The agents of the trusts are putng in some very fine work nowdays. In the Southern or strong Sryan States they admit that it is a foregone conclusion that Mr. Beyan will be nominated in 1900, out, through the agency of the asociated press, they are flooding bose States with so called name calculated to prejudice the people against him. Thue, they recently sent broadcast the statement that be negro congressman White from this State bad been invited to the lefferson dinner which Mr. Bryan was to attend in New York. A number of our brethren of the press fell into the trap thus laid for them and declared that Mr. Bryan was getting into mighty had company A moment's reflection would have taught them that the last thing the Bryanities of New York would be likely to do was the exhibition of sympathy with a goldbag, protectionist, republican negro. After this falseboad had done as much barm as it was calculated to do; the propagators of it were formed to admit that it was without any foundation whatever. Again; when the long expected linner came off, it proved to be the greatest event of the kind that had ever happened in America, probably in the world. The associated press was bound to report Mr. Bryan's speech correctly-it could not belp that. But it handicapped the speech for all Southern readers by the introductory state ment, a villainous falsebood, that 'negro men jostled white men and negro women jostled white women" jo the banquet ball and all finally satdown to dinner with the guest of the evening.
