extremely troubled and declared that they deserved nothing fit to eat. Nevertheless he consented, and calling a public messenger gave this diter than Moses or Aaron or the tabernacle, rection, 'Go to my house and tell the and we are to run with patience the race steward to serve dinner in the Apollo and waiting for Him to come back from as usual.' Pompey and Cicero were deheaven. He was with power declared to lighted. They kept close to their host be the Son of God by the resurrection from through the rest of the day, feeling sure the dead, and we shall be fully manifest that, though they would have an excel-6. "And again when He bringeth in the | lent meal, they had prevented him this first begotten into the world He saith, And | time from making one of the gorgeous let all the angels of God worship Him." The margin says, "When He bringeth

When at last the three entered the dining room the sight of the table almost took away their breath. It was decorated with a magnificence they had not dreamed of. But this was nothing to the rarest food was set before them, in connection with the judgment, that thousand thousands ministered unto Him with wines that were almost beyond price, until at the end they calculated that the cost of the repast could not 7. "And of the angels He saith, Who have been less than a sum equal to $10, maketh His angels spirits and His minis-ters a flame of fire." This is from Ps. civ,

"Why that is a small fortune to spend for one dinner!" exclaimed Percy. tures and ends with the first halleluiah in "You may say so, indeed. They were Scripture. In Ps. ciii, 20, we read, "Bless quite right in their reckoning. Lucullus strength, that do His commandments, had optwitted them and carried his point exactly as he wished."

"How, uncle? Tell us how!" the chil-

"Think it out for yourselves," said Uncle Claxton, but the only attempt at a solution came from Dick, who after pendering deeply caused an outburst of mirth by remarking that perhaps it was Friday. Dick evidently imagined that the explanation which had cleared up the mystery of his nucle's dinner might be good enough for anything in ancient

"No, no, Dicky," said Uncle Claxton, "that's not the secret. You must remember the message which Lucullus sent to his steward-that he would 'dine in the Apollo.' He had several dining and all differently arranged for different kinds of feasts. He had only to mention has given Him a name above every name which of these he would occupy to let The despised and rejected Son of God, of his servants know what preparations were necessary and precisely how much money should be spent. It was the rule that a dinner or supper in the Apollo should cost a sum equal to about $10,-000 of our American money, and it was as and Lord of Lords.

"Thou hast loved righteousness and at this rate that Pompey and Cicero tinctly, but when speed is put on the ed to beg for the dead body. It was standing, and then made me a six parishes.

aged the affair."

There is no medicine in the world equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the cure of throat and lung diseases. This is a fact that has been proven in numberless cases. Here is a sample of thousands of letters received: I have the age, Botanic Blood Balm, ("B. B.
B.") It is the old standard and reliable remedy. It never fails to cure all manner of Blood and Skin diseases, where eminent physicians, and all other known remedies have failed. Send stamp for book of particulars, to the Blood Balm

When a woman reaches the age It takes 72,000 tons of paper to where she is not worth looking at, Maj. Gen. Fitzhugh Lee's son a make the postal cards used in the she is old enough to be worth list- secone lieutenant in the regular Chinese rebels are being executed

THADY O'DOWDAS' BRIDE.

Connaught. Far back in the misty past when every man in Ireland was a saint or a king -and, begorra, there was some was both-the great O'Dowdas reigned in Connaught. They were mighty fine kings and warriors. No batin them at all for fightin big battles, crackin a skull after a fair, emptyin a quart or Instead of a quarterly review we are of a series of articles by E. H. House in kissin a purty girl, God forgive them. One fine summer's evenin Thady, the second son-not the heir to the crown

-was on the seashore, waitin for the tide. He had just set his fishin lines and put down his lobster pots, for, though be was the son of a king and had hundreds of servants, he was no hand to anything from liftin a creel of the cow out of the neighbor's field of

Well, as I said, he was just waitin, lgin on the rocks wid his caubeen pulled down on his nose (the sun was in his eves). He was listenin to a kind of a little song that he didn't rightly understand. It was a little drone, mixin up a kind of bird and the wind blewin and water playin on the pebbles-a queer sort of a little song that made him wonder greatly, so he rested on his elbow, lookin round to see what was it at all. He saw just forminst him where the tide was out somethin sittin on a rock covered with seaweed. He saw a very white arm movin up and down, combin long hair. He was puzzled what to do. He said to bimself, "That's a dangerous place for bathin, and it's me duty to warn the lady." But still, bein very polite, as become his high station, he did not like to interrupt a lady's dressin, but he decided it was better to vex her itself than to let her be drowned. He just thought he'd see who it was, so he walked quietly, and when he got near enough to see what was it but a young girl with beauty there never was the like, and that's a great word to say in Ireland, where the purty girls are so plentiful. She was combin her hair with the backbone of a fish and lookin at herself in a pool of water, and a garment of seaweed on her that looked for all the world like brown heantiful fair and lily white neck "Mebbe," says be to himself, "the oththat amounts to anything apart from deal of extra extravagance on their ac- er half of her is a codfish." So he ment for the next day, but they would saw two purty white little feet, with not listen to him. Then he wanted to pink toes, that couldn't be matched by call his servants, and they objected to any ladies in his father's court. So be trive to give some secret orders. They the arm that had the comb. She turned > home with him easy, that he was a in his father's dominions would be onmake a dart to get off, but Thady held her firm, when suddenly a lovely necklace of amber fell off her neck. Thady knew by the look of her eye she could the power of it she could reside at the bottom of the ocean. So he gripped it walked quiet by his side to his father's > ty about the marriage. As an ould, an know who they were bringin with their word they said, married the sea lady, and a purty respectable wife she made, too, and beyond eatin an odd sea rod or bunch of dillisk she was much like was nothin fishy about them, but as fine children as was in the province of est son was just 11 years old, he told his mother he saw his father hide a shinin. purty thing in the hayrick when he was buildin it. Next mornin, when the family arose, the havrick was scattered to the four winds of heaven, the necklace gone and the sea lady disappeared and never was heard of again, but when any member of the O'Dowdas family dies the west coast of Ireland teems with razor fish. - New Ireland.

Some of his friends taunted Tennyson that he could never give up tobacco. 'Anybody can do that, ' be said, "if he chooses to do it." When his friends still continued to doubt and tease him. 'Well," he said, "I shall give up smoking from tonight." The very same evening I was told that he threw his pipes and tobacco out of the window of though somewhat self righteous. The second day he became very moody and captions; the third day no one knew what to do with him. But after a disturbed night I was told that he got out of bed in the morning, went quietly into the garden, picked up one of his broken pipes, stuffed it with the remains of the tobacco scattered about and then having had a few puffs came to breakfast, all right again. Nothing was said any more about giving up to-

Good accommodations for the God, hath anointed the with the oil of God, hath anointed the with the oil of till long after how Lucullus had mansecond are produced they cannot be separately distinguished by the ear. A looo-London is perhaps the only city in | motive running at the rate of nearly 70 the world that can boast of a house- miles an hour gives out 30 puffs of 11 Victoria street-which is located in steam every second-that is, ten for each of its two cylinders.

> A Tennessee lady, Mrs. J. W. Towle, of Philadelphia, Tenn, has been using Chamberiain's Cough Remedy for be baby, who is subject to croup, and sayof it; 'I find it just as good as you claim it to be Since I've bad you cough remedy, baby has been threatened with croup ever so many times, but would give him a done of the remedy

The President bas appointed

BAKING Makes the food more delicious and wholesome

BOVAL SKEING POWDER CO., NEW YORK,

A Roman Peace Jubiles.

were celebrated at intervals of several

by very splendor. They commemorated the final conquest of all Gaul, the defeat of Ptolemans, the subjection of Pharmaces and the victory over Juba.

Never had the Eternal City, then standing upon the threshold of empire, ever seen the like. The Egyptian Princess

Arvince and the son of the king of Nu-

Costly figures and portraits of the slain enemies of the republic, represent-his sword in his own bosom, and Demetrius, wounded in the back in token of his flight. Nor did the celebration stop.

with the processions. The most sumpto

one banquets were served in the public squares, in one of which citizens re-under the accumulated weight of the most luxurious delloscies.

olimed before 22 000 tables growing

Public games were given and gladia tors recruited from the most courageous prisoners fought with wild beasts from the ends of the earth and the circus was hung with huge awnings of a lk brought from India at a time when a queen or u.

not afford that material for her corona-

A short time ago a man and his tw

a German railway. At a station an co-gantly dressed, thickly veried womawindow. The man hastened to closs it keep one. Then, furning to his companions, she gracionaly offered each of the courtesy was accepted, and the next

Berlin; that their veried companies and, if one must be rothed at all, the rose method is preferable to each tagging or garroting, but, after all one may as

The present position of women cannot be better shown than by the following extract from a government prize book position, diseased, flendish, frascible, covetous, a slanderer, orwardly, perfid

swer to her husband will become a vil

A Strange Marriage Story.

by trade, was being charged before the

While a woman, aged 36, an ironer well fight shy of vetled women with roses - Exchange.

had disappeared, and that all of their thing of which the travelers were eco-tion robes - Philadelphia Press of the conqueror.

APOTHECKRY'S GARDEN.

Rendy Made Medicines About Which You Probably Know Little. The money a man-especially a family man-spends on bottles of nasty way proud at all and would put his medicines in a lifetime would take him on a holiday trip once or twice around turf on an ould woman's back to drivin | the world or start one of his children in life. And all the time he has nature's own simple remedies, better than any chemist's concections, outside his door. In the lily of the valley, for instance, e has one of the best cures known for dropsy. Most often dropsy results from a weak heart, and the medicinal prop-ertick of lily of the valley brace up this organ to a pitch of the highest efficiency. In the odorous coltafoot we have an other splendid remedy. Nothing can beat it in curing a cough, and even consumption sometimes yields to it. The Fermans-who know more of medicine than any other people on earth-eay that a pipeful of coltsfoot smeked occasionally will inevitably kill the consumption bacillus. Foxglove is one of those old remedies which have stood the test of competition with the most modern remedies. It has never been surpassed as a heart tonic and is the sheet anchor of the physician in all cases of flabby and enlarged heart

Then, in horse chestauts, we have a remedy for both rheumatism and whooping cough. One seldom bears of their use, no doubt, but that is because people have become so impressed with the high sounding titles of new discov-

Dandelion, however, holds its own in popular favor as a topic for children and a most effectual liver medicine for their parents.

Hops are also coming to the fore When she turned her head, combin again. For dyspeptic and general weak out the long hair, Thady, seein the ness they are a spiendid ours. And if other dangerons drugs, there would be

> For a reliever of pain one need look or nothing better than ordinary poppy heads, and, in fact, they are extensivey need for this purpose.

ill the way to Peru is said to be not a whit better as a tonic than the woodone that grows outside our own winaware, a splendid nerve tonic. Horse radish is one of those few things which doctors themselves take for their health. It is a safeguard sgainst dyspepsia, as well as a highly The root of the humble blackberry taken when cholera is about, acts like a charm in keeping off that terrible disschool pin their faith to parsley root in preference to the expensive quinipe, its work, as well as acting as a sure preventive of bleeding. The modest violet has its own medicinal properties. It cannot be surpassed

Wild cherry has many good qualities. If you are greatly excited, it calms you | for the girls' schools in the Bombay like magic; if your nerves are shaky, it consumption you could not use anything better as a prophylactic. Sage is not thing for pain in the stomach, acting somewhat like ginger. Red rose leaves, and smell nice, are themselves a tonic of no mean power, and elder flowers, uses. They are said to be good for rhenmatism and epilepsy. When feverish, they make you perspire, and they are a pleasant substitute for seidlita powders and things of that sort.

Belladonna, or the well known deadly nightshade, is still recognized by doctors all over the world as a plant of many medicinal effects. It is a terrible The woman who speaks disrespectfully poison, but in a plaster it cures the cramps of cholera; it reduces boils when used in the form of a liniment; it strengthens the heart when taken internally, and the leaves, when smoked, filth."-Church tracette effectually relieve both asthma and consumption. - London Tit-Bita.

The following interesting account of floating mash of royal Stuart tarian from animal sympathy is extracted from her shoulders, about half the men in James Forbes' "Oriental Memories:" kilts. The queen made a circle, and "One of a shooting party, under a ban- then we went into the tailroom, where van tree, killed a female monkey and about 150 of the tenants, servants, etc. carried it to his tent, which was soon with their wives and daughters, were surrounded by 40 or 50 of the tribe, assembled. Reels then began, which who made a great noise and seemed dis- were danced with great energy and also posed to attack their aggressor. They | jigs-very droll. Prince Arthur danced retreated when he presented his fowling like mad, and Princess Alèce was "weel piece, the dreadful effect of which they ta'en out" by the gamekeeper. I stood had witnessed and appeared perfectly to in a corner talking with the Duke of understand. The head of the troop, Argyll, etc. At last the prince came however, stood his ground, chattering round and conversed very courtequally furiously. The sportsman, who perhaps for ten minutes. He had heard I had felt some little degree of compunction | been in Germany lately, so we soon got for having killed one of the family, did | into the heart of German and Austrian not like to fire at the creature, and questions. The cough or puff of a railway en. | nothing short of firing would suffice to gine is due to the abrupt emission of drive him off. At length be came to the the queen withdrew into the supper waste steam up the chimney. When | door of the tent, and finding threats of room, where there were sandwiches and moving slowly, the coughs case of course | no avail began a ismentable mouning, champagne. She went round again and be heard following each other quite dis. and by the most expressive gesture seem- talked to Lord Melville, behind whom bisarms and bore it away to his expect- anything to myself. - "Memoirs of without dog. !, the best ing companions. They who were wit- Henry Reeve." neeses of this scene resolved never again to fire at one of the monkey race."

Those "Little Arts In Ease." Once a man was asked the reason for Harlesden magistrates with bigsmy a his going to see a certain girl so fre- curious scene took place. The mother quently, as it was well known that he was the chief witness against her daughwas not in love with her. He replied | ter and told how she and the husband by saying that she had the most com- had sat in a pew in the church while fortable divan in town.

the second marriage went on. The "And as to being in love with her- mother said she had told her son-inwell, I don't know! It's those little arts | law he had better stop the proceedings, in case that make a man fall in love but he answered: "I don't want to. hope he'll be a better husband to her with a woman, I-believe," be mid. Now, a knowledge of "those little than I've been." The second husband, arts" is born in some women; others | she said, know it was a bigamous martime." Hundreds of mothers say the same. Sold by W. G. Thomas, druggist. But they, are worth cultivating. It bushand came forward to corroborate would seem.—New York Tribune.

> Hong Kong dispatches say that Much suffering among the poor continue to previal in Basana.

A Grand Opportunity And the best way to Meet Success is to Secure the Opportunity

A special lot 293 suits we bought of an unfortunate clothing man Probably the most gorgeous peace facturer who had 'o meet his coligations regardless of what sacrifies jubilee that the world has ever seen hat had to be made. We being fortunate enough to secure the prise was that celebrating at Bome the four and the benefit is yours at triumphs of the first Commr. So magnificent were these triumphs that they

One-Third less than they Cost, There Never was a Grandar Opportunity! days lest the populace abould be closed come quick and he sure ton get one for it will not last always. The fatest styles finest fabrics of imported materials. The chance of a ifetime you can't afford to muse it just it ink of a complete suit for a man for the no heardof price of $1 87 up to the finest smits worth from $15 00 to $20 00 for $10 to. Th. dres suits from 49c and up worth drable the money midia walked captives behind the car

MENS' FURNISHINGS.

ing the manner of their death, were borne by Gallic slaves or carried in lit I ndersh ste liter worth do this what we set, better qualities in ters by the men who had fought under | proport in as thesp. Misses have life pair worth liv. Come and the originals. Scipio, too, was shown the will derform a use, with a glad a show you even if you don't buy plunging into the sea. Cato, burying if you lo we guarantee a ur money a warth or your money back.

DEITZ BROS' BARGAIN HOUSE

In Louisourg Formitors companies former stars second don from Hiverside warehouse.

The Remedy of Remedies. THOMAS' CHILL PILLS.

his way, the stranger dropped her roses. Chills and Feyer, and Malaia in all its Forms He picked them up for her, and; thank serves an again to He of great at a faced three are thereby rendered Cast res w. air mare it have white techn line box coating $60 criminal is a young man, and that he could will not a could be that has conducted a number of daring roo. To was force Police a conserva-

o this common to will a so as a sun or if what we are continue the sections of the section of the s Care record to the Transaction of the Transaction of the deaf, hot tempered, pour, extremely lage parish dog. She will also become a itated desert. The woman who eats sweetmeats without sharing them with living in a hollow tree. The woman her bushand's relatives will become from birth to birth a muskrat, living in JULIER F. W. TOMBERGARR Louisburg, N. C. Jone 8, 97

After taking quining for some bills with one box of Thomas . I was for The box of Chill or chills. Have never found any Dwar Sir I was having chills bing equal to Thomas Chill Fills one every day for about six weeks and they have always cured me break the chills. Your chill mills

I have used Thomas Chill Pills man. You have a valuable remedy. They broke chills on me when all August 5, 1898.

edy I have ever used

Pills. They cured the chills and any success until trying your mproved my health very much chill pills and they completely them to any one suffering with ral health also.

W. H. BEDDINGFIELD. Nov. 2, 97.

R. A. HARRIS. Mapleville, N. C., Aug. 28, 38.

SPECIAL NOTICE!-Be sure you got the genuine article, labeled THOMAS CHILL PILLS."

Manufactured by

W. C. THOMAS, Druggist

Louisburg, N. C.

Charlet contail box of your R H Bosszer

ture I tried these present a good sequent rich is followed. One ffect. They not may effered a lox of Thomas Chill Pills broke ture, but improved her general up the chills and put me in good

> H A KEARPET, Deputy Sheriff Lea arg N C , July 20, 38

me without effect, I broke my Mr W G Thomas Louisburg N C. Pr a I tought of you was worth J W CARTER dollars to me. One single box cured my chied and myself, and

W. A. Newster, Louisburg, N. C., Nov., 10, '97.

Joseph Carrier were recommended to me and I Louisburg, N. C. Sept 14, 1898 used one box, and have not had a chill since, and I feel like a new

Mr W.G Thomas, Louisburg, N.C. Dear Sir Allowme to add my J. G. CREEKRORE. testimonial to Thomas' Chill Pills. Louisburg, N. C., Aug. 26, 1898. My Father bad chills for three or four months and fried numerous I took one hox of Toomas Chill prescriptions for chills without do not hesitate to recommend sured him and improved his gene-