PAY YOUR POLL TAX.

This is a general election year in which both State and county officers will be elected. Every Democrat, or every man who desires good government, whether he call himself a Democrat or something else, should feel his duty to cast his vote for the man and measures his judgement approves, but there is one requirement now which has not prevailed heretofore, and one that might be overlooked by voters if attention was not called to it We did this some months ago and now do it again, because it is a matter of importance.

The election law now requires that he voter shall have paid his poll tax (if liable to poll tax) on or before the first day of May in the year in which he offers to vote, and shall, before being permitted to vote, present his tax receipt signed by the sheriff the county or tax collector of the county or township where he resided when the tax was paid. The law mandatory, and the payment of the poll tax within the specified time absolutely necessary. No poll tax, no vote, therefore every Democrat who values his vote and would not lose it should, if he be liable to poll ake the precaution to pay it in time get his tax receipt, and put it where may not be lost before the day

Tillman is a true man, but he is not a great and good man. I admire him for some traits in his character. He cannot be bribed or'intimidated. He dares to say what he believes, and he uses his pitchfork with impunity. He is impetuous and combative, but he is sincere, and everybody admires a sincere man. Sincere is one of the strongest and best words in our language. It literally means unsealed-without wax-for in the olden times letters were sealed with wax, but if it contained no secrets it was not sealed at all, for wax cost money.

Tillman is a bold, defiant, stubborn man, but he is not great. A great man like Webster or Calhoun would have said to McLaurin, "Well, sir, if am a liar I deserve the epithet. The great old state is not asleep. It was never "Rip Van Winckle" as its enemies called it, but was in several very important particulars in the lead of its detractors who sneered in envy and ignorance. One sign of progress is that the attacks upon state education have to a great extent ceased. The enemies were routed fairly. It was seen that war upon the Normal and Industrial schools for women, the Ag. ricultural and Mechanical College and the entire common school system. It was just as wrong as oppressive to compel a man by law to send two or five of his poor neighbor's children to school as it was to educate some poor and meritorious boy at a state college or the university. They are all supported by taxation, by money paid from the state treasury, and for the education of all classes and conditions, All the money comes from the people of North Carolina, except one receives tederalaid, if we are not mistaken. We refer to the A. and M. College. The principle in taxation is the same as to all state schools. It one is wrong, is to be denounced, to be fought, then all education in North Carolina Those who attack one of our state schools must attack all if fair, honest and consistent. The absurdity of the thing has killed it and now the hring is not heard along the lines. It was extreme folly to tax the people for ten fifty or a hundred years to build up an institution of learning or several institutions of learning and then enter up on the hateful work of demolision. It was madness indeed.

WOMEN VS. FEMALES.

In his speech at the dedication of the new building at the State Normal Col lege at Greensboro, N. C., Monday last, Rev. J. L. L. Curry gave some goodnatured but hard knocks in woman's behalf. Talking of "female school," he said there was one word especially abhorrent-it gave him the cold shivers, "It is the word female."

The word applies to all anamals. There is nothing distinctive about it. It is but a perpetuation of the monstrous heresy of woman's inferiori

Special Washington Letter ! HE saddest thing that has happened in this world since that illustrious Missourian Mark Twain shed briny and copious tears at the tomb of Adam the seating of the foreign diplomatic representatives near our imperial court behind the supreme court judges at the McKinley memorial serv-This most calamitous situation grew out of the unfortunate fact that those illustrious courtiers, Senator Joseph Benson Foraker and General Charles Henry Grosvenor, both of Ohlo, who as chairmen of the senate and committees were charged with getting up the programme and with fait as to their duties in matters of imperial etiquette. In extenuation of their grievous fault it may be pleaded these two able and ambitious Buckeye statesmen are new to the imperial business. They are courtiers in the raw, so to speak, but they are assiduous students of the new school, and it may be confidently predicted that, as they are quick to learn, after a sufficient time they will be able to give pointers in imperial etiquette even to the bedizened and bespangled reprenust share alike. > It is said that Lord Pauncefote, the British embassador and dean of the diplomatic corps, has formally expostulated with Mr. Secretary of State Hay as to the indignity placed upon him and his high and mighty confreres and that an entire hour was consumed in consideration of the expostulation. While it is not given to ordinary mor tals to know what was said by those two imperialists it may be naturally assumed that Colonel Hay rubbed much salve upon the burning wounds of the wrathful Englishman. necessary for our uncle to perform that It will be remembered by those who take any interest in the history of our early days that when Thomas Jefferon was president he, for some reason known to himself alone, took Mrs. Dolly Madison, wife of his secretary of state, out to dinner instead of leading out Mrs. Merry, wife of the British embassador, which precipitated diplomatic complications of a most laughble sort, ending in Secretary of State Madison requesting that Mr. Merry be recalled, which was done. Jefferson's conduct on that occasion gave the cue to all the American imperialists to abuse him and calumniate him and to hold him up as an awful example of an untutored Democrat, who hated royalty and all its works even as the devil hates holy water.
