THE FRANKLIN TIMES

J. A. THOMAS, Editor and Proprietor.

ONE YEAR, SIX MONTHS. THREE MONTHS.

THE Raleigh Times is the successor to the Press-Visitor, and is a rattling good evening paper. Our sprightly young friend John Wilbur Jenkins, is the new editor, and John C. Drewry is the general manager. It is taking the "press dispatches" and claims the largest "city circulation" of any paper published in Raleigh. We wish it great success under the new manage-meet the approval of the Democrats of the county. Mr. Cooke will make a vigorous canvass of the county."

The editor of the Times congratulates both Mr. Cooke and the Democratic party upon his selection. Commenting on the selection the Raleigh Post says:

Mr. Cooke is a son of Hon Charles well wherever his party may put him.

THE Republicans, with the assistance of Marion Butler, succeeded in getting the grand jury in the Federal Court at Greensboro, to find "true bills" against six registrars for refusing to register a few illegal voters in the August election. Mr. Simmons employed able counsel, and went in person to Greensboro, to back up the men who had done only their duty. The District Attorney and his cohorts pressed for a trial of the cases at the present term, but Judge Boyd, continued the trials to the next term of the Court in February. The truth about the matter is that the Federal Courts it was the purpose of the Radieals and Marion Butler to try and frighten the Registrars from doing thair duty. In this they have failed, as they failed in August to retain the State under fusion and negro rule,
