The news from Manila indicates that the end of our war is about as far distant as the finale of the Boer affair.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat is a strongly partisan in its Republicanism as any newspaper in the land. Here is one of its editorial utterances on the subject:

The recent news from the island of Samar... Two fierce attacks by the insurgents on the United States troops on the island in less than three weeks...

The new treaty is doubtless an improvement on the Hay abortion, but it could not be improved greatly by specifying that the United States shall have the exclusive right to fortify and defend the canal.

The Hon. Perry S. Heath has purchased the Salt Lake Tribune. Mr. Heath is a courteous gentleman, and all those who knew him as first assistant postmaster general will wish him success in his new field.

Secretary Gage has proposed to retire the greenbacks, and as a result he has stirred up a hornet's nest. The Washington Post, independent but predominantly Republican, discusses the question at length and ably, as is its custom.

The movement for retirement of the greenbacks will encounter the solid opposition of the regular Democratic organization and of both wings of the Republicans.

Before the end of the first session of the Fifty-eighth congress will be on. How many of the Republican representatives will venture to make an anti-greenback speech on which to go back to their constituents asking indictment?

Several able Democrats have toured the Philippines this last summer. One of them, John F. Shaforth of Colorado, who is one of the most capable representatives in the house, has written some views on the subject of the government of the Philippines.

They voted to the governor, who is a member of the commission, a salary of $15,000 per annum and $10 a day for subsistence, making in the aggregate a salary of $15,270 a year.

There can be no doubt that, as Admiral Crownshield suggests, we need more officers and, in a greater degree, more enlisted men for the navy.

It is already patent that the intention of commencing the construction of a new shipyard is to meet the needs of the navy.

England's Hot Time. The fight little kingdom over the water is in about the worst fix it has known since Napoleon contemplated a grand invasion of the British islands.

President Kruger's prophecy that the "price that would be paid for our humanity" has come true. The last time it was figured up the statisticians found that the direct expenditure in money on the part of the British had amounted to $700,000,000.

We can undoubtedly provide additional legal safeguards against this terrible crime (the assassination of presidents), but we cannot give up free speech or constitutional liberty because of the danger of the recurrence of such crimes.

Following the deplorable shooting and death of President McKinley, there was a wave of genuine sorrow, mingled with a certain amount of hysteria and a good deal of base and intemperate language concerning the abridgment of free speech.

Hints for the Housewife.

When the tea gets cold, don't throw it away, but dilute it with water and wash your cloth with it. Cold tea is also the best thing to wipe ferns with.

When you have to use currants, wash and dry them well and then drop them, a few at a time, on to a plate and you'll soon hear if there are any stones in them.

To keep the air from newly made jam glaze a piece of paper with the white of an egg and tap over the top - after the jam is cold - with a piece of string which has been soaked in vinegar.

Remember, when making short paste, that the butter is added to the flour before the ingredients are mixed together, but in the case of puff paste (good for tarts) the butter is not added till after the mixture is on the board.

From Cooper's Hill, Mich., comes word of a wonderful discovery of a prehistoric liquid that when used before setting by any one troubled with a bad cough always secures a good night's rest. "It will soon cure the cough too."

Some of the Things That Go to Make a Perfect Kitchen.

Every woman who takes an interest in domestic arrangements considers her kitchen with as much care as her parlor.

Help... Nature

Babies and children need proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive on their food something is wrong. They need a little help to get their digestive machinery working properly.
