WONDERFUL BEAUTY.

SURPASSING GRANDEUR OF THE GREAT PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION.

Exquisite Court Settings and Garden Arrangement—Electric and Fountain Effects—Sculpture and Color Decorations—The Exhibit Divisions.

Every day brings nearer to completion the great Pan-American Exposition to be held at Buffalo next year. Every one of the score of colossal buildings is under way, and a number of them are under roof. Thousands of men are at work, and the hammers are playing a merry tattoo that thrills with enthusiasm the thoughtful listener who steps within the gates.

Already one may have a foretaste of the luazo of exquisite beauty which will spread its wings when spring comes to life the sleeping earth next year. In horticulture and floral beauty this Exposition will stand peerless and alone. In several other points it will surpass anything the world has ever seen.

Let me first speak of the court settings. By this is meant a symmetrical placing of the principal large buildings with reference to one another so as to form a system of connecting courts, each with its special features yet each a part of one great, beautiful picture. The principal courts are the Court of Fountains and Plaza, which form a north and south perpendicular and connect with a transverse court called the Esplanade. Two minor courts open into the Esplanade, known as the Court of Cypress and Court of Lilies. These courts, about 33 acres in area, with the magnificent decorations which will complete their beauty, will give to the eye a vista of exceptional grandeur from whatever point they may be seen. In sculptural and plastic decorations this Exposition will set a new pattern for nations to contemplate and adore. The exterior of every building will present a richness of design and delicacy of detail unparalleled in the history of expositions. Majestic statues and costly modeled groups, lacking only life to complete the identity of their purpose, will guard entrances and bridges or send down their blessings upon the enterprise from lofty domes and towers.

Again, from all the buildings will be diffused a radiance of color that will vie with the brilliant gardens in its agreeable effect upon the eye. Such elaborate color decoration upon the exteriors of a great group of buildings is a distinct departure from the custom observed at former expositions. To the prismatic brilliance of the gardens and the rich tints of the buildings will be added water effects extraordinary in conception and of supreme beauty. In all the courts will be large pools rippling and sparkling under the fantastic activity of numbing fountains. Many of these fountains are to be elaborate sculptured works, with jets of water playing from hundreds of openings. With all its wonderful beauty by day the Exposition will be, like the cereus

What is a Mystic?

What is a mystic? The dictionary gives us an answer perhaps, but one wants a thousand cases something more than the dictionary. We like to make definitions ourselves. This is a stronger tendency than we suspect. A mystic is a man who makes his own definition.

I knew a man many years ago in a country town where I lived who was a typical nonconformist and an example of self reliance. He was withal a man of strong character and did not ask anybody's good opinion. He was a cabinet maker and always spelled bureau "bu-ro." A man to whom he sent a bill said to him, "This is not the way Webster spells bureau." "Well," said he, "this is the way I spell it, and I have as good a right to my way as Webster has to his." He was a mystic in orthography.

"Ye must be born again." That was mysticism to Nicodemus. His dictionary didn't explain it. Jacob Behmen called the same thing "the morning redness." That, too, defies the dictionary. Swedenborg calls love "fire" and beyond all others in modern times makes definitions of his own. All poets are to some extent mystics, inasmuch as they express themselves in symbols and metaphors.—Coming Age.

Another Mean Man.

"Stimson is a mean man."
"Why so?"
"He's got a way of keeping his wife from going through his pockets for loose change."
"How's that?"
"He spends it all before he gets home."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Not Altogether Slow.

Merchant—I think I'll have to fire Polk. He's frightfully lazy.
Friend—Slow in everything, eh?
Merchant—Well, no, everything. He gets tired quick enough.—Philadelphia Press.

Cuts and Bruises Quickly Healed.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm applied to a cut, bruise, burn, scald or like injury will instantly allay the pain and will heal the parts in less time than any other treatment. Unless the injury is very severe it will not leave a scar. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism, sprains, swellings and lameness. For sale by W. G. Thomas.

The rich man has troubles of which the poor man knows nothing.

Poisonous toadstools resembling mushrooms have caused frequent deaths this year. Be sure to use only the genuine. Observe the same care when you ask for De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. There are poison counterfeits. De Witt's is the only Witch Hazel Salve. It is a safe and certain cure for piles and all skin diseases. W. G. Thomas.

Honesty is a policy on which any one can afford to pay the premium.

THAT'S THE DIFFERENCE.

We would respectfully call the attention of the Chicago Inter-Ocean and the New York Mail and Express and other papers of that rabid type to an incident which has just occurred down in Georgia, says the Charlotte News.

Two revenue officers while passing through the country despoiled and robbed a negro's cane-field, whereupon the negro secured warrants for their arrest upon the charge of larceny. The officers then attempted to arrest the negro upon the charge of attempted to interfere with them while they were in the discharge of their duty.

But it so happened that the negro was a peaceable law-abiding citizen and a man of integrity, and his white neighbors, by force of arms, refused to allow him carried away, except under due process of law.

The next day, however, twenty-one of the best white citizens of the county accompanied the negro to the headquarters of the federal court for the district and arranged for his trial upon the charge preferred by the officers, alleging that every dollar in the county would be used, if necessary, to prevent any imposition upon the negro.

THE COMING OF BABY

brings joy or pain. It's for the mother to decide. With good health and a strong womanly organism, motherhood adds to a woman's attractiveness.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui takes away all terrors by strengthening the vital organs. It fits a mother for the baby's coming. By revitalizing the nerve centres it has brought chubby, growing youngsters to thousands of weak women who feared they were barren. It purifies, heals, regulates and strengthens, and is good for all women at all times. No druggist would be without it. 50c

$10,000 WORTH OF ATTRACTIONS.

ALL THE PEOPLE WITHIN FIFTY MILES OF LOUISBURG, are going to the Great Fair and Carnival to be held at LOUISBURG, N. C., Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th, 1900. They will go in their wagons and camp out, thus saving railroad fare and hotel charges. Farmers within six miles of each other, can form clubs for this purpose, and from five to twenty-five wagons will make the start from each point designated. They will have a certain cross-road at which to meet. They will start from home about three o'clock A. M., meet at cross roads at 4:30 and start on trip at 5 o'clock. The fifty mile drive can be made in one day by starting at 5 A. M., driving until 11 o'clock—six hours—a little over four miles an hour. Rest from eleven until two—three hours—get dinner, feed stock, start at two and reach camp grounds at the Fair and Carnival at eight o'clock, in time to go into camp and get supper.

A special camping ground will be provided; where no one will be allowed to camp unless they have ladies in the party.

For each camp ground, there will be provided a Camp Police under the control of the Sheriff of the county, and they will be specially instructed to arrest any drunken or disorderly person.
